WILLIAM W. MARSH IS GONE

Prominent Omaha Citizen Expires in the Bahama Islands.

CABLEGRAM ANNOUNCES THE NEWS

With His Son, Allen, Had Been on a Trip for the Benefit of His Health—Busy and Eventful Career.

Captain William W. Marsh, president of the Omaha Street Railway company, died Tuesday at Nassau, Bahama islands. A cablegram received at the Union National bank about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon contained the brief statement that Captain Marsh was dead and that his son Allen would sail for New York at once with the remains.

Captain Marsh, accompanied by his son Allen, left Omaha about three months ago for an ocean trip that was expected to benefit the banker's failing health. For many years the captain had been suffering with consumption and it was thought that a change of climate and a long rest from the heavy business responsibilities that burdened him would restore him to health.

Suffered for Many Years. Captain Marsh had been a sufferer from lung troubles for many years, but the disorder became more acute while he was traveling in the Black Hills last fall. He went to Wyoming, hoping that the high altitude would benefit him, but the effect was rather the reverse.

After treating with local physicians for about three months he left January 15 upon the advice of one of them for Nassau, Bahama islands. He was accompanied by his youngest son, Allen, who has been writing home from time to time to keep the family advised as to his father's condition, and his last letter, which arrived Tuesday of this week, said that Captain Marsh's condition was not as good as when he arrived at Nassau. It held forth little hope of ultimate recovery.

An Early Settler. Captain William W. Marsh was a native of Vermont, where he was born October 14, 1822. He came to Nebraska in 1856, settling in Dakota county, where he secured a contract for carrying the United States mail on the Missouri river above Sioux city. He ended this contract in 1862 and moved to Omaha, where he became interested in the ferry between this city and Council Bluffs, and was superintendent of the Union Pacific Transfer company, which was operated until the opening of the Union Pacific bridge in 1871. When this company dissolved Captain Marsh bought the controlling interest in the

A NEW WOMAN

Noted Society Leader Becomes a New Woman. Others Will Follow Her.

Mrs. De Kitzon, a woman with a delicate constitution, but of late nervous weakness, combined with a severe cold, caused a complete collapse. All her duties and pleasures had to be set aside. Society mourned her and at her home all was dismal. Physicians were called, but did her no good. Mrs. De Kitzon grew worse until one day a friend told her of the wonderful family laxative and tonic, Cascarine. It was a case of life or death. Of course, like everyone, she preferred life, and took Cascarine, the great life giver, blood purifier and tonic. Within three weeks she astonished her friends by appearing among them as a new woman. Cascarine was just what her system needed. It removed her indigestion and constipation and freed her blood from all impurities. It toned up her nervous system as nothing else could. She is a new woman now and is advising her friends to use nothing but Cascarine.

It is the only family laxative for men, women and children, and cures absolutely all disorders of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys. Cascarine is pleasant in taste, pleasing in action and has no bad effects. It is not a tablet or a pill and will not gripe like other laxatives. The most delicate stomach can retain it without injurious effects. Cascarine sells at fifty cents per bottle. At all druggists. When you ask for Cascarine be sure you get Cascarine, which comes in blue and white wrappers. If your druggist hasn't it, ask him to get it for you or his jobber.

CHAIR READY FOR SVAZE

Lieutenant Governor Will Become Chief Executive About May 1.

COMES TO AN UNDERSTANDING OF THE AFFAIRS

Savage Protests Against Reported Lack of Harmony and Declares He is on Good Terms with Senator-Elect Dietrich.

Lieutenant Governor Savage will become governor of Nebraska on or about May 1. At least this announcement has been made by the lieutenant governor as the result of a recent conference with Governor Dietrich. The coming governor discussed affairs of state without hesitation when he arrived in Omaha Tuesday on his way to South Omaha, where he was tendered a banquet Tuesday night.

"As for the reports that ill-feeling existed between the governor and myself," said Mr. Savage, "there is not a word of truth in them, for we are on the best of terms. These reports are entirely unfounded and have been entirely entertained by the governor, and the very best of feeling exists between us. Yesterday morning the governor sent word that he would like to spend a half hour with me, and later he came to my office and we discussed the transfer of the office of governor."

Governor Dietrich said that he would like to have until the middle of this month to finish up the business that is still on hand, and after that, the office would be at my disposal. He said if I could give him a few days' notice after April 15 he would pack up and leave the office to me. The conference was perfectly friendly.

"For my part, I cannot get ready to take the office before May 1. One of my sons has gone west to look after the affairs of the western ranch, leaving but one son at home to care for our business there, which, though small, is just as important to me as the private business of any man. I had expected to be at home this summer to assist that son in the management of our affairs, but I will prevent this. Now I must make some other arrangements and it will take at least a month to do this. You can safely say that the change will not be made before May 1."

There is one thing that has gone out in the reports which is entirely wrong and which has done a great injustice, and that was the dragging of Mrs. Savage's name into the matter. She has never uttered a word to any man, woman or child about my taking the governorship, except what she has said to me. When she made the statement in some of the Lincoln and Omaha papers that she was opposed to my taking the governorship unless I got it right away, and that she said she would not move to Lincoln, it annoyed her. She never made either of those statements.

South Omaha News

Although important business was to be transacted the city council failed of a quorum last night and an adjournment was taken until this evening. The question of dividing the city into six wards is ready to be introduced as well as the ordinance fixing the salaries of the city officials under the new charter. In the bill passed by the legislature the maximum salaries are named, but the amount to be paid is to be fixed by ordinance. The ordinance ready to be introduced is completed, with the exception of filling in the amounts, and this will be left to the judiciary committee. It is understood that in a majority of instances the maximum salaries will be paid. The mayor can receive $1,200 a year, the treasurer and clerk $1,200 a year, and the clerk $900 a year. There is a general increase in salaries all along the line, but no one seems to know just what the judiciary committee will do.

3783 Shirt Waist. 32 to 42 in. bust.

Woman's Shirt Waist No. 3783, to Be Made with or without the Fitted Lining—The shirt waist made with perpendicular bands of trimming is a well deserved favorite. It tends to produce the tapering effect that is so fashionable and gives the effect of an exceedingly dressy blouse, while, in reality, it is simplicity itself. The example shown is peculiarly satisfactory and is adapted to all plain materials, silk, wool, cotton and linen. The original is of white batiste, with trimming of Valenciennes lace insertion and is unlined, the material being cut away beneath the lace; but silk and woolen materials are more satisfactory made over the fitted lining that is included in the pattern. The waist is fitted by means of shoulder and under-arm seams. The trimming is arranged on indicated lines and is gathered with the material at the waist line and again at the upper edges of the fronts. The sleeves are in modified bishop style, but open after the manner of the regulation shirt waists after the latest style. At the neck is a stock of the material, but a linen collar or ribbon can be substituted when preferred. When the lining is used the waist is arranged over it before shoulder and under-arm seams are closed, but closes separately and invisibly at the center front. To cut this waist for a woman of medium size, 3 1/2 yards of material 21 inches wide, 2 1/2 yards 27 inches wide and 2 1/2 yards 32 inches wide, or 1 1/2 yards 44 inches wide will be required. The pattern, 3783, is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42-inch bust measure.

For the accommodation of the Bee's readers these patterns, which usually retail at from 25 to 50 cents, will be furnished at a nominal price, 10 cents, which covers all expense. In order to get any pattern enclosed 10 cents, give number and name of pattern wanted and bust measure. Allow about ten days from date of your letter before beginning to look for the pattern. Address Pattern Department, Omaha Bee, Omaha, Neb.
