STEELE HEAD OF SENATE

SEARS FOR THE HOUSE BY ACCLAMATION

Legislators Quickly Agree on Organization - Governor in His Message Advocates Radical Changes.

LINCOLN, Dec. 31 -- (Special Telegram ) -The republican members of the senate after an unsuccessful attempt to caucus this afternoon assembled at 8 o'clock tonight and agreed on Calvin F. Steele of Fairbury for president pro-tem, John C Fremont McKesson for secretary and A. H. Keim of Falls City, for assistant secretary, All the republican senators were present excepting John Trompen of Lancaster Senator N. V. Harlan of York county presided.

The meeting was harmonious throughout. зате зиссевя. the only contests being over minor positions. Senator Harlan of York was chosen for permanent chairman of the caucus and Senator Oleson of Cuming for permanent secretary. president of the senate by Howard Baldrige of Omaha, and there being no opposition he was chosen by a unanimous vote. F. C. F. McKesson of Lancaster and A. H. Keim the former was victorious by a vote of 12 to 6. Mr. Keim was then chosen by acclamation for first assistant secretary. Clark Robinson of Fremont was slated for sergeant-at-arms, John Patrick of Washington county for doorkeeper, W. H. Pool of Cass all the time." for enrolling and engrossing clerk, A. A. Cressman of Crete for chaplain and Harry Beebe of Stanton for custodian of the cloak room. George Crofts of Beatrice and E. Marquette of Fremont received two votes for chaplain.

The following committees were elected: On Standing Committees - Lieutenant Governor Savage, A. H. Arends of Otoe, E. N. Allen of Furnas, H. H. Baldrige of Omaha, J. R. VanBoskirk of Box Butte, E. D.
