THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1901.

3

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

FUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year. 16.00 Daily Bee and Sunday, One Year. 8.00 Illustrated Ree, One Year. 2.00 Bunday Bee, One Year. 2.00 Saturday Bee, One Year. 1.00 Saturday Bee, One Yes Weekly Bee, One Year OFFICES.

Oraha: The Boe Building, South Omaha: City Hall Building, Twen-ty-fifth and N Streets, Council Blaffs: 19 Pearl Street, Chicago: 160 Unity Building, New York: Temple Court, Washington: 50 Fourteenth Street, Courterenth Street, CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

BUSINESS LETTERS. Business letters and remittances should addressed: The Bee Publishing Company, Omaha

REMITTANCES.

Remit by draft, express of postal order, ayable to The Bee Publishing Company, inly 2-cent stamps accepted in payment of nall accounts Personal checks, except on imaha or Eastern exchanges, not accepted. THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, 58. George B. Tzschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, eavys that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily, Morning, the month of December.	1900, was as follows:

1	17
2	18
8	19
	20
	21
	22
	23 and a state of the 8
9	AMILITARY AND
10	BU
11	27
12	28
13	29
14	30
15	31

45.685 Less unsold and returned copies ... 885.18

Net daily average GEORGE B. TZSCHUCK 26.941 Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this list day of December, A. D. 1960, M. B. HUNGATE. (Seal.) Notary Public.

The senatorial slippers are still on the high shelf and refuse to come down.

sheepmen have appropriated the range ence was exerted in behalf of that invited to express their preference for in the National Live Stock association.

changed her mind and brought suit for love between the north and the south, of the Douglas county delegation was divorce.

Force of habit is strong. If you doubt It just go into the room where the Nebraska Press association is meeting and yell "color."

Salt may not be the elixir of life, but it has become the basis of two very interesting suits against an alleged trust. It may turn out that salt is death to the octopus.

Mrs. Nation continues her career breaktowns. Is it possible there is a mistake about Kansas having abolished the saloon by legislation.

reign in English history closed with the cable for improving conditions in Porto could do just as well, if not better, and death of Victoria, who ascended the Rico and if the policy respecting fran- with considerable less fuss. British throne June 20, 1837, and was chises is proving a drawback to the crowned a year later. Victoria was island's progress it should be changed. also the oldest of British sovereigns, her age exceeding by a few days that of the AS TO THE DOUGLAS DELEGATION.

END OF AN ILLUSTRIOUS REIGN.

oldest of her predecessors, George III. actual public service Victoria had of the legislature from Douglas county scarcely an equal in history.

In considering the life and character were elected to represent. These stories of the woman who for nearly two-thirds emanate from competitors and enemies of a century was the ruler of the British of Mr. Rosewater, to whose senatorial empire, the first thought of her is as a candidacy the delegation is committed. wife and mother. It was her domestic The intimation that the Douglas delerelations, her splendid womanly quali- gation may waver in its support of Mr. ties, that commanded the world's re- Rosewater is not only without the least spect and made Victoria beloved as no foundation, but it is a reflection upon other English sovereign has been by her the honor of its members. The Douglas own people. Tennyson said that "A delegation to the legislature this year thousand claims to reverence closed in occupies a position which no previous her as mother, wife and queen." and delegation has held. Never before have the sentiment was concurred in by civi- our representatives in the legislature lized mankind. It has been remarked had their instructions so explicit and so the larger she looms to his vision as the was not hazed. He was an able-bodied that never since Elizabeth has there direct from the people. The members been an English sovereign for whose of the delegation were nominated as the person England has shown such un result of a primary election in which the qualified regard, even affection. But issue was squarely drawn on preferred complete copies of The Daily, Morning, the truth is, as was said a few days choice for United States senator. In ago by the London Times, that the old every ward in Omaha and in every conest British sovereign was also the best tested country precinct the issue was 27,310 beloved, and this affection was given to fought out between delegations openly 28,210 her not as a ruler, for in that relation pledged on one side to the candidacy of she played no very great part, particu- Edward Rosewater and on the other to permit himself to be worked up over the larly since she became a widow, more that of John L. Webster for United wickedness of it all until after all danger 27,310 than thirty-nine years ago, but as a States senator. The voice of the re-25.940 pattern of womanhood. It was the do publicans of Douglas county favored mestic virtues of Victoria that the his- Edward Rosewater by a decisive vote of torian of her life will lay chief stress more than three to two and the repub-

27,240 upon. lican county convention was so com-26,695 While Victoria always took an interest pletely dominated by the friends of Mr. 26,970

power was exerted mainly in a negative sidered for nomination on the legislative tax should be graded and go up with their a pension. 10,503 way. There were some notable excep- ticket who was not committed unequivtions to this, however, the most con- ocally to his support.

spicuous, perhaps, and so far as this | But not only has the Douglas delegacountry is concerned certainly the most tion had its instructions from the rank important, being the position she took and file of the republican party, exregarding the civil war in the United pressed at the primaries, but it has had very large portion of the English people of the people, registered at the ballot say, after the style of Deuteronomy, thus: were disposed to favor the southern con- box at the same election which gave federacy, Queen Victoria was the friend them their certificates. At this elec- and stoned to death." There is a growing suspicion that the of the union cause and her great influ- tion the voters of Douglas county were cause. "It is not too much to say," ob- United States senator and out of 11,781 serves a writer on this point, "that the expressions Edward Rosewater received One of the new century resolves has stability of the union, the abolition of 9,179. When it is remembered that the stop the brutality called hazing at West been broken already-Mrs. Lease has slavery and the displacement of hate by average vote received by the members > were appreciably due to the course of but slightly over 12,000, the force of this the queen, when her action was a vital popular endorsement is manifest. An would support the senator in a move of co-efficient in the balances of liberty on alyzed more closely, it becomes still this kind. the earth." This gave her a claim upon more striking, because of the fact that the gratitude of Americans, who feel a out of 11,781 expressions of preference sense of bereavement in her death only on senator 1.679 were cast for fusion less acute than that of Englishmen-a candidates, giving Mr. Rosewater 9,179 feeling that is properly expressed in the as against 923 for all other republican resolution adopted by the United States | aspirants. senate and in the dispatch of Secretary This explanation is entirely unneces-Hay to Ambassador Choate. But for sary so far as the members of the that democracy, after which his party is Boston Navy yard, has been detached from said all manner of ill-natured things about How, in view of these facts, anyone can the most part the political activity of the Douglas delegation are concerned, belate queen was of a negative nature and cause they fully understand the situaing the windows of saloons in Kansas this has been especially the case in re- tion. It may, however, serve to encent years, during which personal lighten people outside of Douglas county who are not familiar with the conditions bereavements bore heavily upon her. The harmonization of monarchy with here and who might otherwise be deliberty is not the least important fact ceived by the bold fakes perpetrated

Wall street bears thrive when other conduction of the Victorian era. When the late chiefly by fusion organs in the interest most of the Victorian era. When the late chiefly by fusion organs in the interest not to tell the Venezuelan government how and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature pyschology. and social literature how and social literature how and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature pyschology. and social literature how and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature pyschology. and social literature how and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. E. A. Snankle, superintendent and lecturer. Agent for all co-operative and social literature. Agent for al people do not. That is why they so queen ascended the throne few could of the opponents of Mr. Resewater, cheerfully raided the stock market when vote in England. Now there are few The decision of the Philippine comall the world was watching at the bed- who cannot vote and personal liberty is nowhere more secure than there. No mission to prevent religious teaching in impaired he is to ask reparation. future sovereign of Great Britain will be school houses, in order to absolutely sep-As if to answer the Bryanites, the able to put any restriction upon that arate church and state, is to be com-Creek Indians have defied the United liberty which is one of the glories of mended. It was against the exactions of thing else. The asphalt people themselves States government. The sacred right to the reign that closed with the death of the friars that the Filipinos rose in 1896, when Aguinaldo first gained prominence. bears out the hypothesis suggested here at Victoria. The successor to the throne, Albert and one of the greatest tasks the United the first, that the excitement was very Edward, who takes the title of King Ed. States government has had to deal with largely a fake. has been to convince the natives that ward VII, is a man of liberal tendencies FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES. they were not likely to be again suband being nearly 60 years of age probjected to the same conditions. Religion Twelve Hundred Actions Reported in ably has no ambition other than to comflourishes well under our form of govmend his rule to the favor of the people. ernment and will suffer nothing in the The new king has been a man of the Senator Daniel, in the course of the dis-Philippines because of the commission's world and while he has given no evicussion of the army bill in the senate, subdence of ability for statecraft, he is un- decision. doubtedly well informed in regard to Eastern railroads are unable to furfrom February 4, 1899, to June 30, political affairs. It is at least to be excompiled by the adjutant general and dated nish rolling stock to handle the busipected of him that he will maintain the October 1, last. These actions number ness offered them in splite of the large dignity of the throne. The civilized 1.213, and they vary in scope from engageadditions to equipment made during the world sympathizes with Great Britain ments in which thousands of our troops last two years. So great is the shortage participated to skirmishes in which wagon and the universal hope will be that that it is feared that in some instances guards had a brush with guerrillas. The under her new ruler that great nation factories will be compelled to close down adjutant general in every case gives the will keep its place among the civilized until relief is found. Every sign points organizations engaged and the casualties was passed the American expressed the powers of the world. sustained. From this return it appears to the continuation of the present iadustrial activity in this country, which CONDITIONS IN PORTO RICO. means more work for the laboring man ficers and 476 men killed, and 147 officers wait for the confirmation of the Amer-The statement made last week before the insular affairs committee of the house of representatives, by General interview given The Bee by Henry G.

Curtis, who was a member of the insular commission, also points out that for the development of Porto Rico the first thing needed is railroads and shipping faeilities to and from the island. In regard to franchises, he stated that the question was discussed by the commission, but billty in this matter. The duty of the election of two senators and the mem The longest and the most illustrious government is to do everything practi- bers realize it is a task which others ray of legal talent on the county pay roll seems like an unwarranted extrav-An effort is being made to create the Thus in length of days and length of impression that the republican members agance on the part of the county board. deputies of the county attorney have vanquish the hazers on their own ground. are not true to the interests which they drawn up that franchise?

> One thousand natives of the Philipto the United States in a bunch, after acknowledging that they had contributed to the insurgent cause. Still the work of pacification is making no "plebes" who could whip five men a day in hendway.

Hence These Tears. New York Tribun

The more Lord Rosebery studies America future mistress of the world.

Training for the Senate. Baltimore American.

Chased by bears and treed by wolves, olonel Roosevelt is undergoing an arduous preparation for the strenuous life he excis to lead in the senate.

Cleveland's Belated Wall. Washington Pos Mr. Cleveland, h will be recalled, did not of Mr. Bryan's election was over.

Rubbing it Into Dave.

joke but Hill

Wu Ting Fang," being introduced to ex-Governor Hill, said: "You ought to be his business and licked all comers half to the inky color of his locks, but whether foreign country? taxed, sir' All bachelors should be taxed death. No wonder a member of the com- this be true or not, his hair is as black as "But we insist that Forto Rico and the for remaining single. And the older they mittee said that plebe ought to have a in the political affairs of the empire, her Rosewater that no one was even con- are the heavier they should be taxed. The monument. He deserves a gold medal and that amiable statesman was in the house. colonialists rejoin. Precisely, and here is Everybody seemed to enjoy the years."

The taking of the census of the Dominion of Canada is to be begun April 1 and is expected to be completed in two weeks. Former Governor Boutwell of Massachu States. When British statesmen and a those instructions reinforced by a vote could be easily covered by an omnibus bill, setts is the only man living who was the red enough for two. executive of a state half a century ago. He

Virginia papers are hopeful that General Fitzhugh Lee will soon be retired with Senator Allen, in a recent speech on the of them says: "His poverty and honors re-

Richard Yates, the new governor of Illi nois, is the first native of the state ever turn over to the various states the educa- elected to his office. He was inaugurated January 14, which was the exact date of the inauguration of his father, Richard Yates,

J. McNeil Whistler, the artist, recently received a note from a woman asking for an autograph. The writer had followed an the United States is hedged, in poor Cleve- English fad and put a stamp on each of land's opinion, are sansculottism and impe- the two upper corners of the envelope rialism. The one is represented by Bryan. Whistler, in replying, put a stamp in each yclept, is conservative? Nothing is less that post and ordered to his home, to conservative than democracy, and to assign wait orders preparatory to his being re- poor young man was not given this chance, tion favorable to the government in the it such an attribute is to tarvesty the very tired on February 19 next. Captain Dyer and why the secretary of state should "put "colonial" cases passes comprehension. The battle of Manila bay.

should conduct its business. He is

ETCHINGS OF WASHINGTON LAFES. A CELEBRATED PLEBE.

Cleveland Leader: It is to be regretted that the witness before the congressional investigating committee could not remembe celebrated.

institution.

ber the name of the cadet at West Point Employing special counsel to do its who would not be hazed, and who whipped by Senator Dolliver in his memorial adwork when there is nirendy a great ar. every upper classman who was depended dress on the life of his predecessor. upon to thrash him. That cadet ought to Philadelphia Record. Once in a generation or so, it seems, a "plebe" cadet turns ple concluded to put the candidate through

In this category belongs an unnamed hero who entered the military academy in 1888, and, according to Cadet Brinton, whipped Gear, "that thee dost not belong to any every upper classman who was pitted temperance society, and that thee dost take

"That is true," replied Mr. Gear without occasion, and about thirty in all. It any hesitation. should be the chief concern of congressmen hereafter, in making appointments to West "and they frankness is more to be com Point, to send none but stubborn and allsome of the American Tagals insist that embracing fighters of this sort. A few mended than thy habits. We do not think preposterous hazing requirements at the Thee will now receive our votes."

to know the name of the plebe of 1888 who

The distinction of possessing the most beautiful silvery white hair in the house. youth and when he was called out to fight responded with an alacrity which indicated says the Washington Post, belongs unthat he had come to West Point for no other questionably to Representative McAleer of purpose. When he had polished off his Philadelphia. It is rich and glossy. There peculiar. There is no parallelism of any man he flipped a drop of perspiration from has been nothing like it since the days of his brow with the index finger of his trusty Breckinridge of Kentucky, whose shock of Porto Rico and the Philippines. The disright and glanced inquiringly about him as silvery hair was at once the admiration and similarities are plain and glaring. if to say "next." Another husky hazer was the envy of every member. McAleer's hair brought forward and in a few minutes his has always been white-unlike Findlay of that our constitution is not in force in Cuba. companiens were bringing him to life again. Maryland, who came to the house a perfect and that the provisions for indictment by Then they trotted out three more in rapid blonde and who gradually developed a grand jury and trial by petit jury cannot be succession, and they too went to the grass. In the course of two or three days that white-haired men in the house. Most of the plebe whipped thirty of our country's future | members are bald-headed.

defenders, and that is why he was not

PERSONAL NOTES.

pay sufficiently large to keep him from

as governor of the same state forty years

Captain N. M. Dyer, now stationed at the young Mr. Hay has given at his post, and An enterprising Topeka man has the following business card: "Music. Language, the credit he has reflected upon his coun-Literature. E. A. Shankle, superintendent try at a point where something of the sort was sadly needed, here is a bit of a story worthy a moment's consideration. "I hear your son is coming home from false grammar, horn and vocal lessons. Bargains

Scenes and Incidents Around the Hub nderstand how Galliger could, in a coldof National Politics. blooded way, repudiate so close a friend. An incident illustrating the frankness of During the debate on the last naval apthe late Senator Gear of lows was related propriation bill Mr. Chandler, who was rec retary of the navy under President Arthur, hade a speech, reading, at one point, from Gear was a condidate for congress. The the annual report of a former secretary prohibition sentiment was running high of the navy. He eulogized the sentiments in his district, and the temperance peoexpressed in that report, and said nothing sould be more accurate and better adapted

Why could not some of the well paid up at West Point who can meet and an examination. They held a meeting, to to the needs of the country. He said every which they invited Mr. Gear. He accepted. word he read from that report received The chairman of the meeting was a Quaker. his hearly indorsement. Some democrat, "We learn," said the Quaker to Mr.

pine islands took the oath of allegiance against him-five in one day on a certain a drink when it pleases thee? "From the report of William E. Chandler of New Hampshire," was the quick reply.

"Thee are very frank," said the Quaker thee ought to drink, but if thou hadst lied fist fights would soon put an end to to us we would not have supported thee

And Mr. Gear did get their votes. He Minneapolis Times: The country yearns never forgot the incident and its moral.

for example, have no rights which congress and the executive are legally bound to respect claim to discern in the Neely decision significant evidence of the approval by the supreme court of the Porto Rican tariff and the whole colonial doctrine. Their logic is sort between the case of Cuba and that of It is true that the supreme court has held snowy crest of hair. There are very few invoked by an American citizen who has committed a crime in Cuba and fled to the United States. But on what ground was ween Senator Gallinger and the man whose nterrupting, asked:

nfirmation he antagonized. He could not

'From what secretary of the navy's anual report is the senator reading?"

NEELY CASE INFERENCES

Bearing of the Decision on the Porto

Bican and Philippine Cases.

Chicago Post.

Certain editors committed to the proposiion that the constitution does not extend to the territories and that Porto Ricans.

As Mr. McAleer has the whitest hair, so this based? On the fact that Cuba is a forhazed. No tabaseo sauce scalded his Representative Curtis of Kansas has the eign country and not a dependency or terthroat and to him the tortures of the blackest. It is said that Curtis has an ritory of the United States. Who has ever "eagle" were unknown. He just went about Indian strain in him, which accounts for held that our constitution is operative in a

that worn by McCreary of Kentucky, when Philippines are likewise 'foreign.'" the There were dark and mysterious rumors where they disregard both fact and sense that McCreary's head was covered by a wig. Why is Cuba foreign? First and chiefly No one yet has had the hardthood to make because, as the supreme court recalls with that suggestion about Congressman Curtis, emphasis, our government had distinctly Red-haired men are not numerous, Shaf- disclaimed the purpose to annex or perroth of Colorado, Hopkins of Illinois, Lori- manently control Cuba, and had asserted mer of Illinois and Alexander of New York its determination to retire after pacification complete the list, but Alexander's hair is and leave Cuban affairs to the control of the people of the island. That resolution stands

It was not modified by the treaty of Paris. Adelbert Hay, American consul at Fre- for Cuba was not ceded to us. We are octoria, is coming home in a few weeks, after cupying Cuba but she is foreign in every having made a record in South Africa of sense of the term-legal, national and interwhich his countrymen as well as his friends | national.

have a right to feel proud. He has filled On the other hand, over Porto Rico and want for the remainder of his days. One one of the most difficult posts in the con- the Philippines we exercise sovereign possular service of any country with entire ers. They are annexed to the United States satisfaction to both Briton and Boer. Re- and, sophistry aside, part of the United ports have come here, writes Walter Well- States. They must be governed under the man in Collier's Weekly, showing that he constitution, so far as the constitution is enjoys great popularity among all classes applicable to any territory or any comof people at the Transvaal capital, and munity not enjoying full statehood. Even that the Boers are loud and warm in his the government only contends that they are praise. They had feared he was going to be "foreign" within the meaning of the taxasomewhat pro-English, but not a single com- | tion and uniformity clause. It has been plaint on that score, or indeed on any other. | compelled to admit that they have no more has come to hand. Which is pretty good and no fewer rights than our old, organfor a young man not yet 25, and who took | ized territories. A decision to the effect the job against his father's wishes simply that there may be a tariff between the because he was tired loafing around and states united and Porto Rico, by the hywanted to get out into the world and do pothesis, would necessarily imply that we comething. When young Mr. Hay was may now read New Mexico and Arizona out named by the president to succeed Mr. of the "United States" for taxation pur-Macrum at Pretoria some of the newspapers poses.

the selection. They wondered why some claim that the Neely decision presages accommanded the cruiser Baltimore at the his young son at the public crib," and zo suggestion is an absurdity, the conclusion on. Now, apart from the good service of the jumped-at species.

TART TRIFLES.

Philadelphia North American: "I huri the lie nuck in your testh?" he crisd. Which was quite appropriate, for they, too, were

Detroit Journal: Truth is mighty, mere Washington Star: "Why did that young man leave no suddenly?" nsked Maud. "It was my fault," answered Mamle. "I thoughtlessly got to talking about the beautiful automn haze by the river. I for-got he was a West Polut cadet"

other have, is often mighty

"What is your poll-

other answered the magnate. "I transaction-I buy in the cheapest

Indianapolis Press: "Whiles?" asked the Interviewer market.

"I have none." answered the deal with politics the same as | llint for Bill Makers. Indianapolis Press. The usual pure-butter, pure-food, puredrugs and pure-beer bills will now come up among various legislatures. The whole field Whoseever selleth a thing for that which was inaugurated as governor of the Bay It is not, shall be taken before the elders state in 1851, when only 23 years old.

An Effective Threat. Minneapolis Tribune

army bill, declared that if he could not flect credit upon his state." Point he would dismantle the school and tion of youth for military purposes. And a good many people throughout the country

> Travesty on Democracy. Portland Oregonian

The devil and the deep sea, between which the other by McKinley. Since Grover is a of the four corners. democrat, where on earth did he ever learn essence of its nature.

Halting the Dogs of War. Philadelphia Times

We are not going to war with Venezuela

Fifteen Months.

Boston Transcript

while it ends on June 30, the engagements

It will be observed that the average of casualties was about two per engagement, but averages are deceptive in this respect.

much as scratched. Thus, from June 26 to June 30 there were fifteen actions fought and five wounded. In thirteen of these not a single American soldier was killed.

ent in any one of these engagements was four companies of infantry. The heaviest losses we have sustained were in the earlier any one point sustained by our troops after that time up to June 30 last was in the wounded, but pluckily held out until it

Judged by the casualties alone, the was relieved.

side of the dying queen.

kick is not proscribed to anyone under our glorious government.

Senator Allison deftly expressed the feelings of the American people in the neatly worded resolution adopted by the United States senate on learning of the death of Queen Victoria.

A Nebraska man who removed to Utah succeeded in being elected senator, while those who remained in their old home are waiting with their lightning rods up. You cannot lose a Nebraska man.

Nebraska railroad men each and all declare that freight rates are strictly maintained. Someone please put up the shade in order that the winks of some of the large shippers cannot be observed.

Shepherd and cowboy have grappled in a final struggle for control of the range on government land. Their differences will likely result in government leasing without the ald or consent of either.

Bill Oldham is not hunting the octopus in the name of Nebraska, but he gets lots of consolation out of furnishing aid and comfort to the fusion members of the legislative committees on privileges and elections.

and loss of the Spanish market, the damage by hurricane and floods, the de-A clean majority of 100 votes in the legislature for Robert J. Gamble to be pression in coffee and the cutting off of the Cuban market for tobacco, alto-United States senator from South Dakota is a reasonable indication of the gether left the island bare of means and estimate put on the public services of resources. R. Franklin Pettigrew by his fellow | The great need of Porto Rico is rail-citizens.

Ex-Secretary Porter insists that he cultivated. General Stone suggested purchased the carpets and had the that all congressional restrictions upon papering of the senate and house cham- franchises and investments in Porto bers done at the most economical figure Rico be abolished and the island govpossible. If this is the case there is no ernment left as free to invite capital as reason why he should object to an in- any state government in the union. The vestigation.

The Board of Education should avoid secrecy in discussing the tax levy. Property owners have every right to know why they are taxed and should be given all possible information by the board. Secret debates will excite suspicion rather than confidence.

The popocratic members of the legislature and popocratic statesmen who think a pair of senatorial shoes will just ommended that no franchises be fit their feet might as well abandon granted, but that the work, such as rallhopes of catching the republican members napping. The next senators from and be subject to such regulations as Nebraska will be republicans.

The fusion members of the legislature thorized to grant franchises, subject to might trade off complimentary votes for the approval of congress, but this is a United States senator for sufficient round about method that involves delay tives has voted 114 to 1 in favor of an of it, but as it is, our forces, broken up into funds to meet the deficit in the accounts and consequently franchises are not of the popocratic committee. The only sought. difficulty is there are not enough of . It would seem that the executive coun-them to realize extensively on.

agricultural sections.

Roy Stone, presented a very gloomy ac-American investors in British governcount of the conditions in Porto Rico. ment bonds have received a rude jar by He said that great distress exists in the the action of the government at London so radically from the earlier ones as to he is not a senator or a member of conisland and that the laboring people are in levying a 5 per cent income tax impair the value of the data. leaving it. The trouble appears to be against the interest to be paid the holdthat capital has not been attracted to ers. This takes away much of the atdevelop the industries and communicatractiveness of the "khaki" loan for for there were many actions in which not tions of the island. General Stone stated moneyed men on this side. They may an officer or a man on our side was as may be a most worthy citizen; in fact, the that the withdrawal of Spanish capital be willing to loan to John Bull, but object to contributing toward his support.

The Venezuelans are reported to be getting impudent and totally ignore the and in eleven we had neither officer nor rights of United States investors in that man wounded. These were the pettiest of becomes a law there will be two prececountry. The people of that country skirmishes. The largest force we had pres- dents for taking care of disabled congressshould take notice that the Scorpion Is roads. For want of an outlet to market only a dwarf in the navy of this counthree-fourths of the island remains untry and if some of the larger sizes are stages of hostilities and casualties began sent down there the people in the coast to show a rapid diminution after the breakcities are liable to think another earth- ing up of Aguinaldo's army in the camquake has visited them.

When the Arbuckle Bros, have exhausted all other means to compel their defense of Catubig by a feeble garrison rivals in the sugar business to produce which had eighteen men killed and five their books they should apply to the late lamented Nebraska trust smasher. phenomenal success in getting at the a great power has been engaged in in this books of the Standard Oil company still stands as a record in this line.

it could not find the basis on which they Kansas women are apparently not in could be sold, for no one knew their clined to allow the eyes of the nation to as it is, goes on, and operations continue worth. The commission therefore reclong be turned from their state. Between Mrs. Nation's personally conducted saloon-wrecking expedition and moment, either in intelligence or fighting roads, be done under the general laws Mrs. Lease's final determination to se- power, to the Boers, yet as the latter keep cure a divorce, they are likely to occupy 200,000 British soldiers busy, so the inthe government might determine. The the center of the public stage for a day executive council of Porto Rico is au-

at least.

The Minnesota house of representaamendment to the federal constitution over 400 garrisons, scurry hither providing for the election of senators thither after small and elusive bands. cil might safely be allowed full responsi- nesota legislature is now engaged in the innocent-appearing countrymen the next.

in coal. Bees for sale. merely to see that things are done lawfully. Sepator Hale of Maine is quite and if any American interests are illegally minded at times. "Boy," said he the other afternoon to a cloakroom attendant, "have This is entirely right. There never could you seen my rubbers ?" "Yes, sir," anhave been justification for threatening anyswered the boy. "Where are they "" seem to acknowledge now that they raised your feet, sir," said the lad gravely. The a great rumpus without reason, and this time is spent at dinner in fashionable soclety. He thinks forty-five minutes is ample for such functions.

The new king of Italy has begun war against the "personal" journalists. These gentry have so angered him by their persecution and the publication of private domestic details in the life of himself and the queen that he has given orders that no information of any kind shall be given to them from the palace. He has also formitted the other day a chronological list bidden the police to say anything about of actions in the Philippines, with losses, his movements, except when they are a matter of public concern. 1990. VICIOUS PRECEDENT FOLLOWED.

> An Open Door for Congressional Pensions.

Baltimore American When the bill to place Congressman

Boutelle on the retired list of the navy Then she got balky and, taking the bit in opinion that it was a vicious precedent, that from February 4, 1899, to June 30, 1900, which would be speedily employed by con- her teeth, ran straight across the street the casualties aggregated thirty-three of- gress. The country has not had long to and tried to climb a tree. That's about all I remember.

Mr. Norton's head was protected by a and a continuation of good prices for the and 2.076 men wounded. The list of these ican's prediction. The senate passed a 1.213 actions is worth studying, as bear- bill yesterday to pension Horatio N. Davis, tail silk hat and that, he says, saved his ing on both the past and present of the the father of the late Senator Davis, at the life. His forchead was cut to the bone, his milliary situation in the Philippines, for rate of $50 a month. That he was not nose skinned and his legs twisted. He lay placed on the retired list of the army in pain all night at a downtown hotel and of the last six months have not differed or navy is probably due to the fact that the next day crawled about with patches on his brow and splints on his legs. His goatee was uninjured and, as he nervously The senate may have been disingress. tugged away at that, he said: "All hall the Will driv clined to push this system of rewards too far, while it was a novelty to the public. horse, man's trusty friend, the horse!"

Fifty dollars a month is not a large sum, and the father of Cushman K. Davis The defeat of Senator Chandler of New Hampshire for re-election lets loose colpossession of such an illustrious son is ums of gossip and stories about his public prima facie evidence that he is worthy of career and characteristics. The New York with aggregate casualties of two men killed every legal and proper consideration. The World correspondent says of him: No man principle underlying this and the Boutelle of quicker wit and readier tongue has case is wholly vicious, and unless checked been in the senate for years than Mr. Chandler, just defeated in New Hampshire. at once must lead to disaster. If this Bill His remarks in debate, whether applied to friend or foe, were almost invariably sarmen and their relatives. If congressmen castle and blting. In more recent years they can clog up the retired lists of the he was known as "the wasp." Senator Vest. navy and army to the detriment of those himself somewhat vitriolic, gave Chandler who have given lifetime devotion to their this name. country in those services, or if the fathers | . The chamminess between Chandler and of congressmen, they can swell the pension Tillman has long been a subject of comlist of the government. paign waged so vigorously in November ment. and December, 1899. The heaviest loss at wave the "bloody shirt" in Tillman's face. The theory upon which these bills have Then Tillman would rise up in his wrath passed is altogether wrong, and it is more than probable that many of those who voted and cut loose. Chandler would slash Tillfor them know this perfectly well. Con- man and the two would appear on the point It's worth gress is given power by the constitution of having a personal encounter. After the passage-at-arms had ended they to make appropriations, not for the pur-leave the senate chamber arm in arm pose of rewarding its own members or the relatives of deceased members, but for the Orren they would spend the evening to-C. J. Smyth, for assistance. His in the Philippines is one of the patricest proper conduct of the government. Sen- gether and frequently were seen in the ators are the representatives of the states. When they resign they send their resigna gether generation. It has been for some months tions to the governors of the states which but the brushing aside of guerrilla bands, each one of which is annoying and each one they represent and to no other authority They are peculiarly the agents of of which does not tarry a moment after it states, and it is to the states they should receives one volley. Yet the fighting, such mity. look for any rewards for faithful service to rub Mr. Gallinger's fur the wrong way. inconclusive for the very reason that there or for the care of their relatives after they One time the president nominated a resiare dead, should such care be deemed necesis no organized army for us to strike. The The members of the house are the insurgents are not to be compared for a EATY. representatives of the people and congress indorsed this man for another position and should leave it to the people to extend fought his confirmation as postmaster. This any special privileges that may be consid- was enough for Chandler, and he procesurgents give over 74,000 men plenty of to support the man and have fun with his ered proper.

There are 75,000,000 of people in this employment. "An active life they lead who colleague Chandler had a photograph of Gallinger have such neighbors near." Were there ountry who are neither senators nor representatives. They help to pay the taxes and the nominee for postmaster enlarged, in the Philippines an organized army opposing us we could soon make short work with which the expenses of the government are defrayed. They ought to be the first tive session of the senate. It represented care of congress in the performance of its Mr. Gallinger scaled, with the nomines and constitutional duties, and it is a poor ex- standing beside him, with his hand reposby direct vote of the people. The Min-know it, and are guerrillas one day and building up a costly system of rewards Chandler used this mammoth photograph for congressmen and their relatives. to prove how cordial were the relations be-war

Pretoria." said a senator to Secretary Hay. I don't suppose he has been able to save much of his salary out there, where living interesting.

expenses are so high?" Cleveland Plain Dealer: "Yes, the council "Save out of his salary!" replied the seccommittee has called for a secret session o consider a number of bills." "I'll bet a horse they are bank bills." retary laughingly. "Let me tell you something. I was counting up the other day senator, by the way, says that far too much and I found that it has required exactly his salary and mine to keep the young man

Chicage Tribune: With a howl of agony the capitalist, who had just turned out the gas preparatory to refiring to rest, sat down on the carpeted floor and pulled some-thing out of the sole of his bare foot. "And yet," he groened, "they call me a tacksdodger!" at his post of duty.' Perhaps it will be just as well for the newspapers not to say anything more, in thise case at least, about putting the sors of high officials at the public crib. Pictures and jokes of automobiles climbing trees have amused Congressman J. A.

Norton of Tiffin, O., but just now the humor of the idea does not entertain him at all. The sudden change came about just before the holiday recess of congress, says a Washington letter, and during that little revolution of his opinion there was a mcment or two when the good-looking demorat from the president's state thought death was as near as Christmas. He was

Detroit Journal: "I am told Dickens is a nousehold word in America." "Well, in my opinion, dickens is hardly trong enough a word to serve the purbeing borne along a fashionable street strong proudly by an automobile when the accicoses of the average household in Amerdent happened. "Suddenly," he said, describing it, "I fel something inside the blamed thing give way.

Philadelphia Press: Mr. Gaswell-I sup-pose you know that cork legs are not really made of cork. Mr. Dukane-What are they made of " "I am told that they are made of rubber." "I suppose that is to facilitate the leg-million overation."

ulling operation.

WORTH OF A SMILE.

Taltimore American

The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while. That costs the least, and does the most, is just a pleasant smile. The smile that bubbles from a heart that

ves its fellow

Will drive away the clouds of gloom and coax the sun again. It's full of worth, and goodness, too, with manly kindness blont-It's worth a million dollars, and it doesn't cost a cent. There is no room for andness when we see cheery smile a cheery smile-It always has the same good look-it's never out of style-It nerves us on to try again, when failure makes us blue; The dimples of encouragement are good for me and y

It pays a higher interest, for it is merely It's worth a million dollars, and it doesn't

A smile comes very easy-you can wrinkle up with cheer A hundred times before you can squeeze out a sorgy tear. noreover, to the hearistrings Nothing so delighted Chandler as to that will tug.

always leaves an echo that is very And. like a hug. smile away. Folks understand what by So, smil a smile is meant, worth a million dollars, and it doesn't cost a cent.

GOLDEN ROD AN OMAIIA OIL CORPORATION COMPANY

would

Not the oldest, nor the greatest, but one f the SAFEST INVESTMENTS offered in the California oil business la

THE PREFERRED STOCK

of this company, which is offered now at a low price, subject to advance on compleeded tion of well No. 2, which is now started. character and business standing of is five Omaha and four Los Angeles directors assure wise and careful management. and one day produced it during an execu-

OUR PROSPECTUS

with names of officers and directors, man and full particulars, will be sent you for the asking.

JOHN G. CORTELYOU, Pres. 1911 Davenport St. - Omaha, Neb.

public streets taking bicycle exercise to Chandler always kept his colleague, Gallinger, on the verge of open hostility, the and a portion of the time in actual en-He never neglected an opportunity

