Odd Fellows' Building on Fourteenth Street Becomes the Property of

Inited Workmen The purchase of Odd Fellows' hall No. 3 by the Ancient Order of United Workmen Temple association has been completed and the organization is now in possession of the building, with the furniture and fixtures, at a price semewhat less than $16,000. The building was purchased from the Penn Mutual Life association for $15,000 and the furnishings from Odd Fellows' lodge No. 2 and a Chicago firm for about $1,000. By the terms of the contract the property is to be paid for in monthly installments as the money is received from assessments of stock The authorized capital of the temple association is $30,000, and it is the intention of the managers to dispose of $20,000 in stock of a par value of $6 per share, pay able monthly in assessments of 50 cents per share. One assessment of $1 per share was paid at the time of the purchase. It is the intention of the association to remodel the building so that the dining room and ball room can be used as a lodge room and thus increase the revenues of the association. Another phase of the purchase contem plates the removal of the grand lodge of the order from Grand Island to Omaha. The association believes that the lower rooms of the building can be utilized by
