STANDING OF THE CREDITORS

Court Will Pass Today on the Merits of Officer & Pusey Claims. MANY SEEK FOR JUDICIAL PREFERENCE

Receivers Demur to Some and Answer Others of the Petitions in Intervention Filed Since Liquidation Commenced. Judge Thornell will hold a special session of district court today to pass upon the preferred claims filed against the Officer & Pusey bank. The number of these claims is quite large and the amount involved is considerable. In most instances the applicants base their claims for preference on the grounds that the monies deposited with Officer & Pusey were trust funds and were known to be such by the members of the firm. Receiver Beresheim and Murphy are anxious to have these preferred claims disposed of by the court, as until they are so they will be unable to declare a dividend. With the preferred claims once out of the way they expect to be able to declare a dividend of 25 per cent from the monies now in their hands before the first of the new year. Yesterday filed demurrers in some cases and answers in others to the petitions of intervention of the applicants for preferred claims. Demurrers were filed in the cases of A. T. Flickinger, Morris Hough, administrator of the estate of Ella Hough; Morris Hough, administrator of the estate of J. R. Hough; Philip Jeffries, trustee for Marian Jeffries; William Larsen, administrator of the estate of Hans Rosen, and the Nebraska National bank of Omaha. In each of these cases the receivers demur to the application on the grounds that the alleged deposit of the funds of the intervenor with Officer & Pusey were rightfully made and that the intervenor is simply a general creditor of said firm. Answers were filed by the receivers in the following cases: H. B. Knowles, guardian of Lamont Orr; Woman's Christian association; J. J. Stewart, administrator of the Addison Cochran estate; J. J. Hughes, administrator of the estate of J. R. Hough; B. Hughes; S. G. Underwood and J. T. Oliver, administrators of the estate of D. F. Eicher. The receivers in their answers, which are alike in each case, deny the right of the intervenors to preference and allege that "at the time of the alleged deposits made by the intervenors the banking house of Officer & Pusey was old, well established and of the highest repute for solvency and security and the deposits claimed were made in good faith in the exercise of reasonable prudence." Mrs. Ella O. Pinney, as administrator of the estate of the late Dr. Charles H. Pinney, filed a petition of intervention yesterday, asking that her deposit of $1,148.64 in the Officer & Pusey bank be declared a preferred claim, as being a trust fund. William P. Officer for himself and the Western Lumber company, filed a petition of intervention, in which he asks that deposits standing in his credit and that of the lumber company be offset against certain notes endorsed by him, which form part of the assets of the bank. The amount standing to the credit of the lumber company is $184.18, and to the credit of Officer & Pusey is $180. The total of $364.18. The notes which William Officer endorsed are long since paid and unpaid and aggregate $1,406.92 without interest. In his petition he states he is willing that the monies standing in his and the lumber company's credit be offset against these notes, which were executed respectively in 1891, 1892 and 1896. The petitioner is a son of the late Thomas Officer, senior member of the bank. P. C. DeVol, after the Officer & Pusey bank passed into the hands of the receivers, paid two notes held by the bank amounting to $1,900. He had on deposit in the bank $172.94, which the receivers refused to allow him to draw. He has filed a petition of intervention asking that his claim be made a preferred one on this account. It will please your prospective father-in-law—a jug of that famous whiskey bought in bond and sold only at the Hoffman.

Answers of the Receivers.

Answers were filed by the receivers in the following cases: H. B. Knowles, guardian of Lamont Orr; Woman's Christian association; J. J. Stewart, administrator of the Addison Cochran estate; J. J. Hughes, administrator of the estate of J. R. Hough; B. Hughes; S. G. Underwood and J. T. Oliver, administrators of the estate of D. F. Eicher. The receivers in their answers, which are alike in each case, deny the right of the intervenors to preference and allege that "at the time of the alleged deposits made by the intervenors the banking house of Officer & Pusey was old, well established and of the highest repute for solvency and security and the deposits claimed were made in good faith in the exercise of reasonable prudence."
