

TRADE JUNKET IS A WINNER

Commercial Club Excursionists Visit Thriving Nebraska Towns.

PRAIRIE LASSIE BRINGS SPRING FLOWERS

Donquet is Ruffed for Benefit of the Auditorium Fund—Exchange of Greetings All Along the Line.

SUPERIOR, Neb., May 15.—(Special Telegram.)—The first day of the trade excursion of the members of the Omaha Commercial club closed here tonight. The trip was one of the most successful in the history of the organization. The best prepared reception tendered the party was at Davenport, where the citizens had made extensive preparations. When the train reached Davenport, R. Tavel, state representative, delivered an address of welcome and gave the keys of the town to the excursionists. Headed by the Davenport band the party in carriages drove over the town and returned to the central portion, where an address was made on behalf of the visitors by Rev. Edward F. Trefz, who is with the party as the spokesman.

The trip from Omaha to Superior was a continued success. The first stop was made at Fremont, where several jobbers joined the party. The first visit was made at Abie. At Bruno a brass band and the citizens greeted the excursionists. The same reception was repeated at Brainard. The Brainard band caught the eye of the excursionists and through the courtesy of the railroad officials on the train it was carried to Seward.

Flowers are Ruffed. At Dwight an interesting event occurred. Miss Christina Dunlap came to the train carrying a beautiful bouquet of spring flowers. This was given to F. L. Campbell, a member of the party. At the suggestion of Mr. Campbell it was decided to benefit the Omaha Auditorium fund, bringing $27. It was won by C. S. Elguter, who afterward auctioned it off, subsequent auctions bringing the sum of $7.50 for the fund.

Stop was made for dinner at Seward. Goehner was visited and at Beaver Crossing the party examined the famous artesian flow of water. At Cordova and Exeter the excursionists were well received and at Geneva they were given a carriage ride and refreshments, through the courtesy of A. Koehler & Co.

Martland, Shickley and Walters were visited and then came the reception at Davenport, the town being decorated with flags and banners. After calling upon the trade at Oak and Nora the train arrived at Superior, where the merchants had prepared a banquet for the party. Before leaving Superior there was a public meeting on Commercial avenue, at which about thirty were made members of the party. F. E. Sanborn. The train left for Hastings at 7:35 p. m. The Omaha party has accepted the invitation of the Knights of St. Ebb Rague of Fremont and will spend an hour or two in that city Thursday, arriving in Omaha at about 10:30 p. m., one hour later than the schedule.

Reception at Hastings. HASTINGS, Neb., May 15.—(Special Telegram.)—The delegation of Omaha jobbers making a tour of the state arrived in Hastings tonight at 9 o'clock on a special North-western train under the escort of a large delegation of Hastings merchants, who escorted them to the hotel and entertained them in various ways. All were greatly pleased with the cleanliness of the city and its general appearance. The delegation from Omaha will spend most of tomorrow morning visiting Hastings business men and making acquaintances.

WATKINS' TRIAL IS BEGUN

Testimony in Sidney Cattle Stealing Case Taken and State Rests.

SIDNEY, Neb., May 15.—(Special Telegram.)—The trial of D. Watkins, charged with stealing cattle from the Kari Cattle company, is in progress, a jury having been secured this afternoon. The testimony for the state was similar to that at the first trial and the state rested at 7:30 tonight. The defense put on Mr. Mollring and Booked Hastings of Alliance to prove lack of character of the principal witness, Mathews, for the state, but Judge Grimes ruled that anything previous to Mathews' residence in Lincoln during the last year would be excluded. This was a severe blow for the defense and they asked for time to show law to the contrary. Court adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The court house was crowded.

Takes Shot at Son-in-Law.

LYONS, Neb., May 15.—(Special.)—Denver Harris was arrested at his home Monday on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Margaret Harris, his wife, charging him with shooting with intent to kill John White upon her premises Monday afternoon. Harris was formerly a nursery tree agent of Council Bluffs and has been here from time to time selling nursery stock for a man named Fogarty, and on one of these trips married his present wife, who was then Mrs. John Johnson, a woman with considerable farm property, and since their marriage a few months ago, it is alleged, has refused to help about the farm. She has proceedings in the district court for a divorce. White, who is a son-in-law, was asked by Mrs. Harris to bring his wife and come up from Omaha and take charge of things, which he did. Harris appeared at the farm yesterday and a quarrel ensued between them, in which they came to blows. Harris later appeared with a shotgun and took a shot at White without effect.

a dual character—one providing for licensing the business mentioned and the other for the levy and collection of an occupation tax—the right to engage in the business of the kind mentioned is dependent not only on the payment of the license fee, but the occupation tax as well. By the stipulations made for the facts in the case it is agreed that the city treasurer collected both amounts denominated occupation tax and license fee at the same time. The only rational conclusion to be drawn is that the payments were made because of the provisions of the ordinance requiring the party engaging in the business to pay both amounts therefor before engaging in the business. This makes the payments, whatever they are called, essential and in fact necessary to be disposed of in the manner provided by the constitution.

Evading Imposition. If it were possible to evade the constitutional provisions on the question of fines and licenses by an arbitrarily drawn ordinance, the possibility would be reached under the clever wording of the ordinance of the city of Lincoln. But in the light of these three supreme court decisions, based on section 5, article VIII of the constitution, such an evasion is an impossibility.

Therefore, it is the ruling of this department that the school district of Lincoln is entitled to the $500 license fee and the $50 occupation tax, as collected under the ordinance of said village, in fact, for conducting a saloon in said village. Yours very truly, S. POWELLER, State Superintendent.

Gratitude and Sympathy. It is with gratitude to you and sympathy for suffering women that I write this. I miscarried September 15th, and flooding followed. Three doctors attended me but did me no good. I had almost given up hope of recovering, when on December 12th, my husband brought home a Ladies' Birthday Almanac, in which I saw a testimonial from a lady afflicted like myself. I immediately got a bottle of Wine of Cardui and commenced taking it. From the first dose it seemed to help me. When I began I could not sit up. Some times I could not raise my head to take a drink without help. The doctors said I would have to undergo an operation as soon as I had strength to stand it. Thanks to Wine of Cardui, I am well without an operation and weigh 123 pounds, which is more than I ever weighed before. I have done all my own work since January 15th. Mrs. T. H. ELLIOTT. Hundreds of women are slipping into untimely graves who would be well and happy if some one would induce them to take a bottle of WINE OF CARDUI. That is the way Mrs. Elliott's life was saved when she suffered miscarriage and her strength was ebbing away on account of the terrible flooding which followed. The Wine brought her speedy relief and eventually restored her to perfect health. And now she can do all her own work. The doctors could not help Mrs. Elliott. They suggested "operation". Wine of Cardui has completely cured nine out of every ten cases of female troubles arising from disordered menstruation or from the accidents of pregnancy or childbirth. It fits a woman for every duty of life. No suffering woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.
