Justice in China---Queer Court Customs

eign judges will be needed.

is usually represented by the interpreter of ordered away for more torture. the legation. The native judge is a mandarin of the seventh order named Wang, The law and punishments used for cases in which Chinese only are interested are practically Chinese, the Chinese judge being allowed to have his own was except where Europeans are interested.

I visited this mixed court the other day Consul Ceneral Govinow went with me and introduced me to Mandarin Wang. Dr. Barchet, the interpreter of our consulate, who also noted as judge, translated for meand flattery, that touch of nature which makes the whole world kin, greased the which of our conversation. We had a cup of tea together before going into the court room, and Judge Wang, seeing my camera, said he hoped I would take a photograph of him on the teach. I replied that I would be glad to do so if there was to be any bambooing. Bambooing is the most common punishment here. Witnesses are hambooed to make them confess, and if this does not serve more terrible punishments are adopted.

Judge Wang replied that he would be delighted to oblige me, but that the usual hour for bambeoing was 4 in the afternoon, when he hoped I would return

"I am sorry, your honor," said I, "but I have an engagement at 4."

'Ah!" said the old Chinese mandarin, as he reflectively sipped his tea, "in that case perhaps I can fix it up this morning to sult you. I have an old thief here who has not confessed. I will have him brought in near the close of the session and give him 200 blows to loosen his tongue. It will be just before noon and you will have a fairly good light for your picture."

At this moment the officers told us that the court was ready and the old mandarin invited me to sit on the bench with him. For two hours I watched thieves, burglars, kidnapers, pirates and others dragged in by policemen. They were pulled along in chains, jerked about by their queues and made to get down upon their knees before us. While there the judge examined them and the detectives and policemen gave evidence. Sentences were quickly passed. Some got as much as 300 blows of the bambon, some were sentenced to the cangue, others to imprisonment in chains and some to hard labor. Pumbooed Before the Camera.

and my victim was brought in. Two vil- -much like a carpenter's sawhorse-and, confession will be sent to the viceroy and lainous-looking policemen in tall red hats forcing him upon his knees, put this saw- his head be cut off a day or so later." and long red gowns pushed him forward, horse against him so that the board of the holding him by the queue. He trembled bench rested against his back between the as he entered the room and fell on his shoulders. There was a hole in the top of judges. In the court here I heard a numdemanded his confession. The man pro- pulled and his head tied by it tight against at Canton one woman was punished with of 8 living in a little town about twenty

And then to the fess."

nakedness

tle teakwood table to the opposite end of his moaning made me sick. the room and clear out the visitors between it and the man. I fixed my camera first blow the picture was taken.

as one of the illustrations of this letter.

stopped it if I could, but it was in court, with instruments of torture in their hands. and this was impossible. It took four men again and again, as they counted the to the bar by his queue. the second fifty it had turned black. When man's legs just back of the knees. a jelly.

(Copyright, 1900, by Frank G. Carpenter) ished until he has confessed his guilt. This me he is accused of piracy, but that he was intense. Three days after that I SHANGHAL, Sept. 12 - (Special Cor- causes all sorts of tortures. The Inquisirespondence of The Bee.) - This war will tion was mild in comparison with the Chimake the mixed courts a feature of every nese courts of the present. I once saw an big Chinese city. They will be established alleged pirate brought into the native court to try all disputes between foreigners and at Amoy. The man protested his innopatives. The Chinese in the foreign con- cence. He had been so tortured that he purs. cessions will be subject to them and for- was not able to walk and he was carried in a basket. He had an iron chain about The foreign concession of Shanghal is now his neck and another about his feet and three times as large as the native city. It bands. He was spilled out of the basket has 400,000 population, of whom only 5,000 upon the floor in front of the judge. His are Europeans. It has a mixed court, with chains were taken off and he was assisted little ink over each of his palms and press and as a rule it is only the man who has Chinese and foreign judges. The American to his knees. The judge asked him of he them that down upon a sheet of paper, no money who receives the full sentence Chinese and foreign judges. The American to his knees. The judge asked him of he above which some writing in Chinese has "Speaking of the bamboo, I have heard judge is the consul general, although he were guilty. He replied "No," and he was above which some writing in Chinese has been printed. These form his signature to of a punishment in which the living plant

CHINESE POLICEMAN-THIEF CHAINED FOR STEALING DRUGS.

At last the end of the docket was reached side of the court room. They took a bench could be detected by means of them. The shoulders and another by the calves, so coiled up and put under his bare knees. that his fat thighs showed in all their He was then told that he would be let down fession, when he confessed. I cannot describe the "There is your picture," said the judge, forture. The man's eyes almost started

A Tortured Pirate.

Here is another pen picture as I took it in on the table, stepped off the distance be- the native court at Canton a few weeks ago, back against his knees while another tween it and the criminal and set the I give the notes just as I wrote them. "I struck her across the mouth with the clapshutter. The bambooer knelt down be- am in a Chiuese court room. A yellow-faced per. Her lips bled at the first blow. hind him and raised his rod and at the judge in a gorgeous gown, with a peacock After the fifth they began to swell and at feather in his cap, sits behind a red-covered the end they were as thick as your three It proved to be a success and I used it table. Beside him are clerks in silks and fingers." sating. The officers of the court, dressed in After the bambooing began I would have livery, with tall sugar-leaf hats, stand about "The floor is of stone and upon the cold to give the 200 blows, each man bringing granite in front of the bench upon his bare bamboo. This punishment was terrible, down the bamboo fifty times on the bare knees is a Chinese criminal. His arms are for the man's flesh was torn from his thighs of the victim. The bamboo was a stretched out at right angles to his body, thighs. As I looked I said to Judge Tu, strip of cane about two inches wide and They are bound by ropes, twisted round the mandarin in charge, 'I don't see how five feet in length. It was as lithe as sole and round them, to a long bar which rests you can stand it. leather, but so springy that it seemed to upon his shoulders, just back of the neck. fly back upon touching the fish. The exe- throwing his yellow agonized face to the cutioners held it in both hands, bringing front. The bar is fastened to uprights on it down with a noise like a pistol crack each side, and it serves as a frame to keep scribed a terrible punishment which he upon one single spot on the man's thighs, the man in position and prevent him from witnessed in Kukiang a few years ago. They never left this spot, hitting it exactly falling if he should faint. His head is tied Said he:

strokes aloud. In the first ten strokes there "Now, at the direction of the judge, two of the city when I saw a crowd on the was no change of color, although the man of the court officials take a round stick street below me. I stopped and some of howled and groaned. After the twenty- eight feet long and of the thickness of a the men asked me to come down and see fifth the flesh was red, and at the end of telegraph pole. They lay it down upon the the fun. I did so and found the crowd was 125 were reached it was bleeding slightly, then catch hold of the bar to which the which held a man, bareheaded, barethe black line having extended out to a criminal's arms are fastened and step with footed and disfigured with beatings. Their ring about the size of your palm. At the both feet upon the stick. They are fat and heads were upheld by shelves into which end the flesh to the depth of an inch was the two must weigh at least 350 pounds, their neeks fitted, so that their whole Their weight is pressing the man's bare weight rested upon the toes. The shelves

Especially for Women.

Women are not favored by Chinese man is dead. knees in front of the judge, who fiercely the board. Through this his queue was ber of severe sentences pronounced, and ing. It was only two years ago that a boy tested his innocence, but Judge Wang, in the board so that his neck was stretched the clapper. This seems to be especially miles from Shanghai was playing with a what must have been to the prisoner a to its utmost. His arms were bent back for women. It is made of two pieces of stool. He was tossing it up in the air and tied to the upper legs of the horse, leather, each as thick as a harness tug, when his mother ran out of the hut and You are not telling the truth; you are The man was barefooted. The officials but a little wider. They are fastened to a it accidentally fell upon her head and policeman: pulled up his wide pantaloons to the thighs handle in the middle. The clapper is not "Give him the bamboo and make him con- and, bending his legs, tied them to the more than a foot long, but it is as deadly upper legs of the horse by strings fastened as though it were iron. It is used for Upon this, two tall Chinese in red coats around his big toes, so that the whole pounding the cheeks and lips, often breakseized the prisoner and laid him flat on his weight of his body rested on his bare knees ing the jaws and knocking out the teeth. face on the floor. They pulled down his on the stone. Now an Iron chain with The Canton woman was suspected of smugtrousers. One held him firmly by the ragged links as sharp as though filed was gling opium, but claimed to be innocent. The punishment was given to induce con-

Dr. John R. Hykes, the head of the American Bible society, once saw a feas he ordered a policeman to move a lit- from their sockets, his face twitched and male thief treated to fifty strokes on the ception. A missionary told me how he re mouth with the clapper. He described the punishment to me. He said:

"One policeman held the woman's head

"Did she scream?" I asked.

"Of course she did," replied Dr. Hykes. "Well, after that," Dr. Hykes went on, "we saw a man get 500 blows with the

"'Why not? Why not?" he replied. 'They deserve it! They deserve it.' In a further chat with Dr. Hykes he de-

"I was riding on horseback on the walls They gathered about two wooden cages, each of By Chinese law no criminal can be pun- legs into the stones. He cries and they in- were fastened near the top of the cages, crease the torture by rolling the pole under so that when they attempted to rest their their feet back and forth upon his toes they hung by the neck. The men had His toes have been pulled out so been sentenced to death in the cage for that the shins and the whole front of his robbery and outrage. Pasted on the outfeet are in contact with the stones and the side were placards which warned all permen are grinding them into the granite. sons not to give them food or drink. This "I ask the man's crime. The judge tells was in the middle of July, when the heat claims to be innocent. The judge tells me learned they were dead."

The Growing Bamboo.

he will be tortured until he confesses. He reems to lough at the pain, and he is smok- "The ordinary punishment of the bands of ing a big water pipe and languidly putting is very severe," continued Dr. Hykes, "and his questions as to the case between the when more than 200 blows are given it semetimes results in the victim's being "At last flesh and bleed can stand it no maimed for life. There is considerable longer. The prisoner nods his head in token science in giving the strokes and the poof confession and the officials step off, liceman can make them heavy or light, as They loocen his hands and he drops in a he pleases. In many cases the prisoners heap on the floor. They then smear a bribe the policemen to let them off casy

"Speaking of the bamboo, I have heard Three policemen then dragged him to the the confession. If he should escape he is made the executioner. I have hever sech this punishment and I am told that it is not permitted by the laws of the land. The bamboo grows very fast. It jumps apward several inches in a night and its stalk has a sharp point which will force its way through anything. In the growing barabox nunishment the criminal is fastened to stakes over one of these sprous and the plant grows slowly through him, cousing

"While I was fiving at Kukiang," said Dr. Hykes, "a young man in one of the vilbages near by was buried alive as a pseudoment for nurder. The criminal was noted for his violent temper and general warshlessness. Among his other faults was the lack of filial picty, which is one of the greatest of sins in China. He quarreled with his father and he usually failed to give him a present of a mess of park on the 15th of every month, as is the custom with good soms. One day his father took him to task for this pegicet. The sen became angre and killed his father with "The murder caused great excitement for parricide is here considered the most terrible of crimes. If a man kills a parent not only himself, but all his neighbors and relatives, are punished. The parrielde is tied upon a cross and slowly sticed to death. The officials of the province are degraded and the crime is an injury to the district for years to come. When the abovmurder occurred the leading men of the community bushed it up and asked the family to perform the punishment. There was a meeting of the murderer's clan and the result was a sentence that he be buried alive. His own relatives dug the grave and his mother threw the dirt into the hole upon him and tramped it down with her

Punishments for Parrieldes.

No one but those who have studied the Chinese can realize the horror with which they look upon parricides and matricides. Nothing will excuse the killing of father or mother by the child. In the Pekin Gazette I find numerous instances of lunatics who have killed their parents and been sliced to death. In this slicing not only is the flesh cut away bit by bit, but the victim is, to a large extent, skinned alive One of the first cuts is across the middle of the forehead, after which the executioneer takes the skin and rips it off. Next the cheeks are tern off, then the arms, breasts, thighs and calves, all cut by cut, the skin being torn away until the Accidents are no excuse for such kill killed her. According to the law the old est age at which the punishment of slicing to death can be inflicted is 16. You would think they would have let the boy free. They did not. He was put at once in prison and will be kept there until he reaches 16 when the punishment will be inflicted. He has six years more to wait.

I have never seen a Chinese execution and do not envy any one the sight. The brutality of the executioner is beyond concently saw the heads of five robbers cut off.

"There were two executioners," said he "one an expert, the other an amateur. The sword of the expert went through the human necks as though through cheese. but the amateur bungled his work. The robbers were placed on their knees with their heads outstretched. As the sword cut through the necks the heads fell to the ground, some rolling twenty feet away The blood spurted out in great jets from the bedies, which, strange to say, still remained on their knees.

When all the heads were off I asked if I might not go inside the line and look, The magistrate said, 'Of course; why not?' and I went in. I pointed to one body and

(Continued on Eighth Page)

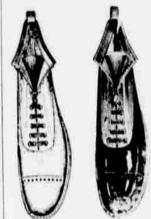

NO Do You Want a Genuine Bargain in a Piano?

We have hundreds of Upright Planes retorned from the by persons moving which most be disposed of at once the by persons moving which most salesfeeting. These resented. LYON & HEALY, 21 Adams St., Chicago. The World's Largest Music House, WINFIELD WOODWARD OF THE FIRM OF J. C. & W. WOODWARD, ARCHI-TECTS, COUNCIL BLUEFS, Ix. WHO IS GIVEN PROMINENCE IN A RECENT STATE HISTORY OF IOWA.

New Style Footwear For

in the celebrated REGENT $3.50 SHOES shoes of the most approved and up-to-date patterns in all leathers, including the new and popular patent vici kid-the shoe for derability, tone and case others ask you $5.00 and $6.00 for their equal our prices $2.50 and $3.50. We guarantee fit and

RECENT SHOE CO.

205 South 15th. OMAHA.

Write for Illustrated tatalogue-tree.

WHEN we deliver an order of printing we render full value for our charges, and also "satisfaction." The "satisfaction" is thrown in, as it were, just to gratify you and retain your patronage. We have only one way of doing business, and that is why every customer gets "satisfaction." # #

A. I. Root, Printer 414-416 South 12th, Omaha

HERTFORD & CO.

TEL. 1461. Cor. 16th and Leavenworth Sts.

FINEST CABINET AND INLAID WOOD WORK

Picture Framing Antique Farniture Re-finished Uphoistering and Mattress Mak-ing.

