

SHINES IN NEW GLORY

Lord Rosebery is More Than Ever the Hero of Great Britain.

MILLIONS HANG ON WORDS OF LEADER

Increased Frequency of Public Utterance Fails to Dull Edge of Admiration.

WARNING NOTE TO ENGLAND ON EVERY LIP

Fear of Increasing Power of United States and Germany Pervades Whole Empire.

EARLY SESSION OF PARLIAMENT CALLED

Lord Salisbury in Order Not to Establish a Bad Precedent Decides to Accept a Salary for Duties as Premier.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The increasing frequency of Lord Rosebery's public utterances in no way decreases the thrill of admiration and fascination which follows on each occasion. The strange mingling of common sense, sentiment, surpassing rhetoric and homely phrases puzzles the people of Great Britain so much that they have never before had so much to say to them as they have had since he has been out of office. His speech at Glasgow yesterday on the occasion of his installation as lord rector of Glasgow university causes the most interesting of the week to sink into insignificance. Yet the underlying note of that wonderful monograph of the British empire was one of warning, as the Daily Telegraph appropriately describes it, as follows: "Now that two nations are so close to our back that their shadows fall in front of us, and that they are in a more athletic condition than ourselves, we have no doubt England has a reserve pace which our competitors scarcely suspect. But we must put forth the time when we will be able to stretch every fiber."

It is Lord Rosebery's constant reiteration of those features which makes his words so deeply weighed by politicians and statesmen in Great Britain. It is the weakness of the strength of imperialism. A correspondent describing Lord Rosebery's appearance at Glasgow, says: "His aloofness from the crowd and unfathomable mystery were striking contrast to that passionate interest in the public business of the nation." Yet, with all this, the nation's confidence in him is unshaken. He is the great antagonist, the philosophical statesman, has decided to accept a salary of £2,000 for fulfilling his duties as premier, though, nominally, he receives a recompense for so doing. He has decided to accept a salary of £2,000 for fulfilling his duties as premier, though, nominally, he receives a recompense for so doing. He has decided to accept a salary of £2,000 for fulfilling his duties as premier, though, nominally, he receives a recompense for so doing.

ROSEBERY MAY COME BACK

Liberals Hope to See Their Old Chief in Political Harness Again.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Humphrey Ward, who has been invited to return to politics is variously interpreted. Bannerman appears to have carefully refrained from proposing to him to take the leadership of the opposition and merely said his lordship would be well come among his old comrades to take a share in the battle for liberalism. Lord Rosebery's acceptance by the united party is only possible because liberal imperialism, having failed of its intended electioneering effect of being quietly dropped, experienced politicians foreseeing before the South African embargo was done with that imperialism in an aggressive sense would be very much at a discount. Lord Rosebery maintains a sphinx-like silence, but his friends admit that if he calls any longer his political career will be at an end. The duration of the first session of the new Parliament depends mainly upon the action of the Irish party. A further split seems already threatened. Timothy Harrington, who brought about the recent reunion of the Parrellites and anti-Parrellites, now unaccountably appears as the champion of Healy factionalism, denying the right of the party to exclude Healy, but the universal feeling of the country, as expressed through the triumph of the United Irish league, is that if Healy is admitted to the party no money will be forthcoming for its support. Owing to the unexpected summoning of Parliament for November 17, the national convention of the United Irish league for December 4 has been upset and it is expected now that it will assemble one week before Parliament opens to formulate an active policy for the party from the outset and give the mandate for the expulsion of Healy, who probably will carry four men with him.

SHE WILL LECTURE TO WOMEN

Mme. Severine of Paris is Coming to the United States with a Mission.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Mme. Severine, the journalistic defender of the humbler classes, has accepted an invitation from a number of American women's associations to lecture in the larger cities of the United States. She will start on her tour from New York the latter part of January. Her principal subjects will be: "The Unused Power of Women for Clean Politics," "Why Women Should Embrace Socialism," "Our Duties to the Married Mother," "Daily Crimes of the Courts of Justice" and "How Women Could Abolish War."

DOMESTIC TRAGEDY IN PARIS

Count de Cornet Kills His Wife for Visiting the Apartments of a Gentleman Friend.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—Count de Cornet this afternoon surprised his wife, the Countess de Cornet, visiting the apartments of a gentleman on the Rue de Provence. The count met her on the stairway and fired three shots at her. She died on her way to a hospital. The count was arrested. The family is a prominent one. The countess' brother is an army colonel and the count is well known in the highest Parisian society. He is 42 years old. His wife was 31 years old. She was formerly Mlle. Genevieve Bineau de Viennay. A suit for separation was pending between the count and the countess.

BOER BUSHWHACKING BECOMES GENERAL

Disturbances Extend Over Nearly Entire Area Reported Conquered.

EXPLANATION OF LORD ROBERTS' ORDER

Reasons for Keeping Troops Now Arms Made Apparent.

ROSSLYN'S APOLOGY SETTLES

People Still Talk About Loss of the Guns at Koonerspruit and the Conduct of the Troops There.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—A map showing the present area of disturbance in the Transvaal and Orange Free State, published in the Westminster Gazette, is causing a painful disillusionment respecting the effectiveness of the conquest claimed for Lord Roberts with his 200,000 men. The map shows that since October 1 the British forces have been attacked, through more or less serious loss, in every district throughout both the states, in addition to several places in the old British colonies. As illustrating the extent of the Boer resources as well as the universality of the Boer resistance, the map shows that the Boer forces are now in a position to attack the British forces at any point. The map also shows that the Boer forces are now in a position to attack the British forces at any point. The map also shows that the Boer forces are now in a position to attack the British forces at any point.

COBLENTZ RESENTS INSULT

Treatment of Jewish Officer by Turfman Lebaduy Terminates in Duel.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—The Coblentz affair is becoming an issue likely to lead to further anti-semitic feeling in the army circles. A few days ago M. G. Lebaduy, the well known turfman, issued the usual annual invitation to the officials of the military school at Fontainebleau to take part in a hunt. Captain Coblentz, among other officers, accepted the invitation, but when he appeared the Lebaduys abandoned the hunt on account of the incident at the Autel races November 4 and its outcome. As a result of this treatment on the day of the Lebaduy hunt, Captain Coblentz sent several to M. Roger Luszarhe and a duel with swords was fought this afternoon. In the second assault Captain Coblentz received a slight laceration of the forehead and in the fourth assault he was twice wounded in the same arm, one of the sword thrusts penetrating the cubital nerve, after which the witnesses ended the contest. The commanding officer of the Fontainebleau school has forbidden the officers at that institution to hunt with Coblentz, anticipating hereafter in the Lebaduy hunt.

THOMAS ARNOLD IS NOW DEAD

Man of Wide Culture and Gentle Nature, Famed in English Educational Circles.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Humphrey Ward's father, Thomas Arnold, a professor at the Royal university, Ireland, has just died, aged 77 years. He was the second son of the famous head master of Rugby, and a younger brother of Matthew Arnold. He became a Catholic with Cardinal Newman, who appointed him professor at the Dublin Catholic university, but subsequently he returned to the Protestant faith and held an Oxford professorship for twenty years. In 1877 he again became a Catholic, in which faith he died. He was universally beloved for his gentle nature and wide culture. Mrs. Humphrey Ward was his eldest child.

QUEEN HERSELF IS WATCHING

Wilhelmina of Holland Gives Personal Attention to Details of Her Troopsmen.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, Wednesday and part of Thursday in Paris, showing cognito. She stopped in the Avenue Niel in a handsome apartment. The fact that she has retained it for three months indicates that she contemplates further personal supervision of the military details of the troops. President Loubet sent white flowers to her daily during her visit, but no calls were exchanged.

GONNE'S MESSAGE TO KRUGER

Gentle Maude Will Welcome Oom Paul with Pledge of Mutual Reconciliation.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Maude Gonne brags a delegation of Irish girls who are going to Marcellis to pay tribute to Paul Kruger. Asked whether she would deliver an address, Miss Gonne said: "I shall simply say that the Britisher's crime against the Boer race is the same he has committed against the Boer race. When the hour for rebellion comes our nations will rise together."

BONI STOOPED JUST IN TIME

George Gould's Guardianship of His Brother-in-Law Almost Terminated by Accident.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Count Boni de Castellane, while hunting with a party of guests on his chateau du Marais pres Paris, was nearly killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of a woman who had stumbled. Boni, who was walking a few paces ahead, chanced to stoop, his head would have been shot off.

NOT SO NICE TO TAKE

British Public Dismayed by Situation in South Africa.

BOER BUSHWHACKING BECOMES GENERAL

Disturbances Extend Over Nearly Entire Area Reported Conquered.

EXPLANATION OF LORD ROBERTS' ORDER

Reasons for Keeping Troops Now Arms Made Apparent.

ROSSLYN'S APOLOGY SETTLES

People Still Talk About Loss of the Guns at Koonerspruit and the Conduct of the Troops There.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—A map showing the present area of disturbance in the Transvaal and Orange Free State, published in the Westminster Gazette, is causing a painful disillusionment respecting the effectiveness of the conquest claimed for Lord Roberts with his 200,000 men. The map shows that since October 1 the British forces have been attacked, through more or less serious loss, in every district throughout both the states, in addition to several places in the old British colonies. As illustrating the extent of the Boer resources as well as the universality of the Boer resistance, the map shows that the Boer forces are now in a position to attack the British forces at any point. The map also shows that the Boer forces are now in a position to attack the British forces at any point.

WAIT FOR WAR BORROWING

Exigencies of Government Finance Demand Dominant Feature in London Money Market.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—There is a general feeling in the money market that the government will have to resort to borrowing to meet the needs of the war. The discount rates have hardened to 4 per cent for the best three months' paper for some time past. The operation will take place when the market is usually quiet. The government will have to resort to borrowing to meet the needs of the war. The discount rates have hardened to 4 per cent for the best three months' paper for some time past. The operation will take place when the market is usually quiet.

NEW ROYAL YACHT A FAILURE

Blunders Render the Costly Victoria Albert Useless for Sea-going Purposes.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Queen Victoria has caused it to be known that she will never use the new royal yacht, the Victoria Albert, built at a cost of more than $2,000,000. The yacht turned turtle when first floated, but its designer, Sir William White, chief constructor of the navy, now claims that it is quite seaworthy, though owing to its engine defects it consumes three times the amount of coal intended, rendering it impossible to undertake a lengthy voyage. Owing to the system prevailing in the British admiralty, which makes it impossible to fix the responsibility on any individual official, no one apparently has been reprimanded for this costly failure. It was proposed that the duke and duchess of York go to Australia in March in the Victoria Albert, but owing to the yacht's enormous coal burning capacity the trip was impossible, and an Orient liner has been specially chartered for the royal voyage.

EIGHT MONTHS IN A TRANCE

Englishman at a Hospital in Passing London Doctors by His Long Sleep.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—James Thompson, aged 34 years, has been in a trance for eight months at the Royal Infirmary, Newcastle. He merely took to bed, refused nourishment and was admitted to the infirmary apparently paralyzed. Since then he has been kept alive by liquid nourishment, artificially administered. He never moves and has never displayed the slightest sign of life except on two occasions when his eyes, which are open with a perfectly sane expression, betrayed a faint transient sign of mental consciousness. The case is without precedent in English medical science. The hypothesis of shamming has been disposed of by prolonged tests of every conceivable kind.

OXONIANS VOTE DOWN MARIE

Decide that the Corelli's Popularity is a Sign of Literary Decadence.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Marie Corelli's latest vendetta is against the Oxford Union Debating society the motion was: "The popularity enjoyed by such writers as Marie Corelli is a sign of literary decadence." One speaker produced a telegram from Marie making an impassioned appeal in her own defense and concluding by asking Oxford to be true to itself. The condemnatory motion was carried by a plurality of 58.

PUT EXTRA TAX ON BACHELOR

French Parliament Proposes to Encourage Marriage by a Vigorous Means.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The efforts to find a remedy for the falling birth rate in France continue and especially among the legislators. A bill will be introduced in the Chamber of Deputies soon to tax bachelors from 50 francs ($10) to 500 francs ($100) a year, according to age. It will pass both houses with a large majority.

DURHAM IS IN A TIGHT PLACE

Failure of His Lordship to Prove His Charges May Run Him Deeply in the End.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—From the latest information obtainable in the Jockey club stewards' investigation of Lord Durham's charges against Jockey Reiff and Trainer Wishard, it looks as if there are stormy times coming for his lordship. It has just transpired that during the investigation the stewards' report was that Reiff and Croker's representative for Mr. Croker's betting books. This is an action that is very humiliating to an Englishman. It is a step so grave that the stewards rarely resort to it. It is a stigma upon his good name and implies that several of his best men whose betting books have been called for, no matter what the action of the stewards is afterward, is for a long time a suspected person. Only time can eradicate these feelings. It is painful to an Englishman to get into a jockey's hands for an American, and the friends of Mr. Croker, who know his fighting proclivities, say that Lord Durham will have cause to regret his action. One of the friends of the New York Jockey said to night that Mr. Croker's action was a mistake. It was due to the demands for his betting books. The action of the stewards was called to him. These books did more than anything else to prove to the stewards that the two races between Richard Croker's Scotchman and Lord Durham's Scotchman were truly and honestly run. They showed that Mr. Croker lost heavily at Doncaster when the Scotchman lost, and that he had so little faith in the horse that he did not bet him at all when he won at Liverpool.

TO GREET OOM PAUL

Great Crowds Gather at Marcellis to Meet President Kruger.

PARIS IS SENDING DOWN TRAINLOADS

Official Party Reinforced by Thousands Who Are Merely Curious.

SHIP IS COMING WITH ALL POSSIBLE SPEED

Hour of Arrival is Uncertain Owing to Change in Orders.

MAKING A GREAT SHOW OF THE OLD MAN

Thrifty Citizens Are Hastily Reaping the Harvest Brought by the Visitors and the Committees Are Wrangling for Precedence.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) MARSEILLES, France, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Every train from Paris brings prominent people, either delegated or coming on their own initiative, to witness President Kruger's arrival. Seven American newspapers, New York and Chicago dailies, and every important paper of London, Berlin, Amsterdam and Paris have correspondents here. Hotel prices are going up to the height reported at Rennes during the Dreyfus trial. Early this morning a telegram was received by Kruger, Kruger's granddaughter, stating that the Dutch cruiser Geiderland, which is bringing the Transvaal president, received orders at Port Said to steam faster and to reach France with all possible speed. As the ship can make twenty knots, unless it is damaged, it may arrive much earlier than expected. Sad wrangles are taking place between the committees in charge of the festivities, each wanting precedence. Postal cards with pictures of Kruger, of scenes in the Boer war, of the Geiderland and of the flags of South African republics are being peddled by an array of vendors dressed like Boer warriors. A song specially written for the occasion is being bawled at all hours by bands of Boer sympathizers parading the streets. Photographs of Kruger and the caricature of Chamberlain, Queen Victoria and Lord Roberts are in every shop. A great number of flags decorate windows and the whole city is wrapped in expectation. A suite of twenty-four rooms, which has been reserved for Kruger, on the second floor of the Hotel Noailles, was visited yesterday by more than 1,200 persons, who did much damage to the carpets, whittled the expensive furniture and cut pieces from the curtains for souvenirs. Today the hotel management is charging an admission fee of 5 francs ($1) to make up for the damage.

KRUGER DUE IN FRANCE TODAY

Former President of the Boer Republic is Expected at Marcellis.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—Dr. Leyds and Delegates Wolmarans, Fischer and Wesale reached Paris today. This evening they held a conference at the Hotel Scribe, where ex-President Kruger will stop. They leave in the morning for Marcellis. Mr. Leyds, they say, will land at 10 o'clock in the morning and will arrive in Paris next Friday.

DONATO DIES IN AN ASYLUM

Notorious Hypnotist Ends His Variegated Career in a Lunatic Asylum Near Paris.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Nov. 17.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The death of Donato in a lunatic asylum near Paris recalls the extraordinary career of the greatest of European hypnotists. At one time he was a favorite in every court. He made experiments upon Bismarck, the prince of Wales, the king of Greece, and the Kaiser Wilhelm. He had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol. The husband traced them and brought his young wife to a whereupon a profound sensation was caused by her declaration that she had been hypnotically controlled. Donato having taken advantage of his power to entice her away, Lucille afterward ran away to rejoin Donato in London. He subsequently tried to stab his wife through jealousy. Ever after that time the American woman was Donato's management, she had been married only one month, went mad and the dark handsome Donato eloped with her to a secluded spot in the Tyrol