I concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm and am pleased to say that it has cured me." For sale by all druggists.

MR. REID'S NARROW ESCAPE

New York Editor Passes Through Omaha and Talks of His Accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Miss Reid and Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Mills passed through Omaha last night on their way from California to New York. They were belated passengers, arriving here at 5:35 p. m. on a Union Pacific train that was due at 4:35 in the afternoon. The private car in which the party traveled was switched to a Rock Island eastbound train that had been held over an hour for it.

During the few minutes that the car remained in the Union station Mr. Mills was busy giving orders to a railway official and Mr. Reid talked to a reporter for the Bee about the railroad accident in which his party figured at Emigrant Gap, Cal., last Tuesday night. "We haven't as good or as nice a car as we had before the accident," said he, "but we are getting along very comfortably. It was indeed a narrow escape that we had Tuesday night. Our car was on the rear end of the train and if it had not been a very heavily built and strong car the locomotive that ran into it would not have been stopped so soon and the consequences might have been dreadful. Our train had stopped in a snowshed when the locomotive of a following train came along at a rate of speed too great to check in time to avert the collision. Mr. and Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Reid, my daughter and myself were sitting in the room at the rear end of our car and we had no time to escape before the engine of the other train was upon us. It crashed into our car with tremendous force, scattering glass in all directions, and coming to a stop only a few feet from the point at which Mr. Mills was standing. The lights went out, the room filled with steam and none of us knew just what injuries had been inflicted until we had groped our way out of the car. Then we found that the only persons injured were Mr. Mills and myself, and we had suffered only slight cuts from the flying glass."

Mr. Reid uncovered and displayed his most serious injury, which was nothing more than a cut about two inches long on the top of his bald head. A strip of court-plaster had mended the scalp, no stitches having been necessary.

AT A BELGIAN HARE BANQUET

Thirty Members of the Club Sit Down to a Menu of Their Own Raising.

Nearly thirty members of the Nebraska Belgian Hare club were guests at a banquet given Friday evening at the Millard. Belgian hares served in various styles formed the substantial portion of the menu. A number of toasts were delivered, among them that of the Nebraska Belgian Hare Club, President W. B. Howard; "The Belgian Hare from a Business Man's Standpoint," P. J. Barr; "The Belgian Hare from a Woman's Standpoint," Mrs. S. J. John; "Belgian Hare Toast," Hugh F. Melish; "Belgian Hare Industry as a Recreation," Prof. A. C. Ong; "The Belgian Hare as a Newspaper Man Sees It," John Bevan Ryan; J. H. McDowell acted as toastmaster. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Markle of Wahoo were out-of-town guests.

OPPOSES WESTERN LABORER

Central Labor Union Asks American Federation to Strike It from Fair List.

Central Labor union was in executive session during nearly all of its meeting Friday night and the action taken, if any, in regard to the various labor troubles could not be learned.

A resolution was adopted declaring the Western Laborer unfair and requesting the American Federation of Labor to strike it from the fair list. The following delegates were received: A. F. Crouse, Electrical Workers; A. C. Jasper, Structural Iron Workers; Tom Agnew and John Pyle, Federal Labor union No. 8991; A. Summers, Boiler-makers; W. C. Noyes, Postal Clerks.

South Omaha News.

The fire at the Armour plant in Chicago will tend to increase the work at the Armour plant here to a large extent and while repairs are being made to the beef department at the Chicago house the plant here will not only run full time, but quite a number of additional men will be put to work.

Orders came to General Manager Rowe yesterday from Chicago to buy and kill everything in the beef line that was worth slaughtering and this means that the Chicago market, to some extent, will be furnished with beef killed in South Omaha for at least three weeks.

After the fire it was estimated that it will take three weeks or a month to make the necessary repairs to the damaged floors and machinery and during this time the local market will be benefited, inasmuch as the price to shippers will be raised on account of the exceptional demand here.

While South Omaha is a first-class beef market all of the time, the action taken by the Armour's yesterday will naturally tend to increase shipments, and it is predicted that good prices will prevail here for some time to come.

In general, the men are working nearly full time and with the closing down of some departments at one of the houses other portions of other houses have been opened, so that there is no falling off in the amount of labor required to carry on the packing house and stock yards businesses at this point.

Looks Like Trouble.

On the face of the proposition the street fair show looks serene, but from rumors on the street yesterday afternoon it appears that there is trouble in store for the promoters. According to the plans formulated by the association, booths were to be erected on Twenty-fourth street from M to O streets and on N street from Twenty-fourth west to Twenty-seventh street. These booths were to be built on the pavement and outside of the curb line, leaving the sidewalks clear. The does not suit some of the merchants and protest was made yesterday which was emphatic enough to hold most anyone. C. A. Melcher asserted that he would not permit the space in front of his store to be used unless he had something to say about the matter. Further, he asserted that no one had asked him to join the fair association and he would if necessary restrain, by an order of the court, the erection of booths on the street in front of his store, which is located at the corner of Twenty-fourth and N streets.

Masons Elect Officers.

Bee Hive lodge No. 184, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, elected these officers Thursday night: James W. Hastings, W. M.; John F. Schultz, master of ceremonies; Charles McAdams, junior warden; James Allen, treasurer; Frank Slabang, secretary. The appointments of deacons and others will be announced later.

Working Overtime.

In anticipation of a drouth in Omaha on Sunday the local brewery is now working its force overtime in order to be prepared to supply the demand for beer which will naturally come from the closing of the saloons on the north. Most of the liquor dealers yesterday placed orders with the brewery for a supply over the usual limit and a big trade is expected. It was reported on the streets yesterday that the street car company would run extra cars to South Omaha in order to accommodate the thirsty ones.

Council Reorganization.

There is some talk of changing the committees in the city council. At the time of the organization after the passage of the charter, committees were named with the appointments left blank. Now it appears to some that the selections are not entirely satisfactory and a change will most likely be made before long.

Stock Yards Improvements.

Ground was broken yesterday for new hay barns for the Union Stock Yards company for hay barns. The new buildings will be of corrugated iron and will be forty-six feet in width, with a length of 290 feet. The barns will be located on the ground north of the L street viaduct and east of the Burlington freight depot tracks.

Single City Gossip.

Open single cars are now being run on the Sherman avenue line and will be forty-six feet in width, with a length of 290 feet. The next meeting of the Harmony club will be on the evening of May 8. Mark Coad of the Packers National bank has returned from an eastern trip. Mark Stearns has gone to Pine Bluffs, Neb., to look after business matters. Mrs. E. H. Bond of home, is here, the guest of Mrs. D. L. Holmes, Twenty-fourth and D streets.

Two Important Events for Next Monday

We have purchased the dressmaking stock of Madame Connelly, No. 9 East 34th St., New York City, who was incontestably conceded by all for the past quarter of a century to be the American "Worth." This magnificent stock consists of the highest price imported silks, dress goods, laces and trimmings. All the above are exclusive fabrics, We are confident that the exclusive designs and striking color combinations (at prices that represent but a shade of their real value) will be appreciated by you.

In addition to the above we will place on sale the magnificent exhibit of dress goods of the Arlington Mills. These goods received the gold medal at the Paris Exposition, and were displayed at the Omaha Auditorium Industrial Exposition. The line consists of broadcloths, crepons, brilliantines, mixtures, etc., and will go on sale at a fraction of the real value

Monday, May 6th, at nine o'clock.

Trusting that we will have the pleasure of seeing you in our store next Monday, we are

SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fever; gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and its stance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

Hallet & Davis' Pianos

Have been before the public for over sixty-two years. Hallet & Davis is one of the few firms who did not claim to know it all at the beginning, but their ideal was a perfect piano, and to this end they have bent all their energy. Each year they have made better pianos than the previous year, so that today the "Hallet & Davis" stands for all that is high grade in a modern piano. There are pianos for which more money is asked, but you cannot buy a better piano for the amount invested. The Hallet & Davis pianos are always reliable and will wear a life-time.
