

GREAT BOOM IN EXPOSITIONS

Big Shows Planned in Many Places at Home and Abroad.

BUNCH OF EIGHT SCHEDULED IN AMERICA

Numerous Cities Emulating the Example of Chicago and Omaha—Progressive Japan Lining Up with the Procession.

Very few people have any idea of the multitude of expositions, state, national and international, that are scheduled to take place within the next four years.

The features of national and international expositions are well known, but the so-called permanent expositions are a new class that has been increasing in favor of late years.

Many Expositions Planned.

In this country the exposition industry is booming. Besides the coming Pan-American exposition in Buffalo no less than eight important expositions face us.

From June to December during the same year the city of Newark, N. J., proposes to hold a national exposition under the auspices of the Boards of Trade of the principal cities of New Jersey.

St. Louis will be the center in 1903 of a world's fair to celebrate the Louisiana purchase in conjunction with the states of the southwest.

Foreigners in the Fair Business.

Turning to foreign countries, the most important exposition in the foreground is undoubtedly the Glasgow International exposition of 1901.

The industrial exposition of 1901 at Elga, Russia, for the celebration of the 700th anniversary of the city.

These were all young women whose parents are in comfortable circumstances, but they seemed to delight in giving their bearers the impression that they were in imminent danger of going to the almshouse.

Every home should have ready for use a little box of Cascarets Candy Cathartic, as a perfect guardian of the family health.

for the benefit of the ten provinces of Westphalia and Rhineland.

During the same year Japan will have her first international exposition.

The international exposition at Liege, Belgium, will be held under the patronage of the government and the province and city of Liege.

The Scandinavian Exposition at Christiania, Norway, in 1904, will be of interest and value to our growing trade with the Scandinavian peninsula and Denmark.

British Estimate.

As the United States of America now stands indisputably the foremost nation in the world in the principal lines of industry and manufacture, these various expositions are of considerable value to rapidly augmenting foreign trade.

It is not surprising that the United States leads in architecture, with products greater than Russia and England combined.

The importance of the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo, which is to take place next spring, is very plain.

In the history of modern expositions the rule has been demonstrated that the attendance has been drawn from a radius of 500 miles.

The mission of expositions and fairs is now beginning to be appreciated all over the world.

CANDID YOUNG PEOPLE.

Shook Some of Their Acquaintances with Their Lack of Reserve.

"In my day," said an elderly woman to a Baltimore Sun man recently, "while poverty wasn't considered a crime any more than it is now, it was a subject carefully kept in the background."

"If one had to darn her stockings, it was done in the secrecy of her bedroom. If a dress had to be turned or a bonnet retouched these processes were never spoken of outside the family circle.

"Only yesterday I heard a girl say when my granddaughter exclaimed at the beauty of some new furs the latter wore, 'Lor' child, they were given to me. You know very well we couldn't afford to buy sables, pelt as we are.'"

"Another young woman in the group declared, 'Well, I'm going to have a new hat this winter, if I don't get anything else the rest of the year. My old one is positively disgraceful. It's been made over so often.'"

"These were all young women whose parents are in comfortable circumstances, but they seemed to delight in giving their bearers the impression that they were in imminent danger of going to the almshouse.

"If I didn't own my talking such a pet of mine I'd keep you in violets this winter," one lord of creation remarked to a young woman he had recently met.

"Give me the days again when the condition of one's purse wasn't a private property and when there was more reserve in speaking about private affairs.

One of his wise remarks was "Of making many books there is no end." He had never seen the making of a great dictionary.

Standard Dictionary

an army of the brainiest and smartest men of the world was employed and a million dollars spent.

The Standard Dictionary is Offered for Only $7.00

There are so many points of superiority in The Standard Dictionary, aside from its marvelously low price, that one can scarcely enumerate them.

THE STANDARD DICTIONARY

has a great many attractive features. It is not feasible to enumerate all at this time.

The matter of spelling is also difficult to adjust. In the Standard that has been settled conservatively, yet accurately.

The quotations are gems, illustrating to a nicety the use of the words.

The illustrations are numerous, in fact it is a work that will be attractive to children on this account and consequently all the more valuable as an educator.

No home library where there are school children should be without the Standard Dictionary.

College men generally agree that the excellence of the work.

Here are some expressions concerning the work by college professors:

Prof. R. A. Todd, Columbia: "I am exceedingly pleased with its fulness, condensation, accuracy and completeness.

President Bashford of Ohio Wesleyan: "After a comparison of many words I am quite convinced that the Standard surpasses the Century Dictionary in careful and accurate definition of words and in its illustrations, as well as the number of words defined."

Prof. Duffield of Princeton: "It will be conspicuous among the enduring monuments of intellectual life at the close of the 19th century."
