

FRANKLIN COUNTY AWAKENS

Farmers Crowd Bloomington to Attend a Republican Rally.

WHOLE DAY DEVOTED TO EXERCISES

Hon. J. Warren Keifer, Hon. W. S. Summers and Others Deal Knock-Out Blows to the Fusion Combination and Issues.

BLOOMINGTON, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The greatest rally of the campaign was held here Friday. A large tent was erected in the court house square and by early forenoon teams began to arrive from every quarter. Men, women and children laid aside their work and devoted a full day listening to good republican doctrine.

In the evening the crowd was even larger than during the day. The McKinley and Roosevelt marching club of Bloomington gave an exhibition drill which elicited applause on every hand. Adam McMullen, a Nebraska university boy, now in the treasury department at Washington, D. C., first addressed the meeting and in a few well chosen remarks advised young men casting their first vote to cast it in support of the party progress, prosperity and patriotism.

The closing address of the day was made by Hon. W. S. Summers of Omaha. For two hours and a half he dealt blow to the fusion forces, routing them on every hand. He clearly demonstrated to the people that their organization, with its principles, had been swallowed by democracy and its leaders; that the identity of the party had been lost beyond recovery and pleaded with those who wore the blue and offered their lives for the salvation of the nation's honor in the '90s to now warmly apply themselves to the principles for which they fought.

He handled the question of imperialism with masterly skill. He hurled the question of trusts into the teeth of the adversaries and showed the democratic party to be the only one that stands for the defender of unshakable combinations, while he demonstrated that all laws ever passed for the regulation of these evils have been passed by a republican congress and the bills signed by a republican president.

It was a great day for the republicans of Franklin county. Many populists were in attendance at both the afternoon and evening meetings and the earnest attention given by them to the speakers showed that they must be convinced of the truth of the arguments. Much good will certainly result from the meetings. The republican organization of the county is thorough. The workers are earnest and untiring in every part of the county and the returns on election day will show large republican gains from the vote of four year ago.

PREACHES TRUE POPULIST FAITH.

J. K. Stevens Makes a Strong Mid-Road Speech at Nelson.

NELSON, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—A splendid audience greeted the mid-road populist at the court house Friday night. J. K. Stevens, mid-road populist candidate for congress from the fifth district, expounded true populist principles for two hours to a very attentive audience. Mr. Stevens is an able, logical and forceful speaker and to a remarkable degree possesses that magnetic power and earnestness which carries his audience along with him and impresses every one with the conviction of his earnestness and zeal in behalf of the farmers and laborers of the state. He feels deeply the error his populist farmer friends are making in abandoning their principles and party in permitting themselves to be led by designing politicians to the democratic party. With an earnestness born of sincere convictions of right he appealed to fusion populists to fall down upon their knees and earnestly ask Almighty God to assist them to banish political prejudice and see the right. He warned them in most eloquent terms of the fact that they stood today as a disorganized body of men who were upon the eve of publicly abandoning every party principle and said that they were committing a political crime at the magnitude of which hell might well blush with shame.

Plattsmouth Woman's Club.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—A very enjoyable meeting of the musical department of the Plattsmouth woman's club was held last evening at the residence of Mrs. C. L. Marshall. The meeting was called to order by President Mrs. Ruth D. Fellows and after the secretary's report and preliminary business was disposed of the program was turned over to the leader, Mrs. S. A. Davis. The program consisted of popular music, negro melodies and their composers, and was opened by singing "America." A short essay on music was read by Mrs. Davis and was followed by Mrs. J. N. Wise with a brief but interesting sketch of Stephen Foster, the writer of so many beautiful and familiar melodies. The names of Melba, Wagner, Verdi and Adella were added to the membership.

Opening a New Theater.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—One week from tomorrow the doors of the new Parmele theater will be thrown open to admit the public. This event is looked forward to with great interest, not only by the management but by the people of Plattsmouth generally, as it marks the opening of an institution which this city has needed for many years—in fact, ever since the Waterman opera house was destroyed by fire. Charles C. and Tom E. Parmele have spent money freely to make the new theater equal to the best playhouse in the state. The new Parmele theater has a stage capacity which will accommodate the largest and finest theatrical troupe in the country, with a seating capacity in proportion. No efforts are being spared to make the opening night a memorable evening. October 29, with the Grand opera company in "New Jerusalem," a success.

BAD GANG IS SENT TO PRISON.

Four Highwaymen Convicted of a Daring Bit of Robbery. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Frank Howard, Willis McVie, R. W. Ames and Thomas Kelley, the four desperadoes who were arrested at Pacific Junction several weeks ago on the charge of highway robbery, have each been sentenced to seven years in the Iowa penitentiary by Judge Wheeler of Mills county. While these men were passing through Plattsmouth over the Burlington road in an empty furniture car about three weeks ago they pulled two men belonging to Contractor Stoddard's gang into the car as the train slowly ran into the city and robbed them of all the money in their possession and when Pacific Junction, Ia., was reached were allowed to leave the car. After a hard struggle, in which one of the tramps was shot in the arm, the Iowa officers captured the robbers. It is reported that these men committed a number of robberies in this state.

Both of the marching clubs of this place and of Pawnee City went out and marched in procession Friday night, which reached more than around the public square. After the marching was over, the opera house was crowded to hear a speech from Hon. Norris Brown of Kearney, who spoke on national questions for nearly two hours and who had the Congressional Record in his hand to prove the attitude of Senator W. V. Allen less than two years since on the Philippine question. His speech was highly commended by all.

Hinshaw at Alliance.

ALLIANCE, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—One of the best meetings of the campaign was held here Friday night under the auspices of the McKinley and Roosevelt club at the Phelan opera house to a packed house. Hon. E. H. Hinshaw of Fairbury for nearly two hours held the audience in close attention while at time enthusiasm was uncontrolable. The Glee club discoursed some fine music. This Glee club is the best in western Nebraska, composed of James H. H. Hewitt, leader, Frank Reddish and A. Cornell, basses, with W. L. Leitch as tenor and Clara Cornell second base.

Boomer's Lecture at Elm Creek.

ELM CREEK, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—A heavy rain falling here yesterday afternoon and evening did not prevent a full house from greeting George L. Boomer, with his lecture and reception, at the Elm Creek house. There were 150 pictures and he explained each in an intelligent manner, having been a member of the First Nebraska and taken most of them himself. He closed by giving his campaign plans as an administrator in eloquent terms. The entertainment was a rare treat to the people here. Pictures of Colonel Stearns and President McKinley elicited generous applause.

SPLENDID RALLY AT WYMORE

Senator Hanna's Visit the Occasion of a Most Enthusiastic Republican Demonstration.

WYMORE, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Five thousand people stood out in a cold, biting wind for thirty minutes yesterday morning and heard United States Senator Mark Hanna discuss the issues of the campaign and when he had finished the crowd was in a splendid humor and cheered long and loud for Hanna and everything pertaining to republicanism. The special which bore Senators Hanna and Fry, Victor Dolliver and others arrived here at 9:30 and was greeted by a deafening noise. Every whistle in the town was turned loose, fire bells rang, bands played and hundreds of horns were brought into action. The reception committee escorted the distinguished party and the newspaper representatives to rally decorated carriages and they were driven through the vast concourse of people to the speakers' stand which had been erected on the street. Victor Dolliver was the first to speak and he put the crowd in a good humor at once. His remarks were brief and he was followed by Senator Hanna, who spoke for thirty minutes and made the best of a good humor and said he had seen his horns. He hoped to see Nebraska back in the republican column this year and the crowd cheered and assured him it would be there. The town was elaborately decorated and business was suspended for an hour.

It is reported that the marriage will be annulled, as the parents allege the bride is only 14 years of age.
