NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- The most interesting development in New York on the eve of battle is the indictment found by the local grand jury against Chief of Police William S. Devery on the charge of interfering with the work of State Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh. Chief Devery's bail was fixed and arrangements have been made for hearing the case the day after election. The indictment has attracted a great deal of attention in political circles. The points involved appear to hinge upon the rights of men to swear in their votes when challenged by any of the deputies of the state superintendent of elections. The legal aspects of the case Both sides are unusually watchful and are interesting republicans and democratic leaders for the reason that it has been feared that a clash might occur at the polls tomorrow between the 8,000 policemen and the 800 deputies. At all the political headquarters, at the office of chief of police and at the Democratic club the concensus of opinion seemed to be that the election would prove a quiet one despite the differences of opinion between the chief of police and the state

DENVER, Nov. 5 .- (Special Telegram.) --The chances for an exciting election day emorrow seem very good tonight. Five sundred extra policement have been sworn in by the democratic police board and as many republican deputies by Sheriff Jones. The board of county commissioners today, in defiance of an order of Judge Butler of the district court, revoked the commissions of the deputies and this evening beach warrants were issued for the arrest of the commissioners for contempt. It is said the sheriff will recommission the deputies and it is feared the rival peace officers will clash in some of the downtown dis-······ tricts lomorrow.

United States District Judge Moses Hallett this morning declared that United States Marshal Bulley had so right to SERENADE FOR PRESIDENT swear in extra deputy marshals to su-

When the coroner entered the fail one of the deputies remarked that they were expecting him and had no information to impart concerning the fusion sheriff, who fully expected that his trickery would be headed off. At an early hour this morning the coroner visited the home of Sheriff Power on South Tenth street, but the family refused to answer the doorbell. Lights were burning in the house and there was every evidence that members of the family were coast, in all Rocky mountain states, the at home. Another visit to the jail failed Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota, to bring the hiding sheriff to light. A Icwa, Missouri, Wisconsin, Illinois, In- party of democrats watched every move of the coroner and kept Power informed as to his whereabouts. It was reported that Power attended the Bryan meeting at the pavilion on Capitol avenue, but he weather is certain to be unusually fine, with either was not there or disappeared before clear skies and pleasant temperature. In Mr. Swanson and his assistants succeeded New York the weather is clear, except in locating him.

Why the Order Was Issued.

The restraining order was issued on the relation of Chairman Ostrom of the republican county committee, who set forth in but north winds are now setting in and the his petition the fact that Sheriff Power weather is almost certain to be fair and and others were in a conspiracy to enlist pleasant Tuesday. In New England there a large number of deputies prejudiced in is considerable cloudiness under the in- favor of the fusion candidates for the purpose of coercing and intimidating voters. In the capacity of county commissioner prevail, except that light rains in Maine Mr. Ostrom protested against the county being put to such unnecessary expense, maintaining that it is the duty of the police departments of Omaha and South Omaha to preserve order at the polls. He pointed out to the court that the police HANNA MAKES LAST SPEECH are fully able to preserve peace at the polls and that the appointment of deputies by the sheriff is illegal and only for the purpose of hindering the clerks and interfering with the election.

Indea Baker granted the following re-CHICAGO, Nov. 5.-Senator Marcus A. straining order, the service of which the Hanna, chairman of the republican national tricky sheriff avoided: Upon application of the plaintiff for an injunction, upon his petition duly verified it being necessary that the defendant have committee made his last speech at most committee, thousand railroad bearing and statement of the many bearing and confident of victory tomorow.

Chairman William R. Gourley of the democratic state committee, through Serveits will be sent the specific property of the democratic state committee, through Serveits will be sent the sent bown, and large crowds in statement:

We are not giving out any figures, but I claim Bryan will carry new Jersey by a safe margin.

"I am confident the democrats will carry four of the eight congressional districts."

The Marion county political committees were busy today exposing alleged efforts toward corruption in the election in this granted and an affidity of the democratic committees the made an affidity of the arrest of John Banks, negro, who, according to its work of the proposers of the sent of the proposers of the sent of the proposers of the proposers of the sent of the proposers of the proposers of the present of the proposers of the Power Flees Early. As soon as the republican committee heard that the sheriff was about to swear in his political henchmen for the purpose of furthering their own interests at the expense of the county, action was taken to prevent such corrupt and illegal action Before the sheriff had succeeded in commissioning more than a dezen of his men-rumors of the efforts to interfere with such proceedings came to sheriff, and, profiting by his experience last spring, he disappeared as effectively as if the ground had swallowed him up and kept under cover. Another evidence of disreputable tactics adopted by the fusionists was the arrest of Councilman Harry B. Zimman on a warrant sworn out by Pat Ford, who connected the Third ward councilman with the alleged illegal registration of some Russian Jews. The case was brought in Justice Baldwin's court and Mr. Zimman was immediately released on bond. The councilman's friends resent the attack as an outrage and Mr. Zimman asserts that he does not even know the persons who are said to have registered illegally. Many fusionists in the Third ward are disgusted with the employment of such political methods and have an nounced that they will not stand with a party which stoops to such low practices in the hope of gaining votes.

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 5.—The Galveston Deep Water Commission, which has in hand the preparing of the measures for state and federal government relief in relation to the late hurricane, today passed resolutions taking notice of a possible impression that Governor Sayers had been derellet in culling a special session of the legislature to relieve Galveston. The commission says Gevornor Sayers course has its entire approval, as Gaiveston will require more substantial assistance than can be accomplished by an appropriation from the state treasury. The commission praised the governor and the people of Texas for what they have done.
