Saturday's Bullishness in Wheat Finally Overcome by Pears.

CORN AND OATS CLOSE SHADE LOWER

Provisions Moderately Active and Strong on Good Cash Demand, Closing from Ten to Twenty-Five Cents Higher.

CHICAGO, Jan. H.-Wheat held firm for time today in the face of bearish statistics, heavy receipts and indifferent cables, but gave way later, May closing 14% %c lower. Corn closed a shade lower and oats a shade higher. Provisions at the close were tegitic higher. Of the builishness which manifested itself near the close 2-forday there was still GAME—Mallard ducks, per doz. $3.00 genough left this morning to cause wheat to 150 teal $1.50 gl.75; mixed, $1.50 gl.75; fack-15 ments. May opened be lower to be higher at 77% to 78c, and on buying by con mission houses railied during the first hour sion houses rallied during the first hour to 78%c. Cables were indifferent, northwest receipts heavy and world's shipments 3,39,000 bu. The immensity of these shipments, however, and the visible increase of 60,000 bu. announced later, had been pretty well discounted. On the bulge the demand fell off and offerings, which early had been pratty well discounted. On the bulge the demand fell off and offerings, which early had been pratty had been pratty by the same of the leavy flower and the market slamped to 77%c. Here it held steady for a while and toward the end of the session dropped to 77%c. The close was weak, May 425%c lower at 77½ 677%c. Exporters reported six loads taken. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour were equal to 435,000 bu. Primary receipts aggregated 325,000 bu., compared with 73.000 bu. last year. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 645 cars, against 573 cars last week and 757 cars a year ago. Local receipts were seventy-seven cars, none of contract grade.

The corn market was narrow. The opening was firm on the unfavorable weather, but prices cased off a bit later in sympathy with wheat. May sold between 28%c and closed steady, a shade down at 28%c and closed steady. Receipts, 334 cars, caused some selling early, but offerings were well taken. May sold between 25%c and 25%c and closed steady. Receipts, 34 cars, caused some selling early, but offerings were well taken. May sold between 25%c and closed a shade up at 25c. to 78%c. Cables were indifferent, north-

METALS—A slow and uninteresting market in local circles was experienced again today. Speculation was conspicuous by its absence and tradine was of a handto-mouth character. Advices from abroad noted a loss of £1, 10s in tin to £118, 78 8d, which created a weak undertone to the local situation following arrivals of 157 tens of tin, with about 1,400 tons expected.

this week. The close here was quiet and easy, with sellers on the basis of $26.25 A small jobbing business was done in pig lead at 4724, but the trend of prices was downward in sympathy with foreign weakness. MOVEMENTS OF STOCKS AND BONDS.

Speculative Liquidation Causes Considerable Weakness in Stocks. NEW YORK, Jan. 14 - The currents in oday's stock market were exceedingly con-using and irregular and the contest betoday's stock market were exceedingly confusing and irregular and the contest between speculative forces was by no means conclusive. There was a very large amount of speculative liquidation accomplished and there were periods of acute and general weakness. Some of the recently prominent stocks in the advance suffered from material setsacks. On the other hand, there were stocks whose strength was constant in varying degree throughout the session. The selling movement showed symptoms of having largely expended itself during the course of the day, and there were signs of renewed aggressiveness on the part of the bull interests and the market rallied throughout from the midday low level. New stocks came into the leadership and there were indications that the personality of the leaders of the speculation had also undergone some change.

The brokers who were the largest sellers in the raliroad list were very heavy buyers of some of the steel-stocks, and it was evident that an attempt was to be made to conduct a double campaign in the market on the bear side in some of the raliroads and on the bull side in the steel stocks. The market closed in fact, with some notable advances scored in the steel group and with renewed weakness among the raliroads and specialities, some of the latter two classes selling at the lowest on the sales.

There were points of strength during the roads and specialities, some of the latter two classes selling at the lowest on the sales.

There were points of strength during the day in the railroad list, and amongst quite a number of the stocks not usually conspicuous in the trading. The Eries had a notable recovery from early weakness, the first preferred getting 2½ above Saturday. The southwestern group showed signs of strength, and St. Louis Southwestern preferred got a point above Saturday at one time. Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & St. Louis stocks rose 3 and 3½, respectively, for the common and preferred. The National Salt stocks gained 2 and 2½, respectively, and Lead preferred recovered 5 points of its recently heavy decline. American Tobacco was 2½ points over Saturday at the highest. But these points of strength specifiedly, and Lead Interfered processed a points of its recently heavy decline. Amount of the control of strength at the highest, flut these points of strength at the highest. TABASCO WAS NOTHING TO IT.

A "Hot Stuff" Incident That Broke Up a Mexican Dinner Party.

"The Tabasco sauce incident, which plays such an important role in the Booz investigation, reminds me of a very harrowing experience of my own in old Mexico," said a railroad man to the New Orleans Times. Democrat man. "About ten years ago I went down over the Mexican Central to Chihuahua, and that being my first visit to the republic, everything was new and strange, especially the cooking. I had a letter of introduction to the commandante of the city, who proved to be a courtly, superb-looking old gentleman, and he immediately made preparations to give a dimner in my honor at his residence the following afternoon. I was a little embarrassed at so much attention, but at the same time I was anxious to get a glimpse of native social life, and when I put in an appearance I found a really brilliant assemblage, composed of the principal personages of the place. I was duly presented all around and, after a little ceremonious conversation, we took our seats at the table, my own place being between my host and his beautiful eldest daughter. The dinner was excellent and everything passed of smoothly until about the middle of the re-A "Hot Stuff" Incident That Broke Up conversation, we took our seats at the labels ble, my own place being between my host and his beautiful eldest daughter. The distant his beautiful his his his his his his cook to prepare for my particular delectation. It is a local version to a characteristic Mexican dish, which he had ordered his cook to prepare for my particular delectation. It is a local version of chile-colorow, he said, 'and while it's a trifle high flavored I will guarantee that you will find it delicious. At the same moment the delicacy made its appearance. It was brick red in color and had the general aspect of a thick vegetable stew. Seeing that I was a bit timid the beautiful senorita at my side helped herself to a portion and smillingly swallowed a liberal spoonful. That dissipated my fears, and without any further hesitation I proceeded to follow her example. To fully describe what happened next would need an accomplished linguist. You couldn't nossibly do it justice in one tongue. I felt as if I had boited a quart of red hot carpet tacks. The roof of my mouth shriveled like a collapsed halloon. Tears ran down my cheeks like rain. I couldn't breathe. I leaped to my feet, gurgling horribly, and rushed around the room looking for water, which is the last thing in the world you will find on a Mexican table. The guests shrank back in terror, supposing I had gone suddenly mid, and most of the ladles went off into violent hysteries; but the courteous commandanter ran after me and seized me by the flying tails of my coat. Then he held open my jaws while his beauteous daughter noured a cruet of olive oil into my sizzling guillet. That relieved me, but the enisode broke in the banquet and I dare say it is still a stock story in the best circles of Chibuahua society. I left early next morning and have never been back. It is a black spot in my story in the best circles of Chihuahua so-clety. I left early next morning and have never been back. It is a black spot in my memory. I afterward ascertained, by the way, that chile-colorow is prepared from native red pepper pods, which have ripened on strings at least five years. Each year raises their temperature 20 degrees Fahr-enheit."
