Separate Prefecture of Berlin.

The press has given much space this week to the discussion of the project to make a separate prefecture of Berlin. The liberal papers oppose the proposition, seeing therein the intention of the government to control more sharply Berlin's local affairs. The semi-official papers, on the other hand, assert that the suggestion is based purely on the idea of providing better local administration.

The Berliner Tageblatt says the provision budget will provide a prefecture for Berlin. Various cases in which physicians have come tax assessors, especially where an ap-

The United Service Magazine article sugceipts and expenditures. gesting that Great Britain exchange the island of Cyprus for German East Africa is widely discussed this week. The proposition finds absolutely no support in the German press. The Cologne Volks Zeltung, especially, emphasizes that Germany's possession of Cyprus would give the lie to her protestations of having purely commercial Interests in Asia Minor.

The Berlin papers have discussed this week in a lively manner methods for preventing fatal accidents on street railroads and much attention has been given to the American devices in this connection. The papers are printing illustrations of the various American car fenders, for which a Ger man word does not even exist.

RELEASE OF MRS. MAYBRICK

Mother of Famous Woman Prisoner Renews Her Efforts to Secure Daughter's Freedom.

LONDON, Jan. 5 .- The report is again current that if Lady Curzon's health, which so much worries the viceroy of India, fails to improve he intends to return to England this year. In answer to inquiries of the disorganizer of the army. Associated Press the officials of the India office say they have not heard anything tending to confirm the reports. Baroness de Roques is once more actively agitating in behalf of her daughter, Mrs. Florence Maybrick. She had two interviews with the United States ambassador Joseph H. Choate, this week and received a polite assurance that the case will be presented to the new home secretary, C. T. Ritchie, when an opportunity arises. The baroness is much disturbed about the health of the famous prisoner, but she is confident that the new evidence and the renewed efforts of their friends in America will have the desired effect.

cause of Disagreement with the Theater Manager.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.-Henrietta Crosman, who has been playing in "Nell Gwyne" at the Savoy theater, refused to play tonight and the audience got its money back. Her manager, Campbell, and the theater manager, Ahrens, have been having trouble during the week and it culminated tonight in Miss Crosman playing about fifteen minutes, when she had the curtain rung down. She then told the audience there had been such a disagreement that she could not continue.

A number of auditors went to the box office and for a time Manager Ahrens rethe gang showed up in the haystack. He fused to refund the money, but he did so at immediately drew back into his lair. This last and a majority of the people received what they had paid.

The court room was crowded when Mr." Rosewater appeared with his attorney. John C. Wharton, and announced that he was ready to go ahead.

I. J. Dunn, representing the county attorney's office, appeared for the state. Attorney Wharton announced that his client would waive a preliminary examination. This brought Mr. Dunn to his feet and he objected most emphatically. He insisted that he had a right to insist upon a preliminary examination in order that the prosecution might learn what the defendants knew about the case. If, after the examination, there was no ground for holding the prisoner to the district court or necessity for calling the attention of the grand jury to the matter, the case might be dropped. Dunn, continuing, said what he wanted was to ascertain if there was sufficient evidence for binding Mr. Rosewater over to the district court. He asserted that he had a right to investigate such cases before a magistrate. The officers of the state, he insisted, were entitled to know what evidence was to be brought out by the defendant should a case go to a higher court. Therefore, he insisted upon a preliminary hearing. In conclusion Mr. Dunn asked the court to insist upon a preliminary hearing.

Court Not a Drag Net.

In response to the hot air talk of Dunn, Attorney Wharton said that Mr. Dunn had agreed with him that the police judge had no charge for the final determination of the case. "We offer to waive," said Mr. Wharton, "and enter into a bond to appear before the district court. If witnesses are called all the court can do is to determine whether or not there is sufficient evidence to hold the defendant to the district court. We come in and say that we waive all advantage we might take by having a preliminary hearing. In my opinion the state should know at the time it files complaints whether it has sufficient grounds to convict. It is not the intent of the law to allow the court to be used as a drag net for political purposes.

The attention of the court was called to the case of Mayor Kelly in the county court, wherein Mr. Kelly, on a charge of accepting bribes, was permitted to waive examination after a portion of the testimony had been taken. In conclusion, Mr. Wharton spoke of the clique of "grafters" who were attempting simply to humiliate and annoy Mr. Rosewater.

At the conclusion of Mr. Wharton's remarks Mr. Resewater was permitted to speak. He said he regarded the proceeding as one of the most infamous ever perpetrated in Nebraska. He asserted that the statements of Mitchell were rank perjury. Continuing, Mr. Rosewater said that the court had no jurisdiction for the reason that the law under which the complaints were filed does not apply to candidates for Rosewater contended that if he had any conversation at all with Mitchell it was in Omaha and there was no excuse for the county attorney dragging him to a police court in South Omaha.

"I am willing," said Mr. Rosewater, "to waive examination and give ball and have the case tried before the district court in order to determine the fact as to whether an offense has been committed against the law or not. This whole thing is a political
