

Drunkards Easily Cured

Miss Edith Williams Wants Every Lady Reader of this Paper to Know How She Saved Her Father.

Used an Odorless and Tasteless Remedy in His Food Quickly Curing Him Without His Knowledge.

Nothing could be more dramatic or de- Williams, box 30, Waynesville, Ohio, cured his drunken father after years of misery, wretchedness and almost unbearable suffering.

"Yes, father is a reformed man," she said, "and our friends think it a miracle that I cured him without his knowledge or consent. I had read how Mrs. Kate Lynch of 23 E. 11th street, San Francisco, Cal., had cured her husband by using a remedy secretly in his coffee and food and I wrote to Dr. Haines for a trial. When it came I put some in father's coffee and food and watched him closely, but he could not know the difference, so I kept it up. "One morning father got up and said he was hungry. This was a good sign, as he rarely ate much breakfast. He went away and when he came home at noon perfectly sober. I was almost frantic with joy, as I hadn't seen him sober for half a day before. He spent the afternoon as usual. After dinner he sat down in the big easy chair and said, 'Edith, I don't know what has come over me, but I hate the sight and smell of liquor and am going to stop drinking forever. This was too much for me and I told him then what I had done. Well, we both had a good cry, and now we have the happiest home and the kindest father you can imagine. I am so glad you will publish this experience, for it will reach many others and let them know about that wonderful Golden Specific." Dr. Haines, the discoverer, will send a sample of this grand remedy free to all who will write for it. Enough of the remedy is mailed free to show how it is used in tea, coffee or food and that it will cure the most intractable habits. Send your name and address to Dr. J. W. Haines, 327 Glenn building, Cincinnati, Ohio, and he will mail you a sample of the remedy to you, securely sealed in a plain wrapper, also full directions how to use it, books and testimonials from hundreds who have been cured and everything needed to aid you in your work. I am sure that you from a life of degradation and ultimate poverty and disgrace. Send for it free today. It will brighten the rest of your life.

OLEO CROWDS OUT THE SUBSIDY

Spencer Secures Change of Unfinished Business and Shipping Measure is Sidelined for the Day.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—In the absence of Mr. Frye, president pro tem, who is confined to his apartments by illness, Mr. Perkins of California occupied the chair at the opening of today's session of the senate. Mr. Jones of Arkansas offered a resolution discharging the committee on judiciary from the consideration of the so-called anti-trust bill and providing that it should be considered by the senate. The resolution went over until Monday. On motion of Mr. Allison the senate decided to consider until 1 o'clock the bills on the calendar. Under that order the following bills were passed: Referring to the court official claim, the claim of William E. Woodbridge for compensation for use by the United States of his invention relating to projectiles; permitting the transportation by steam vessels of gasoline and other products of petroleum when carried by motor vehicles, known as automobiles; when used as source of motive power; providing that it shall be a misdemeanor for a civilian to refuse to appear and testify before a military court-martial; authorizing the board of supervisors of Pima county, Arizona, to issue fifty-year 4 per cent bonds of Pima county, Arizona, to redeem certain bonded indebtedness not exceeding $147,000, but to include only local bonded indebtedness.

Sidelines the Subsidy.

At 1 o'clock the ship subsidy bill, as the unfinished business was laid before the senate. Mr. Spooner of Wisconsin demanded recognition and moved that the senate proceed to the consideration of what is known as the oleomargarine bill. The motion was agreed to, 43 to 2. Senators Clayton of Texas and Vest of Missouri cast the only votes in the negative. Mr. Hale of Maine appealed to Mr. Proctor "in view of the almost unanimous vote" by which the oleomargarine bill was taken up, to permit a vote to be taken upon the bill immediately. That a dozen demonstrators were in their feet at once, Mr. Berry, gaining recognition, said: "I want to say to the senator from Maine that the 'almost' unanimous vote" to take up the bill was not because the senate is unanimously in favor of it, but it was in order to get rid of, set aside and give a black eye to the ship subsidy bill.

Special Effort to Be Made to Raise the Fund to One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

The auditorium fund has now reached $122,065.22, subscriptions having come in at a lively rate the last week. Directors of the company believe that the time is ripe for making a special effort for subscriptions and no stone will be left unturned to raise the fund to $150,000—the amount determined to be raised before building operations begin. In working the new plan of districting the city for the solicitation of subscriptions the directors had themselves short about twenty-five solicitors. Speaking of this matter, Secretary Hooker said: "Each member of the board of directors has had a district assigned to him, but there are still about twenty-five districts for which we would like to have volunteers. We propose to make each of these volunteers the chairman of a committee of three, the other two to be selected by himself. In this way we believe the work can be pushed more rapidly than it otherwise could be. We shall be pleased to have all the volunteers meet with us on Monday at the Commercial club at 12:30, at which time the sub-committees appointed at last Monday's meeting are to make a report of the last week's work." The subscriptions up to date are as follows:

HOUSE PROGRESSES LITTLE

Richardson's Attempted Retaliations Against Cannon Delays Action on Sundry Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—In retaliation against the action of Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, yesterday, in filibustering against the passage of private claims, Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, today attempted to block the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill until a quorum was produced. When Mr. Cannon made the motion to go into committee of the whole to resume the consideration of the sundry civil bill Mr. Richardson demanded a division. The division showed less than 100 members present and Mr. Richardson made the point of no quorum.

CUSTARD PUDDINGS.

Are Dainty and Wholesome When Properly Made. Custards, a mixture of milk and eggs, may take a variety of forms and names.

Making a Baked Custard. Heat the milk to scalding point in double boiler. Beat together the quantity of eggs and sugar given in your recipe until smooth and creamy. Add a pinch of salt. Now pour the hot milk slowly over the eggs and sugar, beating constantly.

In baking puddings composed of milk and eggs a very great deal depends on the degree of heat applied and how. Baked custards require even a less number of eggs than the boiled. A custard may be made with but one egg and if slowly baked or steamed will be much nicer than one made richer with more eggs and cooked in too hot an oven.

All egg and milk custards should be cooked slowly and with moist heat. They are best when made in a china or porcelain dish and this dish set in a pan of hot water, which should be kept at steaming point.
