

The Late Senator

Stanford's Sister

Mrs. Harriet Lathrop of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., who is also well known for her generosity, recently stated: "I had a very bad cough. I took Dr. Kay's Lung Balm and it cured me. It is the best medicine I ever saw for coughs, colds and la grippe and I am recommending it to all my friends."

The above very strong statement from so noted a person as Mrs. Harriet Lathrop should satisfy any person that has no equal for coughs, colds and la grippe. Do not fail to try it. Keep one of the handy vest pocket boxes, which cost only 10c, always in your vest pocket and you will find that a dose or two taken as soon as you take cold will break it up at once. It has no equal for children, for croup, whooping cough and in fact for every kind of cough. You would be surprised to know of the large numbers who have been cured by this remedy of consumption. If any of your friends are afflicted with consumption, do not fail to tell them of this remedy. If they will write us about their case we will send them instructions how to proceed to effect a complete cure and we do this gladly and willingly entirely free of charge. We mean this. We have done it thousands of times and we hope you will tell all your friends who have a cough of long standing.

Don't take any substitute that anybody tells you is just as good, for it positively has no equal. If you can't get it at druggists send the price direct to Dr. B. J. Kay Medical Co., Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and it will be sent prepaid by return mail—also ask for free advice, free sample and free book. Dr. Kay's Lung Balm is sold for 10c and 25c by your druggist.

POLITICAL TRICK EXPOSED

Local Organ of Fusionists Rebuked by Central Labor Union. REFUSED TO CORRECT FALSE STATEMENT

F. M. Mullen's Meat Market Reported to Have Been Boycotted When Such Was Not the Case.

The Central Labor union last night knocked the wind out of a little political trick of the World-Herald, in which it was assisted by a member of the butchers' union, F. H. Bowen, and appointed a committee to investigate the course of the butchers' delegate in the matter.

At the last meeting of the union a resolution was adopted declaring unfair certain butchers shop, the proprietors of which have refused to comply with the rules of the union. As adopted by the central body, the resolution included four shops, but when the list appeared the next morning in the World-Herald there were five shops enumerated, the fifth one being that of F. M. Mullen at Twentieth and Grace streets. That morning Mr. Mullen saw the report and sent to the union to enquire why he was listed as unfair. The officers denied any knowledge of the publication of the list and stated that they would have the matter corrected. At the meeting of the union last night the reporter of the paper handed in a list upon which appeared the name of Mr. Mullen, saying that it had been handed him by Delegate Bowen. Mr. Bowen was not present, but will be given an opportunity to explain his conduct before the committee.

Refused to Make Correction. The arbitration committee of the Central Labor union reported that the matter had been called to the attention of the World-Herald and that the editor had refused to make any correction, but had inserted an item to the effect that the boycott on Mullen had been declared off, when the committee had requested him to state that Mr. Mullen had never had any trouble with his employees, but on the other hand had advanced the money to his butchers with which to join the union. The committee appointed to investigate the conduct of Delegate Bowen consists of B. C. Dodd, M. Cavanaugh and George E. Russell.

Delegate Mitchell of the Federal Labor union started a matter which resulted in the suspension of Secretary Sparks until such time as he carried out the instructions of the union and explains why he has not done so heretofore. Mr. Sparks, presumably acting under instructions from Washington, seized the charter of the union some time ago and refused to return it upon the order of the central body, unanimous vote suspended him until he delivers the charter to the officers of the union. E. E. Philbrick was elected secretary pro tem.

A board of five directors of the proposed official organ of organized labor of the city was elected, as follows: Asa Taylor, J. J. Kierigan, E. E. Russell, Peter Kowalski and Nels Svengard. On motion of Mr. Kierigan, it was decided that the central labor bodies of Council Bluffs and South Omaha should have three members each on the official board and the societies were requested to elect them immediately.

Walters' Jobs in Jeopardy. The manager of the Schlitz hotel announced by letter his intention of discharging his union waiters next week, on the ground that the union has failed to stand up to its agreement. The matter was referred to the Walters' union to co-operate with the arbitration committee to see if the trouble could not be settled.

The union requested the withdrawal of the cards declaring a boycott on the Radiant Home stove for the reason that the firm handling them in Omaha had promised to handle no more until the trouble is settled and the cards injure that firm, which carries a line of stoves purchased before the strike was declared.

Fusionists' union No. 104 made another unsuccessful attempt to break into the central body, but, as usual, its communication was tabled.

UNION LABOR CLUB GOES TO PIECES.

South Omaha Organization Strikes Political Rock and is Disrupted. The South Omaha Union Labor club went to pieces on the rock of partisan politics at its last meeting and the members which remain have organized a fusion club. At the meeting last week an attempt was made to endorse the fusion ticket from top to bottom. One of the members called attention to the fact that the constitution of the organization provided that no party ticket should be endorsed, but that the members were bound to vote for such candidates as were nominated by the party conventions upon the recommendation of the club. The fusionists were in a majority at the meeting and decided not to be bound by the constitution. Upon this action being made public over half the membership decided to leave the club and it is now working as a fusion society.

The deathblow was delivered by John Liddell, fusion candidate for senator, who, at the meeting which disrupted the society, denounced the formation of the two labor clubs, saying that they had been organized to assist the republican politicians and that they had been operated solely in the interests of one man. This angered some of the democrats, and now a large part of them will not attend the club meetings.

FIFTH WARD REPUBLICANS

Honoring Meeting of the Club Addressed by Candidates and Party Leaders.

Several candidates on the republican ticket and a number of party leaders addressed the Fifth Ward Republican club at a rousing meeting held last night at the corner of Sixteenth and Locust streets. R. W. Richardson, president of the club, opened the meeting with a short address and introduced Fred M. Young, one of Douglas county's republican candidates for the legislature.

"After four years of republican prosperity it seems to nearly all voters that a democratic victory is not possible. We believe too firmly that our cause has already been won and in this overwhelming lies the only danger that now threatens in the approaching campaign," said Mr. Young. "Naturally we must be brought back into the republican ranks and to bring about this end every republican must exert his best efforts."

Alfred J. Coleson, candidate for state senator, urged the republican voters to support the Douglas county ticket with loyalty and emphasized the importance of electing the entire ticket and dealing a deathblow to democracy. He was followed by C. M. DeLamatre, who made a brief review of the issues which are prominent in the present campaign and said that there is really nothing new in the contest.

Nelson C. Pratt urged the necessity of electing a republican legislature this fall and selecting two staunch republicans to represent Nebraska in the United States senate.

W. B. Christie, candidate for membership on the Board of Education, made a short speech, urging the republicans to stand by their ticket.

W. C. McKay related experiences he has had during the last week while traveling in eastern Nebraska. A poll was taken yesterday of a train between York and Omaha and it showed that there were fifty-seven McKinley men and sixteen Bryan men among the passengers. Mr. McKay stated that in his belief the proportion was about what it is on trains in all parts of the state. John Evans, C. Farrell and several of the members of the club also made brief addresses.

SOUTH DAKOTA VOTES CHANGE

Men Who Supported Bryan Four Years Ago Are Out for McKinley This Time.

S. W. Allerton, a prominent packer of Chicago, accompanied by his nephew, A. C. Thompson, and William F. Williams, assistant United States treasurer, arrived in the city Friday evening from South Dakota, where they held a series of republican meetings. They bring the most glowing reports of republican gains in that section of the country. Mr. Allerton, who has extensive interests in the little mining town of Terry, ten miles from Deadwood, has this to say of the situation there:

"There are about 800 miners here. I should judge. Four years ago all were in reduced circumstances, but today they are prosperous and happy. They have organized a fine republican club and have a brass band that would do credit to Omaha. The club has 150 members and is growing steadily. The superintendent reports some wonderful conversions from fusionism. We held a meeting there which was orderly, enthusiastic and in which every man seemed to take an active interest. We are sure to gain over 250 votes right there over that of four years ago."

"We held another meeting in Wheeler county, South Dakota, formerly a hotbed of populism, but the fusionists are now losing their hold there and the vote will show some material republican gains."

Mr. Williams, who accompanied Nebraska four years ago, says conditions are 100 per cent better here now than they were then and he confidently expects McKinley to carry the state.

Mr. Allerton and party will leave Omaha Sunday night on the return trip, stopping in Illinois to speak at Atkinson, where he has a large tract of farm land.

South Omaha News.

The committee of the Young Men's Republican club in charge of the arrangements for the republican rally to be held here tonight has completed the details for the reception and entertainment of the speakers.

A committee composed of A. H. Murdoch, John C. Troutan, Edwin Copenhagen, P. A. Wells, E. E. Ridgeway, Henry C. Murphy and Earl Mathews will meet the speakers at the Her Grand hotel in Omaha and escort them to the city. The voters will be met at the train by a committee composed of Howard H. Baldrige, Mayor A. R. Kelly, National Committeeman Schneider and M. H. Collins and escorted to the Her Grand.

Those who will deliver addresses in South Omaha tonight are Senator M. A. Hanna of Ohio, Patrick O'Donnell of New York, Samuel W. Allerton, William T. Williams and Edward Rosewater. There will be speaking at a stand erected south of the postoffice at Twenty-fourth and M streets, at blum's hall and at Koutsky's hall.

Hon. James H. Van Dusen will preside over the open air meeting, while J. A. Beck, president of the Young Men's Republican club, will have charge of the Blum's hall meeting. Counselman Frank J. Pille has been designated as chairman of the Koutsky hall meeting. A large number of prominent laboring men and citizens have been invited to occupy seats on the platforms at the various meetings.

The mounted escort will meet at 6:30 o'clock this evening at Twenty-fourth and M streets and proceed to the Her Grand hotel. The return trip will be made as rapidly as possible and it is expected that the speaking will commence at 7:30 o'clock. Uniforms for the escort may be obtained by applying at republican headquarters in the Murphy block.

Comment on Registration. Republicans generally appear to be satisfied with the result of the first day's registration, the increase over the first day of registration in 1899 being 910. In 1899 the registration on the first day by wards was as follows: First ward, 268; Second ward, 284; Third ward, 226; Fourth ward, 29; total, 1,147.

Surprise is expressed at the showing made by the republicans and it is confidently expected that a much greater increase will be shown at the next day of registration, which will be on October 26. It is asserted that quite a number of voters who are known to be democrats registered as republicans, giving as their reason that they are satisfied with the existing condition of affairs.

In speaking to a business man, a well known packing house employe said that he had switched and had registered as a republican. He said he was doing so because of McKinley and a continuance of prosperity. He said that five years ago he was out of work and was compelled to live at the World-Herald soup house. During this time of depression he did odd jobs and sent every penny he made to his family, living in a short time ago felt able to purchase a piano. Both his daughters are now taking music lessons and the entire family is well fed and comfortably clothed. It is asserted that a large proportion of the democratic laboring vote here will cast ballots for the republican ticket this fall for the reason that times are prosperous.

Treasurer Will Cancel Tax. Judge Dickinson of the district court has ordered the city treasurer to cancel the outstanding taxes on the Twenty-fourth street paving, he having declared the tax illegal. On account of the scandals incident to the laying of this pavement many property owners declined to pay the tax and the city has since the last year any number of suits have been instituted against the city to have the tax set aside.

The throwing out of the tax will entail an enormous amount of work on the city treasurer and will also cause the general taxation to be largely increased. It is estimated that about $70,000 of unpaid taxes on this paving district remains on the books and it will now devolve upon the municipal authorities to issue general indebtedness bonds to take up the balance of the outstanding bonds. The city treasurer will thus be paying for the greater portion of the cost of the paving on Twenty-fourth street.

There is little consolation for the property owners who have paid their taxes, as only by instituting individual suits can their money already paid be recovered. No steps toward issuing general indebtedness bonds will be taken at present.

Discordant Democrats. It is rumored that there is trouble in the democratic ranks again over the proposed demonstration to be held here on October 27. Three democratic clubs are in existence here and each is struggling for supremacy. The McCran-Gallagher aggregation wants to make a parade, while the White faction doesn't want any show unless its leaders are given first place. The German-American club, headed by Henry Oest, is causing the other two clubs a great deal of uneasiness on account of the demand of the Germans that they be given a proper representation.

One prominent member of this German club stated last evening that possibly the plans for a demonstration would fall through, because of the inability of the three clubs to get together in the matter of arrangements. This officer of the club further said that unless peace was declared before long the Germans would go ahead and have a celebration of their own, entirely independent of the other democratic clubs.

On account of the discord a number of prominent Germans have become disgusted with the way things are running and have withdrawn from the democratic ranks and joined the Douglas County German-American club. The nearer election draws the greater the kicking in the democratic ranks. The registration shows that the democrats are losing ground daily. Little interest is being taken by the fusion outfit here in the outcome and some are honest enough to admit that McKinley will doubtlessly carry Nebraska.

Crippled with Rheumatism

Six years ago I began to feel a slight pain in my hips and legs, and as the pain grew worse it extended to my feet. They swelled all out of shape, and the pain was dreadful. Finally my feet began to grow numb and I could barely hobble about. One day when I had come down to the store I got to the steps and could go no farther. Finally a passer-by helped me into the store and I at once called myself in a doctor's hands. Electricity was tried, but without relief. In fact the feeling in my feet was so far gone that I scarcely felt the full force of the battery.

"One day Miss Gorman, a member of the family of the late Honorable Gorman of this city, told me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I bought a box. I had never heard of them before, but I thought I would give them a fair trial, so I bought ten boxes. In my opinion the majority of people are not willing to give a remedy a fair trial. I knew that two or three boxes would not cure me, but I found that I had bought more than was necessary. I began to feel better by the time I had finished the seventh box. I was cured. I had no more pain, swelling or numbness. I had to have a doctor, and that was five years ago. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to a great many people, for there is no doubt in my mind that anyone who is suffering with rheumatism will benefit if they use it. It is the only cure." Because it is a year-old Grace Case became licensed at some imaginary wrong who left her happy home at 214 South Twelfth street about 9 p. m. Thursday with the firm intention of never coming back. Her folks became alarmed after she was missed and notified the police at midnight of her absence. A description of the young miss was given to every policeman and detective, and the police of Council Bluffs and South Omaha were also notified. For the balance of the night and all day Friday the officers of the three officers were on the lookout for the runaway. The sudden disappearance, without a single trace left behind, was mysterious in the extreme. The sleuths could not find a single clew and were compelled to let the case slip through their fingers. The mystery was cleared on Friday night when Grace emerged from a bakery wagon which had been left in the rear of her home. The girl had spent nearly twenty-four hours inside without food or water and, though hungry and疲乏, was none the worse for the experience.

COY MAKES COMPARISONS

Conditions Four Years Ago Contrasted with Those Existing at Present.

About fifty republicans of the First ward were assembled at the headquarters of the First ward club at Sixth and Pierce streets last evening. They were treated to an address of considerable length and force by J. F. Coy, who spoke from the standpoint of a mechanic who encountered the adversity of 1896 somewhat disastrously, losing his home and being reduced to a trying existence. He urged workmen with heart-felt earnestness to vote the republican ticket and continue the prosperity that has grown upon them during the past four years. There was an earnest vigor in his comparison of the dollar a day period of 1896 with the 40 cents an hour regime existing under the protective tariff, sound money policy of President McKinley and the prosperity of the party and his remarks seemed to touch a responsive chord in his audience, which was composed exclusively of laboring men. Brief addresses were made also by Messrs. Buresh, Corner, Youngs and Mead, nominees for the legislature.

J. HAMILTON LEWIS SEES THINGS.

Washington Statesman Makes a Few Remarks About Eastern Politics. Hon. J. Hamilton Lewis of Seattle, Wash., came in from the east yesterday morning and was at democratic state headquarters. He has been in the east in company with Bryan making speeches in behalf of democracy.

"I believe," said Mr. Lewis, "that you may put West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and Kentucky down in the democratic column and I would say that Senator Elkins is going to be beaten in West Virginia in any event. I place New York in the democratic column by 11,000. Bryan will go up to the Harlem river with about $2,000 and McKinley will meet him there with about 60,000. I do not agree with the democratic leaders as to Illinois. I don't believe we will carry that state. No, do I think we will carry Ohio. About Indiana, I only know what I could learn in making two speeches in large cities, but democrats there expressed the utmost confidence that the state will go for Bryan."

Mr. Lewis left in the afternoon for Wyoming to make some speeches there and will return to Nebraska before going west. For a Cold in the Head. LAXATIVE BROMO-QUININE TABLETS. Mr. J. L.
