SMITH SAUNDERS FALLS DEAD

Native of Iowa and Nephew of Nebraska's Late Governor Alvin Saunders.

Mr. Smith Saunders, real estate dealer, dropped dead yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock while waiting for a car at Broadway and Sixth street. The cause of his sudden death was attributed to a stroke of apoplexy.

Mr. Saunders had just cashed a check in the grocery store at the northwest corner of Broadway and Sixth street, where he stated his intention of going to Omaha. As he stepped from the store he staggered and fell forward on his face. Charles McCoy, a nephew of Saunders, was standing in the opposite corner. He saw him fall, ran to his assistance and with aid of bystanders carried Mr. Saunders into Sellers' drug store. Mr. Saunders was breathing heavily and a few minutes after being taken to the drug store he was dead. The body was removed to his residence, 303 W. 12th street, and Coroner Treynor was notified. He decided an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Saunders was 69 years old and leaves a wife and two sons, Henry and Walter, who are students at the Wisconsin State university. He was born in Mount Pleasant, Ia., and was nephew of the late Governor Alvin Saunders of Nebraska. He had been a resident of Council Bluffs for about twenty years, having come here during the rear estate boom. He owned considerable real estate, among his holdings being the Saunders' block on West Broadway near Eighth street.

The body will be taken to Mount Pleasant.

JOHNSON MAY MAINTAIN DAM.

Judge Wheeler Finds No Reason for Injunction.

Judge Wheeler handed down his decision in the district court yesterday morning in the case of the injunction against Pottawattomie county against David Johnson, involving the right of the defendant to maintain a dam near Reel's in Pigeon Creek. Suit was brought to enjoin Johnson from maintaining the dam, it being claimed that it caused the water to overflow and damage the public highway, and that owing to the absence of a highway it prevented fish from making their way above the creek.

Judge Wheeler's decision was in favor of Johnson and the injunction asked for was denied. The court held that the evidence showed that the dam had been in existence ever since 1850 and that therefore the owner had a prescriptive right to maintain it. As to the highway the court held that the evidence did not show that one would be any benefit to the people living above the dam, as the stream was not large enough, or that any edible fish inhabited it.

Mrs. Edith D. Whitaker was granted a divorce from Squire H. Whittaker on grounds of desertion and was awarded the custody of their two minor children.

A divorce was granted to Mrs. Mary M. Smith from C. W. Smith on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

Judge Wheeler did not complete making the law assignment, but will do so this morning. A partial re-assignment of the equity docket will be made at the same time.

TRANSFER TO OMAHA DEPOT.

Express Companies Begin Their Removal from Joint Office.

In accordance with the notice served by it on the other companies about two weeks ago the American Express company yesterday pulled out of the joint office at the Union Pacific transfer depot and began the transferring of its business to other lines at the depot in Omaha.

Route Agents H. F. Estes of the Pacific Express company and W. S. Johnson of the American Express company were at the transfer yesterday checking out the American Express books and the transfer of the route agents C. E. Taylor of the United States Express company and H. M. Heath of the Wells-Fargo Express company will be here today for the same purpose.

It is understood that for the present at least the office at the transfer will be maintained, although the removal of the American will probably result in the reduction of the present force by one or two men.

DEATH OF CARL H. G. VOGELIER.

Pioneer Settler of Pottawattomie, Aged Seventy-Eight.

Carl H. G. Vogeler, aged 78 years, died yesterday morning at his residence, 223 Avenue F of a complication of dropsy and bronchitis. His wife, four daughters and one son survive him. The children are Otto Vogeler of this city, Mrs. Pauline Beck of Washington, D. C., Mrs. James G. Bradley, Mrs. Elmer Fisher and Hilda Vogeler, all of this city.

The deceased was one of the pioneer settlers of this county. He was born in Minden, West Prussia, January 6, 1823, and came to this country from Germany in 1848. He settled in St. Louis, where he engaged in the dry goods business until 1856, when he came to Iowa and settled on a farm in Keg Creek township, in this county. Later he moved into this city and started in the wholesale and retail harness and saddlery business in partnership with his son, the firm name being Vogeler & Son.

SAM KING IS CAPTURED.

Taken in Shenandoah for Horse-Stealing.

After evading the authorities a year and a half, Sam King, wanted in this city on a charge of horse stealing, was arrested yesterday in Shenandoah. Deputy Sheriff Canaling left last evening to bring him back.

Eighteen months ago King wanted to buy a team of horses, the property of Will Gumm, a stepon of Mrs. Jennie Williams of this city. Gumm refused to sell, but later loaned the animals to King, who failed to return them. Gumm traced King to Pacific Junction, where he learned the horses had been sold. The constable at Pacific Junction refused to arrest King without a warrant and while Gumm was securing one King escaped.

Six Thousand Inheritance Tax. Judge Wheeler yesterday assessed the amount of collateral inheritance tax to be paid to the state by the estate of the late Stephen Caldwell of Avoca at $5,543.23. Caldwell left an estate valued at about $112,000. His heirs live in Massachusetts and New York.

replace the burned medical building, and the other at Ames, to cost $300,000, to replace the burned collegiate building. Plans for these new buildings are now being prepared and will be ready for inspection before the legislature is elected. Inasmuch as the state treasury is well filled it is believed there will be little trouble in securing the appropriations for these buildings, which are much needed.

Doesn't Want the Regatta. Des Moines does not desire the regatta of the Iowa State Amateur Rowing association this year. An effort was made to interest persons here in the regatta, but there was not sufficient interest taken. The regatta will therefore go to Council Bluffs with a contest. Last year the regatta drew over 5,000 strangers to Waterloo and was one of the most successful meetings in the state.

Good for Rheumatism. Last fall I was laid up with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J.
