The Abbey Press has brought out a volme that is something out of the ordinary, a that it is a reprint of a book published in Connecticut in 1828. It tells the story of a mutiny on board the ship Globe of Nantucket, in the Pacific ocean, in 1824. The captain and all the officers were killed y the mutineers, who took command of the hip, steering it to the Mulgrave islands, where stores were landed and preparations made to abandon and burn the ship. Some of the sailors who were not concerned in the mutiny had no notion of remaining on the islands forever, away from their homes, and succeeded in escaping with the ship. leaving the ringleaders and the balance of the crew on the islands. The mutineers treated the natives with great cruelty, provoking them to such an extent that they massacred the whole party, with the exception of two sailors, who were protected by natives whom they had at different times befriended. These two sallors were eventually picked up by an American war vessel. which was sent out as soon as the Globe reached the United States and reported the

FRANCE AND RUSSIA OPPOSED TO IT

Take the Same Ground as the United States-No Reprisals tpon Chinese Except Where Necessary.

PARIS, Feb. 31.-The correspondent here of the Associated Press has excellent authority for the statement that Field Marshal Count von Waldersee's expedition will no start, as it is believed a decree will be published in Pekin today accepting the demands of the ministers. The expedition, therefore, will not be pecessary. Should the above information prove untrue it can be said upon the same authority it is most certain France and Russia will not participate in any punitive expeditions, as those nations have consistently, with the United States, opposed any military reprisals beyond those necessary to relieve the legations. The correspondent of the Associated Press is informed that the French minister of foreign affairs, M. Deicasse, is strongly opposed to the proposed military expedition

China Accedes to Demands. PEKIN, Feb. 21.-Prince Ching and L. It is still uncertain whether Mr. Conger's message marks the passage of this important phase of the Chinese question reintive to punishments, and the taking up of the questions of indemnity and guaranties. All depends upon whether the foreign min-Isters at Pekin have determined that the sentences above described must be executed as a priminary to further progress in the negotiations. It is surmised here that such is the case, though it is regarded as an unnecessary delay in the negotiations, which it is apparent to the official mind, must consume many weeks before the single question of indemnities can be cleared away. Apprehension on this score is based upon reports unofficial, but credible, indicating the purpose of the Germans to claim indemnities, which both in amount and in the method of payment would be far beyoud the ability of the Chinese to meet, unless the just claims of the other powers are

BRADSTREET'S FINANCIAL REVIEW Activity of Market Falls off and Re-

Not only did the activity of the stock market fall off this week, but reactionary tendencies asserted themselves in the movement of prices. Specialation was more professional than had been the case in the preceding fortnight and the traders, under the lead of some heavy operations, showed a willingness to act on the short side of the account. While the street revelved some little knowledge of the form which the pending amalgamation of steel manufacturing interests is to take and was assured that the negotiations are progressing smoothly, it was nevertheless unsettled by the absence of definite announcement in that connection and by the intimations that the financiers who had the matter in charge were disposed to curtail any chance for infinition in the capitalization of the expected $20.000.000 steel company. At the beginning of the week the steel stocks were all very strong on the prospect that Mr. Morgan would soon bring the negotiations to a successful conclusion. The preferred stocks of the steel industrial organizations were responding with particular readiness to these influences when it was brought to the preferred shares of these organizations would be treated, there was a desire on the part of the managers to make the terms regarding the exchange of the old stocks for the new ones on a basis which should have a regard for actual value and earning casacity.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.-This was another field day in the house. Two distinct sensations occurred. Early in the day, during the consideration of an amendment to the deficiency appropriation bill to prevent hazing at the naval academy, Mr. Henburn of lows used exceedingly strong language while inveighing against the pracof having, declaring that the large number of desertions from the army and the lack of men in the navy were due to the fact that American citizens refuse to serve under men 'wchooled in tyranny and oppression." Mr. Hepburn said he had a list of twenty-five vessels of the United States wrecked by incompetent officers since the close of the civil war. He declared that officers stood by each other and with but a solitary exception the commanders of these vessels were let off with slight punishment. He denounced hazing in unmeasured terms and said he wanted to see 11.2 a fixed and certain punishment for it.

Mr. Caunon of Illinois and Mr. Dayton of West Virginia warmly defended the attention the rest of the day.
