Mr. Dolan is a firm believer in The Mutual Life and holds other policies upon his life for $105,000 in this institution.

The Largest Two Policies Ever Issued.

Peavey, of Minneapolis, Minn., for $1,000,000 calling for an annual premium of $48,390. The latter is the largest annual premium on the life of an individual, ever paid to any life insurance company in the world. Both policies were issued by The Mutual Life of New York.

The Largest Single Premium

Ever received. The Havemeyer family paid to The Mutual Life in 1889 a single premium of $578,345, for five policies of $100,000 each, with guaranteed incomes beginning in ten years.

A Railroad President's Investment

James J. Hill, President of the Great Northern Railway, paid The Mutual Life in 1892, $136,350 for a policy of $100,000 with an annuity of $12,400.

Mr. Newhouse paid in one check for this bond $233,828. In addition to the $8,000 annuity, Mr. Newhouse will receive a dividend each year on the policy itself.

The Mutual Life's Popularity in London

An English gentleman recently purchased through the Company's London office, an annuity of £10,000, by depositing with The Mutual Life £86,029.50, which is nearly $430,000. What better endorsement is needed than such an expression of confidence on the part of our British friends in a typical American institution.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

SHERIFF GETS ONLY BODY

B. E. Dorland, Escaped Prisoner, Cannot Be Taken Alive.

ALTURAS CONSTABLE FATALLY WOUNDED

Two Refugees Fight Hand-to-Hand with Sheriff's posse Until One Man is Dead and Another Dying.

RENO, Nev., May 11.—A Gazette special from Adin, Cal., says: Sheriff Behrens of Redding, Cal., arrived at Adin this morning, on the track of B. H. Dorland and W. C. Hingsworth, two prisoners who escaped from the Shasta county jail April 8. The constable of Alturas, H. S. Walker, met Sheriff Behrens at Adin, and they located the prisoners about three miles north of Adin. A hand-to-hand combat ensued. Dorland was killed, probably by a bullet from companion, as he was between the sheriff and Hingsworth. Dorland did not shoot, as the sheriff had him covered, but Hingsworth shot fifteen or twenty times, three bullets piercing the sheriff's clothing. Constable Walker was shot through the top of the left hip, probably fatally. Hingsworth escaped. Dorland's remains were taken to Adin.

WILD MEXICAN RUNS AMUCK

Drives Shepherders from Their Flocks and Holds Country at Bay.

CASPER, Wyo., May 11.—(Special.)—A dark-colored and keen-eyed Mexican with an unpronounceable name was brought into Casper from Moulton today and placed in jail by Deputy Murphy. Murphy is a typical frontiersman and looked like a walking arsenal. The Mexican came near slipping over several times on the range in the northwest part of this county. He brought a white woman from Chadron some time ago to live with him. A few days ago he attacked his friend, when some stockmen appeared and saved the woman's life. The Mexican put up a fight and succeeded in breaking away. He was heavily armed and lay around the country for a day or two. Shepherders abandoned their herds in fear and yesterday a band of stockmen went out to capture the Mexican. They got him surrounded and a fierce battle ensued for a time, the stockmen closing in on him. They finally captured him, but even after they had hold of him he continued to fire over his shoulders at his captors. He received a bad shot in the back of the neck and was otherwise injured. The woman is in a precarious condition.

This reservoir is believed to be the largest ever constructed for irrigating purposes.

Fred Wolf, the proprietor, knocked the girls down and lodged them in the city jail. Wilhoit's brother came to the defense and Wolf struck him, making a long gash on his face, from which the blood flowed freely. In the melee, the wrist of Miss Peoples was broken. The police arrested the girls and lodged them in the city jail. WICHITA, Kan., May 11.—Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived here tonight after an exciting day at Harpers. There was a circus in town and she organized a raid on saloons, but was arrested before she could do any smashing. The great success of the day came in the two mile race, Yale had conceded it to Harvard but the men were running in the first mile as if it was only a quarter of which of them was to set the pace. At the second mile, Yale set a fast spurring pace. Ted of Yale caught him on the stretch and in the straightaway passed him, clearing several feet at the tape. Gay of Yale came in third, making a total of six points for the blue where only one had been hoped for. The 100-yard dash proved to be a fight to the finish between Ferguson of Yale and Lightner, Haigh and Webber of Harvard. The former won on the last quarter of the dash by an outlay of energy that was not expected. He repeated the performance in exactly the same way in the 220-yard dash. In that event Dupee of Yale, a former crack sprinter, also came to time in sensational fashion, winning second place. The mile run was Harvard's easily. Weston of Yale being unable to catch Clark, who was well paced. In the broad jump Spraker of Yale did not do well. He was outclassed by the Harvard contingent, three of whom divided the event. High jump Spraker beat out Ellis of Harvard. The shot-put was taken by Yale easily. Sheldon, Goss and Beck shuttling out their competitors with good distances. The hammer throw was also Yale's entirely, with Stillman, Sheldon and P. Gordon Brown, in order, winning out. The pole vault went at the comparatively low height of 10 feet 3 inches to Yale. Ford, Pease and Thompson being tied at that height.
