There is a ledge on the Joe Dollar 1,000 feet long, which has an average value of over $100 per ton gold. The purchasers will erect a whim immediately and two Tremain mills or mills of that pattern will be put in this spring The contractors, who are to furnish 500 tons of spodumene ore from the Etta mine, one of the properties of the old Har nev Peak Tin company, are making regular delieveries of ore to the cars, it being shipped to New York City. This mine has a very large ledge of this sort of ore which commands a good price for its lithia values. There is activity again in the Two Bit district. The five Hardin mining companies have been consolidated into Redwater company and there is a good prospect that the original plans of promoters of this Two Bit deal will be consummated. Work has been resumed at the Chicago Two Bit shaft, which is already down 400 feet, and the entire Two Bit district will be explited from this shaft. The company proposes to carry out the
