GAMBLERS' TRUST IS BROKEN

Richard Perlin is Bound Over by County Judge Vinsonhaler.

JEALOUSY OF GAMESTERS A PUBLIC BOON

Court Expresses Satisfaction in the Falling Out Among Knights of the Green Cloth-Berlin Cinims to Be Victim.

Richard Berlin of South Omaha was bound over to the district court on the charge of keeping a gambling house at yesterday's session of the county court. His ball was placed at $500. Julius Berstrom became surety for the sum. In giving the decision finding in the evidence presumable cause of Berlin's guilt, Judge Vinsonhaler took occasion to say he was glad the South Omaha gamblers had fallen out among themselves and had begun to prosecute one another. He said: "In view of a statement of the county attorney not long ago, to the effect that gambiers of South Omaha have formed a trust to ensure greater and exclusive profits, it seems to be blessing that they have fallen out with one

"The attorneys for the defense complain that Sherman and Jorgeson, who are admittedly behind the prosecution in the case, have singled out Berlin alone to press charges against. If these men have selected Berlin to wield the cudgel on it seems to be a pretty good thing for the public. It will be better still if these men continue to disagree among themselves to to give a decision and a petition is filed dethe extent not only of breaking the trust, manding the production of the books which but of breaking themselves. If Sherman and Jorgeson will prosecute Berlin and secure a conviction, then get after some of the other gamblers, secure convictions and then complain against each other they will furnish the courts with a good deal of evidence that it seems we are unable to obtain in any other way. I have found from the evidence in this case that there is presumable cause of Berlin's guilt, so I will bind him over to the district court, placing the hidden from him, and nothing in all his furbonds at $500, the same amount in which niture and chattels. Mrs. Simpson comhe was held to appear here."

Testimony Against Berlin.

Among others who testified against Berlin during the morning was Myron Sherman of the firm of Sherman & Jorgeson, who admitted that he is behind the prosecution. His testimony was not different than that of several other witnesses, among them being George Victor, an employe of C. B. Liver & Co., dealers in saleen supplies, and Albert Jorgeson, the second memper of the firm mentioned. Victor said that he sold chips to be used in the gambling operations to Berlin on a number of occasions. Jorgeson said he was in the gambling rooms several times when games were being played, and had even taken a hand in them. When it came to the arguments of the attorneys those who represented Berlin emphasized the contention that although it had been proved gambling had been carried on in the building where Berlin's saloon is, there had been no proof that Berlin was actually the proprietor.

FIGG NOW SEES NEW LIGHT

Leader of Strange Cult Has Tardy Inspiration to Make Defense in Case Now Concluded.

The latest command which Lewis R. Figg of Gretna asserts he has received from heaven will cause the courts of Sarpy county a vast amount of trouble. Figg has served the court with notice that a bidding long withheld by the Lord has finally been delivered and in consequence he is now ready, with the permission of heaven, to be heard in a case that was settled at the last term of court. Figg's latest idea of the divine guidance will necessitate a rehearing in the case if he can persuade the court to rule favorably on his motion to set aside the former judgment.

The case is one growing out of the tar and feathering escapade that took place, with Figg in a leading role, several months ago. Figg had John R. Woods arrested for complicity in the proceeding, but the court before which the evidence was brought allowed Woods' release. Woods then brought suit against Figg to recover $2,500 damages because of false imprisonment. The case came up before Judge Slabaugh. Figg was summoned to appear before the beach, but he told the court that he had been given a command by the Lord not to make any defense. Judge Slabaugh gave notice that he would postpone the hearing for three days to give Figg time to get a new command and as there was no new developments when the days of grace were up, his honor heard the testimony of the plaintiff and awarded judgment against Figg in the sum

Figg has now informed the court that the Lord appeared in a dream and told him to make a defense in the case. For this purpose he has served notice that he will move for an order of the court setting aside the

It represented what purported to be the first Thanksgiving in America, in 1625, when Governor Bradford sent out four young men to kill some wild turkeys for a sort of Thanksgiving feast. Louis h. Bostwick, The Bee's photographic artist, originated the idea of the picture. He took four of The Bee carriers, dressed them in colonial costume, supplied by Liebe, the costumer, and equipped them with blunderbusses obtained from Lininger's art gallery. Then buying four turkeys from a commission house he took the boys to the outskirts of the city and posed them with the game. The result was a most artistic picture. Bostwick is a genius in his line.

Hiding Place of Plaintiff. It required the moral persuasion of a re straining order from the district court to prevent Albert L. Simpson from taking possession of a dwelling where his wife had menced suit for a divorce a few weeks ago The day the papers were placed on file with the district clerk she abandoned her home in Eouth Omaha and went to live at 1314 Chicago street. She remained in hiding because of a fear that her husband would execute former threats to maltreat her. Simpson discovered where his wife had hidden and visited the place prepared to take up his abode there. He announced his intention to move his furniture into the house and make his home with Mrs. Simpson whether she wished him to or not. To prevent such a step Jufige Dickinson issued a restraining order preventing Simpson from visiting the premises where Mrs. Simpson is living, pending a decree of the court in the divorce suit.

That the free silver republicans have heard the sound of their death-knell as a political party and have submitted gracefully to the inevitable is indicated by the neglect of the managers of the organization to file with the county clerk according to law a statement of the expenses incurred by them during the campaign. The extreme weakness, the tired and utterly exhausted and prostrated feelings following wakeful, disturbed and unrefreshing nights are terri-What wonder that there are so many shattered nerves, tired brains, and debilitated bodies, when we consider the thousands upon thousands who pass sleepless or disturbed nights, and rise mornings feeling indescribably miserable, dragged out, scarcely able to face the day's work! What wonder that so many rise mornings from their beds, where they have lain with weary lids and sleepless eyes, tossing from side to side, or simply catching short, unrefreshing naps filled with dreams, feeling heavy-headed, with pale face, haggard looks, dull and heavy, ringed eyes, and go about their daily employment with tired limbs, exhausted energies, nerveless and ambitionless. There is one sure way to cure sleeplessness, and that is the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great brain and nerve invigorator. This wonderful remedy is Nature's own sleep producer, and is perfectly harmless, being made from pure vegetable medicines fresh from the lap of Nature. It may be given to infants, children, or the most delicate invalids without fear. It soothes, calms, and quiets the weakened, irritable and over-wrought nerves, producing perfect repose, and refreshing, natural sleep; at the same time it builds up and tones up the shattered nerves and gives renewed

"Some time ago, I suffered with general disability and nervousness. I could not sleep at night nor in the daytime. I suffered almost everything and had a severe pain in my side. I was depressed in spirits and discouraged in every way. One day I read of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and determined to try it. I have now taken six or eight bottles and I feel like a new man. I had only taken it a short time when it began to build me up. I can sleep now and have a good appetite and feel that I have a new lease of life. I consider Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy the best of medicines."
