Cost of Education in Omaha Compares Pavorably With Cost in Other Cities, According to Official Report.

Since the charge of extravagance was brought against the Board of Education by a committee from the Commercial club the members of the board have been engaged in collecting data concerning expenditures for previous years and the amount of money which other cities the size of Omaha expead in maintaining their schools. A spccial meeting of the board was held yesterday afternoon and the following statement.

Average ... $221.471 Average ... $244.471 Average per child average per chil day afternoon and the following statement

These figures have been prepared in view of a demand made by some persons that the tax levy proposed to be asked for by talls board be largely reduced, and the statement made, the members of the board think, by persons not very well informed think, by persons not very well informed in the matter that running expenses could be largely reduced.

In the matter that running expenses could be largely reduced.

Those who read these figures may be interested to remember that W. S. Pappleton was a member of the Board of Education for all except the last few months of the four years aret quoted, those ending with June. 1883, the four years when expenditures seem to have been somewhat free, at least when compared with those made by the board during the four years last past.

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER.

He Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent cities by too close attention to a good lift by a big contribution. The business, too little exercise and too many club dinners. finally began to pay nature's tax, levied in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous irritability making it impossible to a relability making it impossible to apply himself to his daily business and finally deranging the kidneys and heart.

In his own words he says: "I consulted one physician after another and each one seemed to understand my case, but all the same they each falled to bring about the return of my former digestion, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium to another, I gave up smoking. I quit coffee and even renounced my daily glass or two of beer, but without any marked improvement.

"Friends had often advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy but never took any stock in advertised medicines nor could believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch my case.

"To make a long story short, I finally bought a couple of packages at the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal and occasionally a tablet between meals, when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort.

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health and before the two packages were gone I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure completely and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and cigar and no one would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia.

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy asking for information as to what the tablets contained and they replied that the principal ingredients were aseptic pepsin (government test) malt diastase and other natural digestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach."

The root of the matter is this the digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from fcod; stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength, they gave a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction, Every drop of blood, every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of so good and wholesome a remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nerve tonics and sanitariums. Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years yet probably every druggist in the United States Canada and Great Britain now sells them and considers them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach troubles.

Mr. Poppleton and his associates enjoyed during their administration. This expeats further why now it is necessary to raise more of the school fund by taxation. Some question has been raised about the same paid junitors. Some figures follow:

| 1891-92 23,718    | 1596-97 829,2911597-98 27,1651898-99 12,9771899-1999 28,826 |

Mr. Poppleton and his associates actually paid out for junitors $3.887 per year more than has been paid per year for the last four years, though during the last four years. The part cent, more children have been cared for. The last four years the board has provided junitor service for $1.17 less per child than was paid during Mr. Poppleton's time, a reduction in cost of $20 per cent.

calaries paid for Instruction. Some figures

Figures Are Submitted.

The Board of Education has had the following figures prepared for the information of its members and of the public. The last four school years, ending June 20, 1990, are compared with the four years ending June 20, 1990, are the four years ending June 20, 199 four years, $7.29. four years, $8.44.

$76,514 1896-97 92,620 1897-96 68,938 1898-99 42,962 1899-1900

These figures show that while Mr. Poppleston and his associates had $19.22 more perchild from other sources than taxation to spend apon the schools they collected each year from the people in taxes only $1.22 less than the board has received per year from taxes during the last four years. Some comparative figures may be interesting as between different cities. The fossiowing are based upon the form of financial statement recommended by the National Education association for use in all city school systems as the fairest for purposes systems as the fairest for purposes of comparison.

The reports upon which these figures are based are in the possession of the Board of Education. In most cases they are in writing made direct to us by the school authorities of those cities. In a few cases the last published annual report at hand has been used. The following list includes all cities between 20,000 and 200,000 population, reports from which are available gither made direct to us or as regularly issued in printed form. Most reports are for the school year ending with the summer of 1800, though in some cases a printed report of an earlier date has been used where nothing later was available.

AMUSEMENTS.

Field's Minstrels-Al G. Field was the attraction at Boyd's theater Saturday afternoon and evening. It was the occasion of the celebrated minstrel's annual visit to Omaha and he came accompanied by a company of capable artists, but it was for Al himself that the warm applause of the two large audiences was reserved and he made himself as entertaining as one could wish of a favored 5.60 guest. Mr. Field's performance differs not 10.00 a great deal from the ordinary minstrel entertainment. His singers have new songs 100.00 and his comedians new jokes, but the show is much like every minstrel performance-.$118,577.62 and that means that for a large clientele it fills a niche in their estimation which nothing else can fit. A decidedly interesting and novel finale is introduced by the appearance of a tribe of Moorish Mamelukes in sports, pastimes and games peculiar to the Orient. Their performance Mrs. F. H. One hundred years ago tomerrow John Marshall entered upon his duties as chief justice of the supreme court of the United States. For thirty-four years he filled the office with so much wisdom and judgment that he was accorded first place among the jurists of the new world, a position which seems more zecure as years pass by and sive further opportunity for the study of his sive further opportunity for the study of his sive further opportunity for the study of his I made up my mind soon after graduatjurists of the new world, a position which seems more secure as years pass by and give further opportunity for the study of his decisions.

Congress has honored soldiers and statesmen by designating certain days which are to be observed in commemoration of their deeds. Marshall was both a soldier and a statesman. He served with distinction in the revolutionary war.

He was an influential member of the Virginia legislature and distinguished himself as congressman from Virginia. He was appointed secretary of war by President Adams, but before he assumed his duties was placed at the head of the State department. It is as a jurist, however, that he will always be remembered. John Marshall is the ideal of every young autorney and the # Associate Diseases In curing an ailment of any kind we never fall to remove all reflex complications or associate diseases. If the case is Varicoccie, the weakness caused by it disappears. It is in stricture and has developed into Prestatic, Bladder or Kidney affections, the injured organs are all restored to a perfectly healthy condition. If it is Contagious Blood Polson, any and all Skin, Blood and Bone Diseases arising from the taint are entirely and permanently eliminated from the system. If it is impotency the many distressing symptoms following in its train and indicating a premature decline of physical, mental and sexual power are totally removed and rapidly replaced by the youthful energy of robust manhood. Hence all the resulting ills and reflex complications, which may be properly termed associate diseases, and which, in fect, are often more serious than the original allmost that gives rise to them—all, we say, disappear completely and forever with the cure of the main malady.
