

TRESPASSER'S FATAL SHOT

John Kavanaugh Wounds Neighbor Who Orders Him Away.

DENNIS McLAUGHLIN REPORTED DYING

Old Man with Gun Emphasizes Orders to Stop Fishing in His Lake and is Himself Mortally Hurt.

TECUMSEH, Neb., May 15.—(Special Telegram)—John Kavanaugh, a young and respected farmer near Smartville, this county, shot and fatally wounded Dennis McLaughlin, a bachelor neighbor and like a respectable citizen, this afternoon.

On McLaughlin's farm is a beautiful little lake which until recently had been the Mecca of the local anglers. Late, however, McLaughlin had issued no trespassing orders. Although a neighbor, it is said that blood had existed between the two men for some time. This afternoon Kavanaugh took his gun and fishing rod and proceeded over to the lake for a half day's sport. As soon as McLaughlin spied Kavanaugh fishing on his premises he took his gun and went to order him off. Reaching his trespassing neighbor he ordered him to leave in convincing language, whereupon Kavanaugh responded by saying he would go as soon as he could collect his hunting and fishing equipment.

Emphasizing his orders to leave, McLaughlin leveled his gun upon Kavanaugh and told him to be hasty or suffer the consequences and he became much excited. Gazing down the barrels of the old man's gun, Kavanaugh grabbed his own weapon from the back of the lake and before the old man could get had shot him in the head and shoulders.

McLaughlin fell to the ground mortally wounded. Several of the shot penetrated his temple. As soon as he realized what he had done Kavanaugh arranged to have a surgeon hastily dispatched to the scene and then went home. He claims he did the shooting in self-defense.

Sheriff Strong has gone after Kavanaugh. Late tonight McLaughlin is reported as dying. McLaughlin is about 60 years old and lives alone. Kavanaugh is yet in his twenties and is married.

SHOW PEOPLE RESENTFUL

Follow a Collector Aboard a Train and Engage Him in a Fight.

BEATRICE, Neb., May 15.—(Special Telegram)—J. H. Martin, city bill poster, went to Wilber this morning to collect his fees for posting bills in this city announcing the appearance of Morris Bires' Dog and Pony show here Monday last. Owing to the smallpox epidemic the show, cancelled its date. When Martin demanded his money at Wilber he was paid, but tonight as he boarded a train on his return trip he was followed into the coach by two of the show people and was knocked down. They made their escape from the train, which was moving. Martin rose and followed the two to the platform, where he drew his pistol and fired two shots at the fleeing men. It is thought that the bullets took effect, as one of the men was seen to stagger by a fellow passenger. Martin was not seriously hurt.

Later developments in the shooting scrape at Wilber this evening disclose the fact that J. H. Martin, who shot at a showman there this evening, wounded his man in the head. Sheriff Sawyer telephoned Sheriff Waddington to arrest Martin. Deputy Sheriff Parsons and Night Policeman Hall arrested Martin and he languishes here in jail tonight awaiting the arrival of Sheriff Sawyer in the morning, who will take him back to Wilber, where he will have a hearing. Martin is an old resident here.

TO FIGHT GRAIN COMBINE

Farmers of Nebraska and Kansas Meet to Form Organization for Shipping Their Own Wheat.

SALINA, Kan., May 15.—(Special Telegram)—The vanguard of the western grain growers' convention which will meet here tomorrow afternoon has arrived, and reports received by promoters of the movement indicate that there will be a large attendance, not only from the wheat belt of Kansas but from Oklahoma and portions of Nebraska. The primary object of the convention is to organize a grain growers' association to combat the grain trust which now controls the local wheat markets in the west, but if the movement is successful it will in reality be a farmers' trust. It is estimated that the delegates which will be in attendance here represent 250,000 bushels of the new crop, and by the time harvest is over the organization expects to control double that amount.

South Omaha News.

According to the report of Expert Accountant J. M. Moran, now on his way to the city clerk, the accounts of Treasurer Koutsky are in excellent condition. The books are well kept and show that hard work has been done by the treasurer and his deputy in keeping up the records. Mr. Buchanan checked the books from the date of the last report, as there was no need to go further back. The report shows that there is now on hand in the various funds the sum of $106,487.58, or rather as at the date of the report on April 30.

A report of the taxes collected by the treasurer from April 21, 1901, to and including April 30, 1901, follows: Eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, $29,623; 1890, $37,130; 1891, $36,838; 1892, $32,746; 1893, $43,716; 1894, $1,389.45; 1895, $1,280.99; 1896, $2,263.29; 1897, $2,910.74; 1898, $5,452.32; 1899, $9,892.13; 1900, $7,491.53; total, $97,327.27.

In a supplementary report, Mr. Buchanan asserts that every ad was rendered him by City Treasurer Koutsky and Deputy Gustafson in his work and that the city records are now and have been well kept. Now that the report of the expert is in the treasurer will proceed within a few days to issue a call for outstanding warrants in order to stop the payment of interest.

Funding School Bonds.

Late yesterday afternoon Frank J. Moriarty, cashier of the Packers' National bank, received a telegram from his eastern correspondents to the effect that the issue of $70,000 funding bonds had been sold and the money paid. This settles a matter which has been pending since last October and will relieve the financial condition to a great extent. While these bonds were being hawked about the credit of the city was not what it has been in the past, but it was no fault of the municipality. When the issue was first contemplated the bonds were offered for sale and were subscribed by Mr. Moriarty at a premium of $700. A contract was entered into between the finance committee of the council and the purchaser and it looked as if the sale would be consummated without delay. However the "Knockers" club held a session and insisted that the council reserve the right to bid for the purpose of securing a higher premium. Those who were conversant with the condition of affairs at the time, and especially as the city was working under the old charter, thought that the premium offered was the best that could be secured and so stated to satisfy the objectors bids were advertised for sale. C. R. Hannan of Council Bluffs secured the bonds by offering a premium of $2,400. Then commenced the jockeying. Hannan tried to stand the city off while endeavoring to sell the bonds at an advanced premium in the east and the west. The council finally agreed to the sale of the bonds and the city, which should have been taken up on November 1, have been handled about for six months. It was only when the council saw that Hannan did not want to perform his part of the contract that the agreement with him was abrogated and the old contract was resumed. The sale, which existed, was resumed. It took Mr. Moriarty less than a week to dispose of the issue after he was in possession of the securities.

Street Fair Matters.

Editor Tanner of the Tribune has this to say of the ordinance introduced at Tuesday night's meeting of the council in regard to the street fair: "The ordinance introduced at the council meeting in regard to charging excessive licenses for all shows was introduced to protect the promoters of the Street Fair association and is to be in force only during the period of the fair. Had the ordinance been explained to the council it would no doubt have received favorable consideration."

That Occupation Tax.

Liquor dealers are still backward about paying in the license fee to the city treasurer. Yesterday it was reported that the council proposed to repeal the ordinance levying an occupation tax of $200 on each saloon in the city. If this is done the city will be the loser by about $18,000. Just now this sum would come in handy, as most of the funds are depleted and expenses have been increased owing to the change in salaries by the new charter.

Sever Tippling Over.

Members of the city council have been out looking at the new Twenty-third street sewer which was laid last fall by J. E. Riley. From E to F streets this sewer is laid on piling through the big gully there. The filling was done when the ground was frozen and consequently the rains have washed the dirt down, leaving a hole in the looking pipe to hold up a ten-foot sewer.

TRADE TOUR THROUGH STATE

Omaha Wholesalers and Other Business Men Embark on Excursion.

Eighty-five representatives of the jobbing interests of Omaha left yesterday on the jobbers' special for the trip through Nebraska. When the train pulled out of the Webster street depot all of the delegation had been hustled aboard by the ever watchful clerks of the Commercial Union. The train was gaily decorated for the trip and two banners, "Omaha Commercial Jobbers" and "Omaha Jobbers' Excursion," proclaimed to the people along the route the mission of the party aboard. The train consisted of Superior and at York when a private car carrying the official of the Elkhorn road. The party was lined up at the depot before boarding the train for a picture.

Invitations have been accepted by the excursion party to be the guest of the Commercial clubs at Superior and at York when passing through those cities. The first stop which the train is to make is at Abie. Each city will have the privilege of entertaining the club for twenty minutes until Seaward is reached and there lunch will be served.

Charles Brown, Colored, Presents Unique Defense in Court.

Because Charles Brown, colored, is left-handed, he hopes to be acquitted of the charge of assault with intent to kill Charles H. Weatherford, also colored, fled against him yesterday in Justice Shoemaker's court. The action against last Sunday evening at a restaurant at Fifteenth and Capitol avenue, and Weatherford was so badly hurt that it was thought he would die. At last accounts, however, he was somewhat improved.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hauptmann of Kearney telegraphed last night to the city of Omaha that the constable who drew up the information failed to post himself upon this idiosyncrasy of Brown's, but followed instead the stilted and obscure language of the statutes, and wrote that Brown was charged with the murder of Charles H. Weatherford. The origin of the charge is right hand, had, and held, the said Charles H. Weatherford unlawfully, feloniously and maliciously did stab," etc. It is understood that Brown will summon several witnesses to prove that he held the knife in his left hand.

THE STRAIN IS TOO GREAT

Unless done at once the sewer will fall off the piles. Repairs were made to this sewer only a short time ago by Street Commissioner Clark, but the dirt filled in soon washes away and the only solution of the problem is the building of a trestle strong enough to hold the sewer. Then it will have to be boxed in to prevent freezing in cold weather.

Council Meeting Tonight.

An adjourned meeting of the city council will be held tonight and it is expected that the street fair ordinance will be passed, the second and third readings being by title. While the regular call will be gone through with it is not probable that any business of importance will be transacted other than the passage of these two ordinances. On Monday night next comes the regular semi-monthly meeting of the council and then business of a general character will be taken up.
