considerable surprise, but if there is anything in street talk both democrats and republicans would like to see Mr. Brennan make the race. By his actions since he has been a member of the board, Brennan has managed to gain the ill will of not only his democratic friends, but also of the republicans. Tom Hoctor gives it out that if Brennan gets the democratic nomination, which he is looking for, he will spend all kinds of money to defeat him. Speaking of Mr. Brennan, a member of the board said last night, that if it had not the board said last night, that if it had not been for the stubbornness of Brennan, who is secretary of the board, the High school project would have been much farther advanced, and there would be little or no exuse for renting outside rooms. As for Roberts, this member said, that he had no more show of being elected in case he sought a renomination than a ten-year oldold boy. On the streets, the talk is that Superintendent Wolfe, is saying that "It will be a straight business proposition all the time we are there," said Mr. Parsons, "and there won't be any papers read this time. Short talks in my opinion are of more value than
