Reception of the Sons of the American Revolution to the Daughters of the American Revolution.

In anticipation of the Lenten calm society indulged in a veritable whirl of galety last week, which promises to continue until the very last hour of Shrove Tuesday. Valentine's day was replete with appropriate affairs, chief among which was Cotillon glub's final party, which was the crowning success of its brilliant series this winter. Besides this there were numerous card parties, teas, luncheons and dinner parties. The dinner dance scheduled for Tuesday, which is to embrace a number of affairs, will be the feature of this week, but those who will not observe Lent have arranged a number of smaller affairs.

"How are you going to spend Lent?" is the question that is being asked among the fashionables, and the numerous clubs of various kinds will furnish the answer in

Already society is being attracted to the fashionable winter resorts where the social season is at its height, and not a few prominent Omaha people will visit these places during the next six weeks. A number of affairs for charity have also been planned, the arrangements for which will son shortly be commenced, but gossip has it that the most interesting preparations of all will not be for charity, but rather for at least two events of the most absorbing interest in fashionable circles.

Weddings and Engagements. The marriage of Miss Katherine Donaldson and Mr. Cox will occur at 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The wedding of Miss Bertha Day Lockwood and Mr. E. Norman Bayne is announced to occur at St. Bartholmew's church, New York, March 16. Mr. Bayne to well known in Omaha, this having formerly been his home. Miss Susie Bradley of this city and Mr. Charles B. Gibbon of St. Louis were quietly married Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. John's church. They left immediately for St. Louis, where they will make their future home.

Cards have been received in Omaha announcing the marriage of Miss Rose Marie Shelby and Dr. Frederick John Schmoldt, which occurred in Clevefand, O., on Monday, Pebruary 11. Miss Shelby is the daughter of Mr. P. P. Shelby, formerly a well known resident of Omaha.

The engagement of Mr. Fred White of Omaha and Miss Sue Spalding of Sloux City was announced there on Saturday, a week ago, at a luncheon given by Mrs. George Avery, Miss Spalding's sister. Miss Spalding has been the guest of Mrs. J. E. White in Omaha during the last week and on Friday they and Mr. White went ment dinner given in their honor that evening by Mrs. Louis Marshall, Mr. White's sister. Miss Spalding is a daughter of Mr. J. D. Spaiding, one of Sloux City's most prominent residents. The wedding is to occur the latter part of April.

One of the pretty weddings of the winter was that of Mr. George Will Manchester and Miss Eleanor Gertrude Gregg, which occurred at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening at All Saints' church. An effective arrangement of palms and southern smilax was the only decoration of the church. There were about 200 guests present. Mr. Harry Cockrell and Mr. Paul Burleigh were the ushers. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered, the full vested choir in advance singing the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." The officiating clergyman, Rev. T. J. Mackay, followed and immediately behind him the two ushers. Miss Gregg, a sister of the bride, was maid of henor, gowned in lavender crepe de chine and carrying a shower of frigia. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tucked city missionary, Miss Magee, that Omaha mull over white taffeta, over which hung a long tulle veil. She carried a shower of these classes, such doubts would have lillies of the valley. With her walked been entirely dispelled by the scene pre-Mr. C. G. Baker. The groom and his best man, Mr. Frank Manchester, met them at chancel steps, they proceeding together to the alter, where the impressive Episcopal marriage service was read, Mr. Baker giving the bride away. After the wedding a small reception and supper was by the Woman's Christian Temperance given the bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Manchester, 2717 Jackson street, where, as at the church, the decoration was of palms and southern smilax. Mr. and Mrs. Manchester have gone for an extended trip through California and the west and will be at home after March 1 at the Bachelors.

The marriage of Mr. F. W. Clarke and Mrs. Olive Davenport was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening at the home of the bride's father, Mr. C. F. Weller, 2102 Wirt street. Rev. Dr. Hirst of the First Methodist church officiated, the ceremony being witnessed by only the family

You may know something of the "grip"-may have felt all its miseries, experienced the weakness and had a mouth full of bad taste, yet you know nothing of the history of the disease. Now gives some interesting facts concerning the grip and it's about the only book that does.

Fact is

there are mighty few things that have escaped the editors of that work. If interested, call and see a copy. Take one home for $7.00.
