exposition of the Auditorium company has made a plan for the arrangement of the booths in the building at Thirteenth and Harney streets to be occupied by the spring exposition. The plans will be found at the building and some of the spaces have been assigned, but the work of arranging the division of space will not be complete until the end of the week.

At the present time approximately 250 firms and corporations have signified their intention of taking space in the exposition and the local houses have not yet been thoroughly canvassed. These persons, however, have begun to take an active in terest in the matter and the superintendent finds that a third floor will have to be devoted to the exposition of goods and wares. Marshal Eby of Fort Crook tells this story: "I saw Callahan in Fort Crook with another man December 12 or 13, a little less than a week before the abduction. I took special notice of him at the time, as I considered him a suspicious character. I couldn't make out what his business was. The man who was with him I have since identified as Pat Crowe, though

I didn't know him at the time." Chief Donahue says he has no confidence in the report that Pat Crowe is in Bellevue. "Of course," he adds, "he is as likely to be there as any place else. I have cause to believe he was there a short time before the abduction, but if there is any good reason for thinking he is there now it hasn't been brought to my attention." Omaha's Sick Men.
