LINCOLN, Nov. 26.-(Special.)-Chairman genuine. J. H. Edmisten of the populist state central committee is vigorously agitating a proposition to begin contest proceedings against Governor Dietrich on the ground that he is disqualified from holding office because of alleged violation of the election law. Edmisten is desperately anxious to prevent the inauguration of Mr. Dietrich and it is said in fusion circles that if he can procure the backing and co-operation of his party he will undertake such a prosecution in his own name. Governor Poynter has not conferred with his constituents relative to the proposed proceedings, but it is asserted by reliable authority that he is willing to follow the orders of the popu ist committee if there appears to be any sibility of keeping himself in office and the recently elected governor out. The more conservative element of the fusion party be lieves that there is no reasonable foundstion for contest proceedings. In the governor's office the scheme proposed by E4misten is discountenanced in unmeasured terms. Governor Poynter declines speak of the matter, but the office attaches srowing of the vegetable. unite in asserting that if Edmisien begins the contest he will do so entirely on his own responsibility.

Edmisten was at the state house today conferring with various state officials, but of a watch and $15 in cash in the vicinity he studiously avoided a conference with of the Francis street depot at St. Joseph, Governor Poynter. Senator-elect Frank M. Currie of Custer county, known as the "cowboy senator," was in Lincoln for a few hours this afternoon. He was enroute to South Omaha with several carloads of cattle from his ranch near Broken Bow. While in the city he called at the state house and had his desk reserved in a prominent position in the senate chamber. Senator Currie is one of the best known cattlemen of the western countles. He is a young man, educated in an Indiana university, but thoroughly west-

While here he attorney general asserted that he would probably ask the court for a rehearing in the Board of Transportation and Irriration cases and also the case of the state gainst the bondsmen of ex-Treasurer Bartley.

"I have not fully determined what course I shall pursue concerning those cases, but I think I shall ask for a rehearing of all of them," said Mr. Smyth. If I ask for a rehearing of the case involving the transportation law it will not be for any effect a rehearing might have on that particular case, but simply to decide and determine a legal question.

Populist Campaign Expenses.

As treasurer be received $5,752.02 and expended $5,708.17, leaving a balance on hand of $43.85. Chairman Edmisten maintained a separate ac count and his statement of receipts and expenditures is attached to the treasurer's report. Edmisten accounted for receiving $1,589.40 and expending $1,588.71. Of this amount W. B. Price got approximately $200, Rev. T. W. Cheesman, for patriotic services, $10, and John O. District Challenges Fusionist's Election.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Nov. 26 .- (Special Telegram)-Joseph Pigman, the republican candidate for the legislature in the Fifty-sixth representative district, today filed contest proceedings against James D. Ream, the fusion candidate. The vote cast at the last election of the office of representative was not the full vote of the district. McKinley and Bryan received in Custer and Logan counties 5,100 votes, while Pigman and Ream's vote only amounted to 4,395. The closeness of the vote s the cause of the contest, Ream's maority being but nineteen according to the official canvass. The grounds of the contest is errors and mistakes made by the judges and clerks of election. A count of he vote is asked for. It is alleged that the mistakes made are sufficient to change the result of the election. The contest is set for December 8 at the court house in Broken Bow and the testimony will aken before Emil G. If you have any of the fo lowing symptoms, take warning at once: Is your appetite poor or changeable, digestion poor, fullness in stomach, belching of gas, vomiting sour liquid and partly digested food, pain and soreness at pit of stomach, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness and headache, absence of mental vigor, defective memory, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh, nervousness, cold feet and hands, bad breath, white and brown coating on the tongue, night sweats, remember nature is trying to warn you of the approach of dyspepsia. If allowed to become chronic, dyspepsia is one of the most distressing disdiseases to which mankind is heir. Dr. Kay's Renovator acts directly upon the mucous membrane. Patching up with pepsin and other drugs for temporary relief is only opening the way for a general break down.

goes to the foundation. It brings the digestive organs to a natural state, when they can act as the creator intended them to act. It renovates the whole system. It purifies and enriches the blood.

Read what W. R. Roberts, for years cashier of the Citizen's Bank of Omaha, says: "I slept poorly and was in a terrible condition. I took Dr. Kay's Renovator and found it to be the best remedy I ever used. I took no other medicine and in a short time gained forty pounds. I am now in excellent health. I found this medicine most pleasant; no griping, no sickness at the stomach, but a complete renovator. I voluntarily recommend it to anyone who has indigestion. I now sleep well, eat well and am free from cold hands and feet. In my family I rely on Dr. Kay's Renovator for biliousness, constipation, indigestion or any disturbance of the digestive organs. It renovates and regulates the system and never leaves any evil effects. I seldom need to take the Renovator now, but I think a few doses taken occasionally when I feel the slightest signs of any disturbance have been of great value to me in keeping me in the best of health. One 25c box will convince anyone that it surpasses the whole train of pills and cathartics usually taken."

Don't take any substitute that anybody tells you is just as good, for it positively has no equal. If you can't get it at druggists, send the price direct to Dr. B. J.
