

WOMAN'S LIFE

Is a succession of weakening experiences. A beautiful girl should grow into a beautiful, mature woman, but treated by an ignorant, inexperienced physician, she is told all the pains are natural and belong to her sex. This is not so. The creator made man and woman well and strong. It is ignorance and neglect that has changed all this. A SLIGHT DERANGEMENT should not be neglected. It will LEAD TO SERIOUS RESULTS.

REORGANIZING THE ARMY

President and Department Are Preparing for New Law's Execution.

MANY RECRUITS NEEDED IMMEDIATELY

Applicants for Appointments Are More Numerous and Executive Will Be Kept Busy Selecting the 1,500 Officers.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—There will be no delay at the War department in executing the army reorganization law. The reorganization scheme engrossed almost the entire attention of the military authorities today and the result will be officially promulgated in general orders as soon as the bill shall have been signed by the president. The matters which will receive the earliest attention will be appointment of general and field officers and the recruiting of the ten regiments authorized. The recruiting stations have been established at all centers of population and all available officers have been assigned to recruiting duty. There is an immediate demand for at least 5,000 recruits to meet deficiencies in the Philippines caused by the necessary discharge of the entire volunteer force June 30 at the latest. All the principal appointments provided for in the bill have been decided by the president. A list of these nominations has been made out at the War department and will be submitted to the senate without delay.

Local Realty Market

Farm lands are now selling at prices recently and some has gone at very low figures. As to the demand for homes, it is significant that buyers want the best. Any defect in construction, in design or in location makes a house hard to sell. "At the same time," said A. J. and says, "we don't find any willingness to pay for all these advantages."

Law as to Tenants.

"Under the Nebraska law," said Judge Lytle, "an ordinary monthly tenancy, after the first twelve months, becomes a yearly tenancy and a notice of one year is necessary before either landlord or tenant can terminate it."

This is a point of law which is not commonly known. A tenant who pays his rent monthly usually expects that he may be evicted if the owner wishes to put him out or to raise his rent; and, on the other hand, if a tenant leaves without notifying his intention one month in advance the landlord considers himself entitled to rent for the month and in some cases attempts to collect it. And during the first year of a tenancy thirty days' notice is all that can be required on either side.

The Nebraska statutes, as they stand at present, do not specifically provide for the termination of a tenancy and the yearly lease rests on supreme court decisions. Real estate men say this is not as it ought to be. Probably through ignorance of their rights, neither landlord nor tenant is accustomed to demand more than thirty days' notice, even when entitled to it. At the same time there is always the possibility of a dispute arising and with the law as it is now there is little doubt that the tenant who is not a claimant for possession until the year is out, or a claimant for a month, could sustain a claim for rent to the end of the year, in every case where the tenancy had existed for a period of more than twelve months.

Any alteration in the terms of the tenancy before the expiration of the first year creates a new tenancy from the date of the change and, knowing this, it is the custom of some landlords to increase or lower a tenant's rent or in some other way change the form of agreement in order to keep the tenancy on a monthly basis. Sometimes the tenant is asked to sign a lease, in which it is stipulated that a month's notice on either side shall be required and in this way the object is achieved.

Under the present conditions, however,

House Passes Measure for Reimbursement of Southerners.

MANY CLAIMS AGGREGATING $344,480

Most of Them for Stores and Supplies Taken by the Union Army During the Rebellion—Opposition Overcome.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The house today passed an omnibus bill carrying 191 claims for stores and supplies taken by the union army during the rebellion. The claims were passed on by the court of claims and aggregated $344,480. Practically all the beneficiaries reside in the south. Considerable opposition to the bill was displayed in the day under the leadership of Mr. Cannon, the chairman of the appropriations committee, but it flattened out later and the bill finally was passed without division.

Mr. Southard of Ohio, chairman of the committee on claims, tonight announced that the bill to establish a national standardizing bureau, which should have custody of the standards and furnish information to any educational institution, firm, corporation or individual in the United States. After some discussion it was agreed that the bill should be made a continuing order after the disposal of the bill to promote the efficiency of the revenue cutter service. The senate bill to appropriate $50,000 for the purchase and construction of a revenue cutter for Boston harbor was passed.

A bill to regulate the coming of Chinese persons into the country created some discussion. Mr. Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, said the bill had been prepared by the attorney general to prevent the fraudulent entry of Chinese laborers, by giving the government, as well as the Chinamen, the right to appeal from the decision of the United States commission. Mr. Hitt said that he himself did not believe the Chinese exclusion act was a just law, because it was passed in violation of treaties, but the law was on the statute books and it was the duty of every citizen to uphold it. The bill was passed.

SHIPPING BILL HAS ITS DAY

Inspires General Debate in the Senate and Comes Up Again Saturday Morning.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The shipping bill was kept steadily at the front in the senate today and in order to further expedite its progress a motion was agreed to for a session beginning at 11 a. m. on Saturday morning. The bill was taken up by Mr. Morgan of Alabama, who occupied most of the time today in speeches of vigorous opposition. Toward the close of the day a spirited discussion was precipitated by an amendment of Senator Rawls of Georgia, proposing to link the Nicaragua canal bill with the shipping bill. The proposition was strongly opposed by Mr. Frye and Mr. Chandler, as calculated to embarrass and delay the shipping bill. Mr. Frye argued that it was not fair to permit the majority to force a debate, to assume its responsibilities, as a majority, of passing the shipping bill. Messrs. Jones of Arkansas and Teller of Colorado took a hand in the discussion, insisting that there should be no limitation of debate. Mr. Morgan of Alabama, in charge of the Nicaragua canal bill, expressed disapproval of the plan for linking the canal measure with the shipping bill, saying each should stand on its own merits. Mr. Rawls contended that his bill would be met by similar subsidies by other nations. So far as the public is concerned

THE MONEY APPROPRIATED BY THIS BILL MIGHT BE CAST INTO THE SEA.

Mr. Berry of Arkansas next took the floor for the third time in the day. Mr. Bacon of Georgia made the point of the absence of a quorum, saying that only fourteen senators were present and only four of them republicans. Fifty-nine senators are needed to their amendment to the measure had been presented during his service in congress which so openly and flagrantly disregarded the principles of equity and gave to a combination of wealthy interests millions of millions of the public money. He criticized the manner in which this bill was drawn up by a committee composed chiefly of ship owners who would be benefited.

A memorial from the legislature of Porto Rico, praying for the improvement of San Juan harbor was presented by the chair. A question was raised as to whether the document should be read. Mr. Hear expressed the opinion that as the Porto Rico is the first received from the Porto Rico it is an air-tight envelope, a rubber-stamped envelope, and it is not a matter of public interest. The memorial was laid before the senate and referred to the committee on commerce.

Count of Electoral Vote.

The senate agreed to the house amendments to the resolution providing for the holding of the election of a public building at West Superior, Wis. Mr. Allison reported the District of Columbia appropriation bill and gave notice that he would ask the senate to consider it next Monday. He thought it would be well to displace the shipping bill with appropriation bills. This is what the opponents of the shipping bill desire. It has been suggested that a caucus should be held to determine if it is true, as claimed, that a number of republican senators are opposed to the shipping bill, but it is not fully decided upon. Opposition to an extra session of congress is becoming very pronounced among republican senators.

Mr. Gallinger presented a resolution providing for a joint committee to be composed of the chairman of the senate committee on persons and the house committee on invalid pensions, to make careful inquiry into the question of special pension bills. The latter declared that the scope of congressional action in such matters has been overestimated entirely and that under the present practice a pension bureau is being established under the dome of the capitol. He said that in the present senate there would be 217 special pension bills in the senate and that with the general bills and the house bills the senate pension committee had been asked so far to take up about 3,000 bills. Mr. Gallinger presented a resolution that the business already as large as the committees could handle well. The resolution was referred to the committee on pensions.

General Activity in Omaha and Vicinity.

There is also the danger that the tenant will be the sufferer, for it is possible that when in any case a rent is reserved payable for from six to twelve months after he has vacated them.

In Iowa the law on this point is very specific, and it is held by some real estate agents that it would satisfy many of the cases which the Nebraska law covers on the same basis. The wording of the Iowa law is: "Thirty days' notice in writing is necessary to be given by either party before he can terminate a tenancy at will; but when in any case a rent is reserved payable at intervals of less than thirty days, the length of notice need not be greater than such interval between the days of payment."

Street Car Extension Prospects.

Members of the Prospect Hill Improvement club are rejoicing that the plan of assessment for the opening up of Thirtieth street from Cass to Burt was passed by the city council at its meeting last Tuesday. This is only a small step forward, but they point out that no opposition is developing and that there is every probability of a street car extension on North Thirtieth street, as far as the cemetery, within a very short time. The Prospect Hill Improvement club will meet the organization of the Southwest Improvement club to meet with them on Wednesday evening at their headquarters, at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth, for an interchange of ideas.

Auction Sales a Fixture.

That auction sales will become a regular feature of the weekly meetings of the Real Estate exchange, is the opinion of all who were present last Wednesday. More than one member talks of offering a lot, or a house, and it is probable that within a week or two a number of sales will be conducted. There has been much talk of the first experiment during the last few days and the feeling is general that it was a complete success.

Two Separate Firms.

Peter Potter & Deyer Sholes have decided that the real estate firm known as the Potter-Sholes company shall cease to exist. In future it will be Potter & Co. and Sholes & Co. The two new firms will occupy different rooms on the same floor of the building in which they have been located together and the head of each intends to take a son into the business with him.
