Calls for City Election It is asserted in some circles that the republican city central committee made an error in manning a call for the primaries and convention to be held the middle of March. The democrats drew their inspiration from the present Labcoln charter and culled for the nemination of all officials mentioned in the Lincoln charter. nation was taken for fear that the new South Omaha charter might not become a law in time to be effective this spring. Republicans, however, called for the election of four councilmen and three members of the Board of Education. The republican call provides for the nomination of any other officers or modification of offices mentioned as may be required by any change in the HOUR earner than closing time shown below.
