According to the advices in addition to he edicts ordering Grand Couns for Kin Kank to offer oblations before the coffin of Baron von Ketteler and the edict directing that Li Hung Chang's entire plan be followed in regard to the punishment of princes and high ministers of state responsible for the anti-foreign outrages and the decree ordering that funeral honors be paid in Pekin and Tokio to the remeins of Sugiyama Akira, the murdered chancellor of the Japanese legation," Emperor Kwang Su has address d further letters to the ezar and the miliado renewing his request for their aid in the peace negotiations.

Various opinions are expressed as to the mportance of the edicts. The Shanghai orrespondent of the Morning Post says: "The 'severe punishment' ordered by Emperor Kwang Su will only mean a money fine. There are traces of Li Hung Chang's hand, under American influences, in the edict."

On the other hand, the Standard's Shanghai correspondent remarks: Work of Empress.

"The empress now realizes the true nature of the crisis. SAWMAN WHO KILLED LAWTON

Private Returned from Philippines
Says Deserter from American Army Fired Fatal Shot.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30 .- A special to the Rec ord from Salt Lake City, Utah, says: Leon Mayhue, a private in Troop I Elleventh United States cavalry, who re turned from the Philippines today, was present when General Henry W. Lawton was killed last December near San Mateo He saw the shot fired and delares that the man who aimed the rifle was a deserter from the American army. He said:

"General Lawton took Troop G. Eight centh cavalry, as scouts when he came down from the north to capture San Mateo He planned the battle for December 19 and on the night before at 11:30 we proceeded toward the town, traveling twenty-three miles. We reached the outskirts of the city at daylight and firing began about 8 o'eleek.

"I was with the skirmish line within fifty yards of General Lawton and we saw a man in black trousers, showing conspicuously among the white uniforms of the insurgent officers, come out on the tower of the church. He surveyed the ground on which we stood very carefully, then raised his musket and fired. At that instant General Lawton, who was dismounted, moved his hand across his face as if to brush away an insect and sank to his knees.

"We found in the church about 100 yards of telegraph tape, which, interpreted, showed that General del Pilar and an American had been in command of the insurgents. That night word was brought in from the insurgent line that they intended capturing Lawton's body. We knew then hat had there not been an American in that church who saw him fall the Filipinos would not have known he was dead.
