MISS FRANCIS M. ANDERSON, daughter of Hon. Judge Anderson of Virginia, is at present in Washington, D. C., as Corresponding Secretary of the Higher Educational League, of that city. Cured of la grippe by Peruna.

MISS FRANCIS M. ANDERSON, Corresponding Secretary of the Higher Educational League, writes from the "Antonia," Washington, D. C., the following: "About two months ago I was taken very ill with la grippe and was obliged to go to bed. I took three bottles of Peruna with very beneficial results, and was able to leave my bed in a week and regained my usual strength very soon."

"I have nothing but praise for Peruna, and recommend it to those similarly afflicted whenever I can."—Frances M. Anderson.

La grippe is, strictly speaking, epidemic catarrh—that is to say, a variety of acute catarrh which is so contagious and runs a course more or less definite, the same as scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc.

"During the acute stages of la grippe it is not a very fatal disease, but the condition in which it leaves the system has caused the death of a countless number."

"Indeed nearly every person who has had la grippe within the last three years finds himself more or less deranged by the persistent effects of this disease. The majority of those who have escaped death find life scarcely worth living."

"If this vast multitude of people could only know what certainty and promptness Peruna would relieve them of all the bad effects which la grippe has brought upon them, what an untold amount of suffering would be averted."

"Thousands have already heard how quick and certain it is to cure. It is a very reliable medicine in all cases of la grippe."

"I highly recommend Peruna to all my neighbors and friends. Peruna is my favorite medicine. I shall always have Peruna in the house."—Miss Caroline J. Kahl.

"Address The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, for a free copy of 'Winter Catarrh,' which treats of the diseases peculiar to winter."

HOUSE READY FOR BUSINESS

Caucus Program Goes Through Without a Hitch and on Schedule Time. LINCOLN, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—With a beautiful rosewood gavel made by students in the Institute for Deaf and Dumb at Omaha, Secretary of State Porter rapped for attention in the east hall at 12:05 and declared the house of representatives of the twenty-ninth session in order. Rev. George W. Martin of Palmyra invoked the blessing and Theodore Mahn of the secretary of state's office called the roll, all members answering except Alex Boulier of Saunders.

Nominations for temporary speaker being first in order J. W. Armstrong of Nemaha was placed in nomination by R. W. Laflin of Gage and on behalf of the fusion members the name of John C. Sprecher of Colfax was presented by Claus Grell of Sarpy. Armstrong was elected by a strict party vote of 53 to 46. He was escorted to the speaker's chair by R. W. Laflin and in a short address said:

"I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me. I am glad to be met to effect an organization for the next legislature; we do so in a new century, with you all at my side and I consider the year 1901 my wish is that each one of us may be in the light of the present century pass away as we have in the past. The duties of the body are greater and more responsible than upon us than any ever before experienced by any previous session. We have the ordinary routine of business to attend to and all of our great institutions to look after and provide for, and in so doing we should carefully consider the growth and development of this country and in a business-like manner do our duty without neglecting the other duties locally. We have an history of this state that has not been in the history of any other legislature, and it is the election of two United States senators. The people of this state are demanding of us that we take this matter up in proper time and quickly elect those two senators to fill these two very important positions, so that we may attend to the other business of the state. I trust that harmony will prevail, not only in the opening proceedings, but in all remaining deliberations of our body. What is your further pleasure?"

The house at once concluded the temporary organization. For temporary clerk John W. of Dawson was unanimously chosen, and on motion of Cain of Richardson the following committee on credentials was appointed by the speaker: Cain of Richardson, Mead of Douglas, Andrews of Frontier, Tanner of Nemaha and Taylor of Custer. While the committee was preparing the list of members the house took a recess.

On recommendation of the credentials committee the list of members prepared by the secretary of state was accepted as the official list. A motion by Mockett of Lancaster authorizing the temporary speaker to appoint a committee of three to escort the chief justice to the hall to administer the oath of office was carried, and Messrs. Frontier, Tanner of Nemaha and Taylor of Custer were named. The committee was organized later, escorting Chief Justice Norval, who was announced by Mr. Laflin.

After the members subscribed to the oath of office the election of a permanent speaker was taken up. William Sears of Murray of Thurston was named for speaker. This committee returned a few minutes later, escorting Chief Justice Norval, who was announced by Mr. Laflin.
