

SHIELDS GETS THE POSITION

Kelkenney and Wright Both Buried by Democrats at South Omaha.

FUSION TICKET NAMED BY THE MACHINE

Whole List from Top to Bottom Shows the Handiwork of the Bosses Who Direct the Gang.

For State Senators: HARRY O'NEILL, Omaha, Dem.; JOHN LIDDELL, Omaha, Dem.; FRANK T. HANSEN, Omaha, Rep.

For Representatives: MARTIN M. SULLIVAN, Omaha, Dem.; GEORGE W. SHIELDS, Omaha, Dem.

For County At-Large: GEORGE W. SHIELDS, Omaha, Dem.; GEORGE W. SHIELDS, Omaha, Dem.

This is the "fusion" legislative and county ticket put up through the customary process of conference by the three conventions of Democrats, Populists and Silver Republicans at South Omaha yesterday.

It corresponds fully to the wishes of no part of the conventions and is confessedly weak in many particulars. The nomination of Shields for county attorney was forced by methods that touched the limit of machine manipulation.

the wrath of Edward Rosewater. He pretended that Edward Rosewater had been in South Omaha less than forty-eight hours before putting up the pins for the nomination of Kelkenney and that men in the convention had been called on the carpet by a republican mayor and commanded to work toward that end.

These lurid utterances were greeted with riotous applause from the Shields and Wright adherents and some attempts at interruption from some of the Kelkenney men present.

After Martin Langdon and Dr. Peabody from the populist convention reported that their convention had organized and invited a conference I. J. Dunn jumped into the arena to boost Shields. He said that Shields had been elected pledges for prosecutor Tom Dennison and that if he were not given the usual second term it would be because he had fulfilled that pledge.

James P. English, Lyle I. Abbott and Frank L. Weaver were half-heartedly placed in nomination.

Platt Defends Kelkenney. Louis Platt entered a spirited denial of the charges against Kelkenney. He said he was a pretty good democrat himself and he had long known Kelkenney as such. There is a vote of five or six democrats who always insist on naming all of the candidates of the party and when anyone else seeks to prefer a candidate the cry is always raised that they are influenced by Rosewater.

Platform Comes Easy. A communication asking the nomination of men who would not legislate against fraternal beneficiary societies was referred to W. O. Gilbert, who at once submitted resolutions regarding the platform.

After an hour's recess the conference committee reported an agreement whereby nominees for the legislature were required to pledge themselves to use their endeavors to reduce telephone charges from $5 per month to $2; that the silver republicans should have one state senator and assessor for the Ninth ward; the populists should have three representatives and the democrats all the rest of the ticket except that two of the democrats should be selected from the four names presented by the "labor" clubs.

James Creighton sought assurance that the labor representatives were Bryan men and Ana Taylor assured him that they were democrats.

Harry Curren of the labor committee served dining notices that two would not be enough and that if the democrats wanted "to keep harmony with us you must do what we ask."

Ed P. Smith rushed to the front to say that Mr. Dahlman had no more right to a seat than the humblest democrat.

rickson; Union, E. Knight; Waterloo, John P. Hanger; West Omaha, C. V. Smith; Valley, Charles Miller.

For constables for South Omaha Mike Higgins and Ken Smith were named. J. J. Shindler for the Third ward of Omaha. Dominic Cosgrove, after being ruled out for numerous times, finally got in a motion for reorganization of the county central committee, but it was laid on the table by 125 to 21 and the convention adjourned.

Populist Convention. The populist wing of the circus met in Kella's hall at Twenty-fourth and N streets. J. J. Points was chairman and Willis Hudspeth secretary. There were about sixty delegates present out of a possible 100.

A conference committee was appointed comprising Messrs. Yeiser, Thomas, Way, Magney and Collins. It was instructed to ask for one senator and two representatives, but when it returned to the senator Yeiser had no support. Kelkenney managed to get in his anti-telephone fable, but not until John Quinn had declared that Yeiser was out for the stuff, whereupon Yeiser buckled on his armor and denounced his accuser as a liar.

A committee on resolutions comprising J. J. Quinby, H. Cohen and J. W. Logan reported resolutions favoring amendment and enforcement of the child labor law, modification of the direct legislation law so that it will apply to legislative enactments, union label on public printing, municipal ownership of public utilities and opposing contract labor system in all public works.

The convention endorsed all the resolutions and extended greetings were extended to Bryan and his traveling mate.

A county central committee was chosen comprising J. W. Barnett, M. J. O'Connell and Charles Fospal of the First ward; P. L. Quinlan, Willis Hudspeth and T. C. Kelsey, Second ward; P. L. Forgan, F. S. Horsey, John Quinn, Third ward; Patrick Hines, J. B. Jones, Dr. Peabody, Fourth ward; Peter Kiewit, John E. Embler, B. S. Schaefer, Fifth ward; Silas Robbins, E. I. Morrow, H. E. Dawes, Sixth ward; Martin Langdon, Joseph Anderson, Hamilton Barnes, Seventh ward; George Magney, A. W. Spaulding, F. W. March, Eighth ward; H. Cohen, Elmer E. Thomas, L. Quinby, Ninth ward; C. E. Curtis, J. Eversoll, George Neer, J. W. Bopp, South Omaha; A. Z. Leach, Elkhorn; W. A. Kitchen, Waterloo; John O. Yeiser, West Omaha; W. A. Whitehead, Douglas; Charles Groff, Johnston; A. Norton, Elmer E. Thomas, Grand Island; Thomas Whitehead, McArdle; James Collins, Valley; R. H. Hall, Millard.

J. B. Jones was elected chairman of the committee, Peter Kiewit secretary and J. W. Barnett treasurer. An executive committee was named comprising George Neer, J. Eversoll, Hans Anderson, W. A. Whitehead, E. I. Morrow, P. L. Quinlan and H. Cohen.

The convention endorsed all the nominations except the last two democratic nominees and upon adjournment authorized the committee to place all of the nominees on the ticket, including the two not then named.

There were about thirty-five men in the silver republican convention. It met in Bryan club headquarters. J. G. Arthur presided and Mel Redford acted as secretary.

MILLIONS OF MEN

Have Been Wrecked on the Rock of Sexual Vice.

THOUSANDS HAVE BEEN RESCUED BY THE STATE ELECTRO-MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Which Combines All of the Curative Powers of Both Medicine and Electricity in Our Electro-Medical Treatment.

DOCTOR TOLSON, SPECIALIST IN DISEASES OF MEN, Of the State Electro-Medical Institute 1308 Farnam St., Omaha, Neb.

SPECIALISTS FOR DISEASES OF MEN.

I make no extravagant assertion when I say that millions of men have been wrecked on the rock of sexual vice. The trouble is not so much that they get diseased, but rather that they allow it to grow worse through neglect or improper treatment. This fact is responsible in many cases for nine-tenths of the suffering.

VARICOCELE AND ITS NEW CURE.

NERVOUS DEBILITY. ITS REMEDY.

BLOOD POISON CURED FOREVER.

ALL ASSOCIATE DISEASES CURED.

Whatever may be the cause of varicocele, its injurious effects are too well known for extended comment. Suffice it to say that it depresses the mind, weakens the body, racks the nervous system, and ultimately leads to a complete loss of sex.

Men, many of you are now reaping the result of your former folly. Your manhood is falling and will soon be lost unless you do something for yourself. There is no time to lose. Impotency, like all sexual diseases, is never on the standstill.

On account of its frightful hideousness, Blood Poison is commonly called the King of all Venereal diseases. Once the system is tainted with it the disease may manifest itself in the form of serious and painful eruptions, or swollen glands, or on the tongue, sore throat, swollen tonsils, falling out of the hair or eyes, or on the face, nose, and throat.

In curing a disease of any kind we never fail to remove all reflex complications. If the case is Venereal, the weakness, the debility, the nervous debility and all Allied and Associate Diseases of Men.

The big siren on the Bemis bag factory was interpreted, but by telephone and otherwise the news it was announcing was spread around the city, and before the day was much more than half spent everyone knew what had prompted its headish shrieks.

Early in the day word was passed around that the Elkhorn system had decided to meet all previously announced rates and go to the aid of the other lines.
