

HAS BUT ONE THOUGHT

Germany Anxious for Concord of Powers in Dealing with China.

EXPECTS TO MAKE SOME CONCESSIONS

Chinese Ambassador Claims That Court Cannot Be Starved Out.

NEGOTIATIONS MAY LAG ON TILL SPRING

Kaiser Firmly Advised to Read the Leading Papers of His Kingdom.

SOCIALISTS ACTIVE IN THE REICHSTAG

Trade in American Meats is Growing Here Restricted Owing to the Unfair Tactics of Officials Clothed with Authority.

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—A representative of the foreign office here informed the correspondent of the Associated Press that Germany has no objection to a disposition to take what form the final agreement will take.

The correspondent of the Associated Press today interviewed the Chinese minister here, who said:

"There cannot be question of the execution of Prince Tuan or General Tung Fuh Siang, who are still, de facto, in control of the court. They both keep the emperor and empress virtually prisoners.

The court is unable to go to Peking even if inclined to do so. Besides, the long journey from Peking to Peking, now that the snow is on the ground, is almost impossible with the vehicles in use in these primitive districts. Starving out the court is not feasible. The allies will be unable to carry out such a measure.

Even if it were possible, the provinces would rise in a body for the court's defense.

"The worst feature is that the court has lost confidence in Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching, who have demonstrated their impotence to deal properly with the leading powers. Under these circumstances it is certain the Chinese troubles cannot be adjusted before spring or summer."

Kaiser Advised to Read Papers.

Baron von Wagnell's assertion in the Reichstag that Emperor William is systematically misinformed is still discussed by the press. The Cologne Volks Zeitung says editorially that it is notorious that his majesty does not read the papers representing the various parties, but only daily extracts made by personal employes.

"Tsun," the paper adds, "depending entirely upon the personal prejudices of his entourage, he sees only such clippings as his entourage wants and is necessarily getting wrong impressions."

The Volks Zeitung strongly admonishes the emperor hereafter to devote half an hour daily to the perusal of the Reichstag records, and to read the leading organs of each party, saying that then he must really "feel the pulse of the nation."

The disproportionately large share which the socialist members of the Reichstag have lately been receiving in the Reichstag renewed arouses much press comment.

The Deutsche Tages Zeitung says: "It sounds strange, but it cannot be denied, that the socialists already dominate the parliamentary proceedings."

During the past week several centrist bills will come up. Among them Monday will be a bill demanding that the government take steps to provide against a coal famine and prepare measures restricting trusts and syndicates. Wednesday Herr Lieber's so-called "postulate" bill, which gives Catholics and other religious minorities wider liberty of worship, will be introduced in the Reichstag and the government will introduce the invalid pensioners bill, which increases the pensions of men from 70 per cent of the year's army officers to an even 100 marks a month.

American Meats Treated Unfairly.

The trade in American meats is more and more restricted throughout Germany. A striking case has developed at Gera, where a large business firm, that of Bayer, has been ruined by the arbitrary and capricious policy of the officials of the city of Gera in prohibiting the importation of American meats. Yet Bayer was unable to sell them without a certificate of inspection.

A questionnaire of the age, sex, bearing, description, dwelling, civil status, religion, mother tongue, birthplace and deformities.

Special United States Treasury Agent Partello has investigated several cases of undervaluation at Cologne this week. Herr Otto Roedel, the manufacturer of hosiery cloth in the world, who exported 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 marks worth of his goods to the United States, but who was charged with systematically undervaluing, upon which his American exports greatly declined, has submitted to Baron von Richthofen, the secretary for foreign affairs, a strong protest on the subject and is also agitating in the Reichstag for a retaliatory tariff against the Associated Press.

Herr von Holleben, the German ambassador to the United States, will be instructed to present protests in connection with the Boenck case.

An American electrical engineer named Murray, who was present at the "cents' club" trial as a victim, is the husband of the American prima donna, Nikita Murray. Both Murray and his wife have disappeared. It is supposed they are in the south of France, where Murray is suffering from quick consumption. Mrs. Murray has not yet recovered her voice, which she lost consequent upon being run over in Paris.

Mrs. White, wife of the United States ambassador, secured this afternoon at the American Woman's club upon the island of Poer, where she spent the summer, and upon Prinsla costumes and antiquities there.

Lord Roberts at Heidelberg.

HEIDELBERG, Thursday, Nov. 23.—Lord Roberts, journeying toward Durban, stopped here today. He made a speech to the volunteers in the course of which he said he trusted the guerrilla warfare would not long continue.

HE MARRIED A PLACE TO EAT

Impenetrable Dakota Post in Paris Takes a Novel Method of Settling for Board.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 1.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The American contingent in the Latin quarter was recently invited to the wedding ceremonies, including heavy repast, which marked the union of Julian Carter, a famous post-halling from North Dakota, with "Mother" Paravard, his landlady, also a well known character among the Bohemians.

Carter has been here fifteen years and is now 25 years old. He is gaunt, shabby and his hair is as bald as a billiard ball. He is celebrated for his never flagging appetite. He styles himself the "American Verriane," and boasts there is no magazine or newspaper published in English anywhere in the world which has not rejected his manuscript.

Years ago he was mistakenly imprisoned here on suspicion of being an anarchist. He played Nero in Kiralfy's spectacular expedition show, but the staidest job he has ever had was promoting J. McNeill's "The Great White North" exhibition, which he had to do during three weeks.

Carter has been stopping for eleven years at Mme. Paravard's cheap hotel, without paying one sou for board or lodging. Finally the long threatened eviction seemed likely to take place when the artistic colony harbored Carter into marrying his landlady. The prosperous little hotel was sold immediately and the couple left today for Venice. Mme. Paravard is 45 years old and owns much property.

GHASTLY STORY OF A SURGEON

Kills His Friend by Accident During the Progress of a Delicate Operation.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 1.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The death of Ollier, one of France's most brilliant surgeons, resulting from a ghastly accident, which happened to him a few months ago. The strange discovery had just been made that an injection of cocaine into the lowest vertebra of the spine renders the body absolutely impervious to pain from the waist down, while the upper part is unaffected. Dr. Hebrard, another great physician, was compelled to submit to a dangerous operation for cancer in the intestines. He requested his friend, Ollier, to perform the operation, applying the new method to the patient.

Hebrard wanted to remain alive to follow the interesting operation upon himself.

Ollier made a false cut. Immediately there was a great flurry about the operating table in an attempt to save the illustrious patient, who was perfectly conscious and unaffected by the cocaine.

Dr. Hebrard and his assistants thus: "Don't get rattled. Keep your nerve or you'll let me slip."

Despite every endeavor Hebrard died. He remained perfectly conscious to the last and fully conversant with what was occurring. Hebrard said to him: "Never mind, old man, you are not to blame. In our business accidents are bound to happen sometimes. Goodbye. I am glad I wasn't chloroformed. I would have suffered without knowing it."

PARIS AMAZON ESCAPES LAW

Antoinette Grets the Acquittal of the Female Head of a Band of Dangerous Thieves.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 1.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Profound astonishment greeted the acquittal of Mme. Marie Perle, the handsome young Christiane of Paris, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

The acquittal of Marie Perle, the most dangerous of crooks that ever terrorized the Paris suburbs. All the young men afflicted with her were sentenced to several years imprisonment, the two guilty of murder to a life term in the penitentiary, while Marie herself secured the acquittal.

GLAD TO SEE KRUGER

People of the Prussian City of Cologne Crowd to See Oom Paul.

NO OFFICIAL RECEPTION IS TENDERED

Failure to Reach Understanding with Court May Complicate Matters.

VISIT TO BERLIN HAS TO BE POSTPONED

Count Von Buelow Merely to Exchange Formal Visits with Boer President.

GERMANY SYMPATHETIC BUT POLITIC

No Public Demonstrations Such as Characterized the Stays at Marseilles and Paris Will Be Permitted.

COLOGNE, Dec. 1.—Mr. Kruger arrived here at 11:30 o'clock. A great crowd had assembled and caused a dangerous crush. No official reception had been arranged and Mr. Kruger drove to the cathedral hotel, the crowd cheering as he left the station and as he drove along the route. The absence of an official welcome is said to have been due to neglect to secure an understanding with the imperial court, which is necessary in the case of visits of the heads of states. Hence it is reported that Mr. Kruger will probably not go to Berlin at present.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—A special dispatch from Berlin says Mr. Kruger has been advised that Count von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, will only exchange formal visits with him, that public demonstrations will be suppressed and that the proposed municipal banquets will be abandoned.

While there is much sympathy and curiosity to see Mr. Kruger, there is no chance of such a furor as occurred at Marseilles and Paris.

KRUGER OFF FOR GERMANY

Crowd at the Station Small Compared with Those of Previous Appearances.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Mr. Kruger left the Hotel de Ville at 1:10 p. m. today in a closed carriage, surrounded by a squadron of mounted police. The carriage was escorted by a small number of men, which gathered about the hotel was decidedly small compared with the size of those which greeted Mr. Kruger a week ago. The Boer leader was cheered as he drove away, waving his hat from the open window.

The Boer committee, which accompanied Mr. Kruger to the station will go as far as the French border.

The special train with Mr. Kruger on board started for Cologne at 1:40 p. m. Mr. Kruger spent the morning in the company with members of his party, only receiving three or four persons outside his followers. Just before leaving his apartments he walked out upon the balcony. His appearance was the signal for warm cheering and the shouting of "Vive Kruger," which he greeted him wherever he has gone this week.

Disappoints the Crowd.

In the courtyard of the hotel were two covered landaus. There Mr. Kruger entered the carriage which took him to the station. The crowd outside had hoped to secure a final view of Mr. Kruger, but they were disappointed. The first intimation that he was about to leave was the sight of the carriage driving out of the hotel at a quick trot. The landau was driven into an open parallelism of mounted guards. When the carriage containing Mr. Kruger arrived a troop of mounted guards wheeled into the open side and, at a quick pace, Mr. Kruger and his accompanying friends, who occupied several carriages, surrounded by guards, started for the Northern railroad station, the same station where Mr. Kruger arrived a week ago at almost the same hour. The crowds along the street and the people who filled the windows cheered warmly as the carriage passed, many women throwing flowers toward Mr. Kruger's carriage, while the men cheered and waved their hats.

At the railroad station there were a few hurried farewells and 1:40 p. m. Mr. Kruger departed for Cologne.

Mr. Kruger's journey this afternoon through northern France was attended by scenes similar to those which characterized his visits to Marseilles and Paris. At nearly every station crowds cheered the train as it whirled along.

The first stop was at St. Quentin at 3:40 p. m. The municipal authorities, many spectators and members of the chamber of Deputies and various delegations awaited the arrival of the train, which was greeted with cries for Mr. Kruger and the Boers.

Mr. Kruger and Dr. Leyds appeared at the door of the carriage and saluted and received the shouts of the crowd. An enormous assemblage filled the station and greeted the traveler with enthusiastic acclamation. The president of the local Boer committee read a long address, expressing sympathy with the Boers and hoped that the war had been conducted through arbitration by the signers of the Hague convention.

Farewell to the Committee.

At Jemout the Paris Boer committee bade farewell to Mr. Kruger, who replied at some length, referring to the warmth of the welcome he had received and the strength of feeling exhibited in favor of the cause he was urging. He said he hoped the new cry which he heard as he was departing from Paris—that of "Vive Arbitration!"—would become the cry of Europe. He declared he would not stop his work until the South African republics had regained their independence.

It was a cruel war, he said, which, in the interests of humanity, should be ended. The hearty cheers of France's greeting, Mr. Kruger said, was forever engraved upon his heart and he thanked Paris and France for the manner in which they had received him.

At Charleroi, the first stop on Belgian territory, rigorous police measures had been taken to prevent the invasion of the station, but the people were stronger than the police and rushed on the platform and gave vent to their feelings in cries favorable to the Boers. The train stopped for five minutes and Mr. Kruger greeted the mass from the open door of the train.

At Namur a similar scene was enacted. The train was then forty-five minutes late. At Jemout Mr. Kruger said that when he landed in France he spoke of the uncertainty which the war had been conducted adding that before he left France he wished to say that he had made Lord Roberts acquainted with these wrongs and that the British commander had promised change hands.

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

CZAR LIVES ON BEEF AND MILK

Physicians Satisfied with the Emperor's Progress on the Road to Recovery.

LIVADIA, European Russia, Dec. 1.—The following bulletin was issued today: "The emperor passed a very good day yesterday and slept very well last night. His majesty's condition is very satisfactory. At 9 o'clock yesterday evening his temperature was 97, pulse 60. This morning his temperature was 97, pulse 60."

The czar's condition is satisfactory. The decline in his temperature since Sunday is explained as being the result of diet of extract of beef and milk. His physicians are satisfied with the progress he has made and if no complications set in the daily bulletin of his condition will be dispensed with shortly. His majesty is entering the period of convalescence. A nurse and his body are in constant attendance, but the emperor has not ceased his study of the papers, reading personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

The czarina submitted to her all the papers of the emperor, and she personally to the effect of her husband in signs of fatigue, enjoys good health. She looks remarkably well.

FROM BEER TO BOER

Gamut of Current English Gossip Strikes All the Notes.

DEWET'S VICTORY ADDS TO BLACK SHADOW

Redeeming Feature of the Week is Return of Royal Canadian Regiment.

QUEEN GIVES WAY TO TEARS AT RECEPTION

Soldiers Refuse to Abide by the Promises Made by Their Officers.

LORD ROBERTS APPEALS TO DEAF EARS

London Officials Now Working to Protect Citizens of Great Metropolis from Danger of Inhibiting Poison with Their Beer.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—A curious medley of topics has been engaging the attention of Great Britain this week, the news kaleidoscope opening upon Mr. Kruger's doings and sayings. These are still retailed fully and seem to hold the audience. By a strong rival cropped up when the public learned that the so-called backbone of Great Britain, namely, beer, was permeated with arsenic. The poisoning epidemic at Manchester which has resulted therefrom sent a shock through the nation. Without allowing time for any recovery from this blow, General Dewet came out of a period of seclusion and scored a victory at Dewet-dorp that has set the people wondering whether the British army is of any good at all. The only redeeming feature of the week, from the British point of view, is the return of the Royal Canadian regiment from South Africa, which affords the editorial writers a glorious opportunity for dilating on the solidity and splendor of the British empire. As the Canadians remain here, Mr. Kruger, General Dewet, the evil effects of beer and other adverse features are likely to be quickly forgotten, so accustomed has Great Britain grown to recover.

How truly pathetic was the meeting of the queen and her Canadian soldiers seems to have escaped the English papers. Sitting in a carriage, the queen intently watched the men as they marched by with a few feet of her and she began her speech in brave tones. It was only a few words, but before it was finished tears rolled down her majesty's face and her voice broke and she could not utter another word. It is not astonishing, therefore, that when Colonel Otter replied it was in trembling tones, and not one of the men whom he led into nearly fifty engagements felt ashamed of the grizzled colonel because his cheek was wet with tears. Although so deeply affected the queen appeared to be enjoying her usual health.

Why the Canadians Came Home.

The reason why only three companies of the Canadians came back to England is that shortly before the expiration of the year for which the Canadians had volunteered Colonel Otter communicated with Lord Roberts, notifying him of the fact that the command of the regiment was to be much like the regiment to remain longer and asked Colonel Otter to sound the men. The colonel asked the officers, who, without consulting the men, enthusiastically guaranteed their companies would remain.

The