Four thousand dollars cash have been added to the auditorium building fund during the first three days of this week and $6.000 more is promised before Saturday afternoon. This brings the total amount of the fund up to $112,322. The board of auditorium directors, which held a meeting yesterday noon, expressed itself as highly pleased with this showing. Everything indicates now that "auditorium week" will be the banner week thus far in the matter of subscriptions and collections.

> Last year the company's stock was assessed at $40,000, which was an increase of $10. 000 over the assessment for previous years. For 1901 the tax commissioner has placed the assessment at $48,000 and the firm is seeking to have this amount reduced $15,000.

> There is much contention over the amount of taxes to be paid by factories which have branch houses in Omaha and keep large stocks in the city. Mr. Fleming has increased the assessments on nearly all firmof this sort. In some cases these companies have made reports to the city and assessments equitably.
