The crowd which did the smashing met on West Curtis street, about two blocks from the joint. The estimates of the number vary from thirty to sixty. At a few moments past 12 o'clock the crowd moved east on Curtis street to Jackson street. The wholesale ilquor house is a small frame building at the rear of Curtis' home, which faces on Curtis street. The crowd turned south on Jackson street and crossed the rear of the lots between the street and the liquor house. In one of the yards by a wood pile was a log a foot thick at the large end and about ten feet long. A half dozen men seized the log and used it as a battering ram. The men with the log rushed at the door and at the first blow the lock was broken, the door gave way and the crowd rushed in. At the first rush the lantern which the crowd carried was extinguished and the work was done in the Patrolman Boyles and Watchman Connor were called from the Union Pacific depot, two blocks away. Before the officers arrived thirty cases and two kegs had been smashed and the debris was scattered over the yard. When the officers arrived the crowd fell back to a ditch near Jackson street, where the leader succeeded in rallying the force. While the crowd was being driven back two or three shots were fired. When the crowd retreated to Jackson street the officers were near the building and Adams was between the officers and the crowd. When he was shot he fell by a pile of wood. Officer Boyles asserts that Adams was facing west and running toward the crowd when he was shot. When Adams fell the crowd thought he had tripped over the plie of wood. He did not rise and several ran to his assistance. He was carried to Jackson street. When the crowd found that one of the number had been wounded and was being taken to a hospital the members quickly dispersed.

Arrest Doctor and Preacher.

Officers Boyles and Downey arrested Dr. Mitchell and Rev. Mr. Emerson. The patrol wagon was called and Rev. Mr. Emersor was taken to the police station. When he reached the station the officers saw that his left hand was 'cut and bleeding. He was booked and at 3 o'clock was allowed to go to his home.

Chief Stahl was summoned from his home and went directly to the scene of the trouble, but did not arrive there until the crowd had left. When the crowd left the broken cases and the smashed beer bottles were carried into the building and a man stood guard near the building with a shotgun.

Speaking of the raid, Chief of Police Stahl said: "The other raids have been expected and I have had the officers posted. but that was a complete surprise. We had
