

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM IOWA.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

MINOR MENTION.

Davis sells glass. "Mr. Riley," 5-cent cigar. Gas fixtures and glasses at Ribby's. Fine A. B. C. book, Neumann's hotel. Dr. Stephenson, 101 Pearl St. Tel. 59. Schmidt's photos, new and latest styles. H. M. Leffer, expert optician, 230 1/2 E. Cab. photos 15c up. Williams, 41 Broadway. Wollman, scientific optician, 49 Broadway. W. J. Hoester, dentist, Baldwin block. J. C. & W. Woodward, architects, 523 E. 17th. W. E. Lewis, real estate, 231 E. 17th. Lempp, beer, stout, soybean, sole agent, Post beer, Budweiser, L. Rosenfeld, Agt. New oval frames, C. E. Alexander & Co., 32 Broadway. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Edmundson have gone to Chicago on a visit to friends. Get your work done at popular Eagle laundry, 74 Broadway. Phone 127. W. C. Esten, undertaker, 25 Pearl street. Telephone Office, 27 residence, 23. Dr. Water removed from the South Seventh street to 17 North First street. W. F. Grant, undertaker and licensed embalmer, 23 South Main street. Phone 28. Dr. Charles Baumertel of Panama, Ia., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Baumertel. For sale, thirteen-room, two-story frame hotel building, inquire at Bluff City laundry, 24 North Main. Phlegger Gilbert of St. Louis is the guest of I. A. Odham and family of 22 North Eighth street. W. H. Row of Kearney, Neb., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Wiley, on South 17th street. Mrs. Herbert Parker of Jamesville, Wis., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Giese of Park street. Walter E. Hays, an attorney of Anita, Ia., was admitted to practice in the federal court yesterday by Judge McPherson. Miss Elsie Horn of Fifth avenue left yesterday for Chicago, where she will remain for studies at the Chicago university. Night school Western Iowa college, October 1. Gregg shorthand, touch typewriter, dictating bookkeeping and common branches. D. W. Bushnell of this city was elected president secretary of the Chicago Bridge and Iron association that closed its biennial meeting at Keokuk Thursday. E. R. Mason, clerk of the United States circuit court, left for his home in Des Moines last evening. He expects to return here after the close of the term of federal court. Newton Chase of Harlan, Ia., is the guest of Judge J. E. Aylsworth, on "Chase" was a pupil of the judge when the latter taught school in New York state forty years ago. L. A. Colwell of Shelby, Ia., who has been visiting his brother, Harry W. Colwell of East Third street, returned to Lincoln, where he will enter the University of Nebraska. George H. Stewart, assistant United States prosecuting attorney, returned to his home at Park street yesterday, after the criminal business of this term of federal court being finished. Dr. C. F. Deane of G. H. Coye of Carson were in the city yesterday, calling on friends. They were on their way home from Omaha, where they had been in the AK-Sar-Ten convention. Frank W. Chambliss, lessee and manager of theaters at Des Moines, Galena and Quincy, Ill., and Burlington and Davenport, Mo., will be in the city today. The bill posters' convention here yesterday. J. Flynn, Jr., of New York is the guest of Henry Bickel on the hotel here. He is on his way to California to spend the winter. Mr. Flynn and Mr. Speelman were traveling companions on a recent European trip. Tittle Wright, a colored woman, was indicted in Omaha for robbing an AK-Sar-Ten visitor to the tune of $25, was arrested about 3 o'clock yesterday morning in this city. The police found her in a wine room at the Omaha saloon. The overnight stolen from the residence of B. Grant Thursday evening while the family was asleep. Detective Weir, who was on duty at the time, was called to the scene and found it at Grant's second-hand goods store on 17th street. R. C. Jackson of South Twelfth street turned over to the sheriff from Linn county, Nebraska, yesterday morning, a horse and buggy stolen in Lincoln a week ago. Tuesday morning Jackson and his horse and rig in his possession. Sheriff Peterson paid the reward of $15 for the rig. Colonel J. J. Steadman, clerk of the United States district court, has been notified by the Department of Justice to make a report of all inventory matters in the district for the six months ending September 30. The report will take several weeks to complete, as the referees must all over the district will have to file their reports here. Thomas Swanson has charged the arrest of Andrew Carlson, Charles Carlson, E. S. Barton and Albert W. Ryan, who are charged with stealing a wagonload of sugar cane. The sugar cane was the cane, which was stolen from the farm of the late Mr. Swanson. The value of the cane to the Swansons is $200. The defendants gave bonds for their appearance in court. A trial will be held the case next Monday. It was nearly 3 o'clock yesterday morning before the motor company succeeded in bringing home the hub of the crowd which had been riding the parade and other carnival gaieties. The crowd from here is estimated at from 1,500 to 2,000 during the day. The motor company figures it carried about 1,500 people from here here yesterday. Thursday night. There were no accidents and the only mishap was the derailing of a small car near the Union depot, which delayed the service for a short time. N. Y. Plumbing Co., telephone 250. Attend the Millinery Opening at the Boston Store Saturday, September 29. WHITELAW & GARDNER.

CAMPAIGN IS WARMING UP

Pottawattamie County Republicans Begin to Stir Themselves Politically.

SENATOR ALLISON TO SPEAK HERE

Monster Meeting Planned to Welcome the Distinguished Statesman—Judge Bartlett Tripp to Open the Campaign.

Chairman George S. Wright of the republican county central committee has been invited to the state central committee that Senator W. B. Allison has been assigned for a speech in this city. Iowa's senator will be here October 10 and plans are being made for a monster demonstration that night when the meeting will probably be held in the Dohany opera house. This will be the big rally of the campaign in Pottawattamie county and it is expected that republicans from all over the county will be here to greet the distinguished senator. The republican campaign proper will be opened Monday night in this city when Hon. Bartlett Tripp of South Dakota is booked for an address at the opera house. Mr. Tripp comes here under the auspices of the county central committee, having been secured for a speech here by National Committeeman Ernest E. Hart of this city. He has the reputation of being one of the very best campaigners in the country and is an eloquent platform speaker. Under the auspices of the National Committee, Tripp will minister to Austria. On the night of the meeting the McKinley Guard and the Colored Marching club will act as the escort for the speaker, which will be the first appearance of these clubs in public for this campaign. Hon. James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, will address the republicans at this county this afternoon at Macedonia, when a big gathering is expected. Colonel C. G. Saunders will speak there at the evening meeting. A number of leading republicans from the city will attend the meeting. Hon. Thomas Donnelly of Worcester, Mass., has been secured through Mr. Hart's efforts for two speeches in this county. On October 5 he will speak at Walnut and on October 6 at Carson. Plans have been made by the county central committee for pushing the work during October throughout the county and meetings have been arranged for all the principal towns and in all the townships. Chairman Wright is receiving advice daily from the various township committeemen and they all point to republican gains. According to present arrangements two speeches by good speakers will be delivered in every township before the middle of October. Last month meetings will be arranged for and things kept humming right up to the day of the election. A Brilliant Event. The millinery opening at the Boston Store Saturday, September 29. Beautiful millinery of every description and price. WHITELAW & GARDNER. Domestic soap outlasts cheap soap. STATE BILLPOSTERS IN SESSION. Fifth Annual Meeting Gets Down to Business Promptly. About thirty members of business in life to cover door walls and billboards with advertising posters of all kinds, gathered yesterday afternoon in the League rooms at the Grand hotel, the occasion being the fifth annual meeting of the Iowa State Billposters' association. The meeting was presided over by A. F. Beal of Sioux City, president of the association, assisted by C. W. Nichols of this city, local representative of the organization. Several of the fraternity from Omaha and a number of representatives of advertising firms were present as guests. City Attorney Wadsworth, representing the municipality on behalf of Mayor Jennings, delivered a short address of welcome, which was responded to by C. W. Nichols. The matters discussed at the session pertained to the billposting business. These officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. B. Beal, Sioux City; vice president, W. L. Dwyer, Clinton; secretary, C. W. Nichols, Council Bluffs; treasurer, James F. Coffey, Dubuque. Franchises were granted to Chamberlin & Kindt of Des Moines and C. W. Nichols of this city for Neola. The members of the state association present were: A. B. Beal, Sioux City; C. F. Brown, Waterloo; James F. Coffey, Dubuque; W. P. Dwyer, Fort Dodge; W. W. Majors, Afton; W. M. Harmon, Missouri Valley; C. Kemmer, Elkhart; George B. Cedar Rapids; E. C. Graves, Malvern; C. B. Carson, Seymour; Iowa and Illinois Billposting company, Davenport; B. D. Stevera, Denison; David Finley, Corning; A. P. Myers, Glenwood; Economic Billposting company, Union; Frank Chamberlin, Burlington; W. Nichols, Council Bluffs; C. L. Hoover, Stearns; Elliott Alton, Fort Madison; H. A. White, Jefferson; R. L. Allen, Deora. Domestic soap sells on its merits. Gravel roofing, A. H. Reed, 541 Broadway. Condition of the Bank. Receivers Berensheim and Murphy of O'Connor & Pusey's bank applied to the court yesterday for permission to return to the creditors a sum amounting to $22,000, which had been deposited in the bank the Saturday afternoon following the death of Thomas O'Connor. They also apply for permission to retain $1,167.75 deposited at the same time by clients whose balances on the bank's books are in favor of the firm. Application was also made by the receivers for permission to advance $1,200 to John P. Weaver, the bank manufacturer of this city. The bank holds a bill of sale on Weaver's brick plant and a lien is needed by him to complete the filing and burning of a kiln of brick. In support of their application the receivers state that unless this money is advanced the bank's security will be impaired. The receivers have not made a report to the court as to the assets of the bank, neither has Charles O'Connor as administrator filed an inventory of the estate of his father, the late Thomas O'Connor. Both are being anxiously awaited by creditors of the bank. Matters in District Court. The trial of Augustus Smith, the negro charged with breaking into a home on South Seventh street and attempting to criminally assault a young woman, was commenced in the district court yesterday. The testimony for the state was substantially the same as that given at the preliminary hearing before Justice Vien. The defense will try to prove an alibi and will introduce its evidence this morning, the state having rested when court adjourned yesterday afternoon. M. J. Higgins, indicted on charges of bigamy and adultery, has filed a motion for a continuance of his case until next term. He states that he desires to have investigation made of the court records in Chicago and other places where his wife has resided, as he expects to be able to prove, if given time, that his wife secured a divorce from him more than a year ago. He also says he has been unable to secure the attendance at this term of court of certain witnesses. In the superior court yesterday Judge Aylsworth overruled the motion of the defendants for a new trial in the suit of John Lindt against Augustus Smith and the Schlichter Brewing company and judgment was rendered of $2,714.42 secured by Lindt ordered. The jury in the district court in the case of Mayne & Hazelton against Mrs. Amelia Birney brought in a verdict for $150. The plaintiffs sued for $550 attorney fees. FIRST LETTER FROM BANBRIDGE. Council Bluffs Men Sends Word to Friends from Pekin. The first letter from Hon. W. E. Bainbridge, assistant secretary of the American Tobacco company in Pekin, since the reason for the allied powers, was received here yesterday by his brother-in-law, Jacob Sims. The letter is dated August 15 and reads as follows: LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, PEKIN, CHINA, AUG. 15, 1900. Dear Sims: I have only time for a line. We came out of our living tomb on the 15th, relieved by the arrival of 20,000 British troops. I would have called you but the minister notified the apartment and asked that you be advised. Our position for two months has been terrible beyond words. Ever since June 20 we have been besieged in the Legation, isolated at day and night with shot and shell, gas, bombs, and machine gun fire. Our daily bread has been scarce or of such quality that it has been a matter of life and death to eat it. We have witnessed awful scenes and heard terrible reports of what was going on. We had to hold out for us. Pekin is a scene of ruin and desolation. The Chinese soldiers of the Legation will be meted out to those responsible for what has been done and what is still being done. I wish you would extend our greetings to all our good friends at home and assure them that their kindnesses have been our thought and our hope. W. E. BANBRIDGE. Mrs. Sims received a letter also from Mrs. Bainbridge, like Mr. Bainbridge's, it was brief, but she said she could not write, as she was so busy. The letters left Pekin on this first mail out after the relief. Beautiful Millinery. Our annual fall millinery opening occurs Saturday, September 29. A showing of scores of beautiful foreign and original ideas. WHITELAW & GARDNER. Use Domestic soap. It's the best. Howell's Anti-Kauff cures coughs, colds. 50-cent boxes Domestic soap used in Council Bluffs last month. Foot Ball Game. The High school foot ball team is looking forward to a hard game this afternoon with the Creighton college eleven. The game will be called at 2 o'clock at the old park. The following will be the local team: Center, Cochran; left guard, Peterson; left tackle, Ferron; left end, Dingman; right guard, Campbell; right tackle, Pilling; right end, Treynor; quarter back, Mitchell; left half, Aylsworth; right half, Wheeler; full back, Captain Rickman. Grand Millinery Opening. At Whitelaw & Gardner's Saturday, September 29. All the season's best, both foreign and domestic will be displayed. Commonwealth 10-cent cigar. Davis sells paint. ON TRAIL OF HORSE THIEVES. Benton County Officers Believe They Have Captured One of the Notorious Gang. GRINNELL, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The officers of Benton county are of the opinion that they have just captured one of a gang of horse thieves that have been doing a wholesale business in Benton and neighboring counties. Aiding has become so notorious in that neighborhood that this entire portion of Iowa has become terrorized. The thieves were boldly accomplished and audaciously carried out in most cases the animals were sold near the place from which they were stolen. The officers have been hot on the trail of the thieves in several places, but up to the present arrest have been unable to accomplish anything and there has been strong talk of organizing an old-time vigilance committee. A few days ago the officers at Belle Plaine received notice to be on the watch-out for a notorious character named Jack Davis, who was alleged to have stolen a horse at Watkins, yesterday they discovered that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday they were buried. It is reported that the man had gone to Chelsea and telephoned to the officers there to look out for and arrest him. Davis was caught in the act of selling another horse and buggy, which had just been stolen. Sheriff Dyer brought him to Grinnell today. The officers believe that through Davis they may obtain a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the most notorious gang of horse thieves that has ever operated in Iowa. Burial of Storm Victims. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The victims of the tornado at Pelee Island, yesterday