MAY BUILD INTO DUNDEE

Probability that Farnam Street Line Will Be Extended.

PROPOSITION IS BEING CONSIDERED

Mass Meeting of Dundee Citizens is Held at Which There is Glamour for Through Transit Service.

It is possible that the next extension to be made by the Omaha Street Railway company will be a line from Fortieth and Farnam streets to Fifth and California streets, in Dundee Place.

The matter was brought before the general manager of the street railway company yesterday and will be presented to the board of directors at its next meeting which will probably be held Wednesday, May 22. There was a meeting of the citizens of Dundee Place Thursday evening, at which the street car situation was discussed, and it was finally decided that the present arrangement whereby a transfer is made at Fortieth and Farnam streets from the line of the Omaha system to the line of the Metropolitan Cable company is not satisfactory, and that the people desire through service. It was stated by one of the citizens that the value placed upon the cable company's line was so high that the Omaha system would not purchase it, and therefore the meeting set out to devise a plan to bring the Omaha line into Dundee Place.

A resolution asking the village board to grant a franchise to the Omaha company was adopted and a committee consisting of E. A. Benson, S. R. Rush, J. H. McCullough, J. W. Marshall, D. L. Johnson, I. S. Leavitt, John J. Hart and J. H. Parrotte was appointed to present the matter to the city council. The route proposed by the citizens is from the present terminus at Farnam and Forty-sixth street, thence north to Capitol avenue, west to Fifteenth street, north to California.

Speaking of the proposition, General Manager of the street railway company said: "I have heard of the request which the citizens of Dundee Place are to make to the board and I am favorably impressed with the idea. Our action depends upon the proposition they submit, but I would not be surprised to see the line extended practically as outlined."

South Omaha News.

An effort is soon to be made by the council to take steps toward making a re-assessment of the special assessment taxes declared valid by the courts. Section 118 of the new city charter makes it the duty of the mayor and council to issue and collect bonds of the city to take up outstanding district bonds in cases where the special taxes and assessments have been judicially determined to be invalid.

Acting upon this section the council has decided that a special committee of three shall investigate and report to the council the amount of outstanding bonds in each district where the tax has been declared illegal.

In compliance with a resolution of this nature Mayor Kelly has named Councilmen Johnston and Adkins and the city attorney to serve on this committee.

Nearly every paving district in the city has been attacked in the courts and in order to clear up these matters an issue of possibly $125,000 in bonds will be necessary. The committee proposes to go into the subject thoroughly and furnish a detailed report to the council and the public.

Occupation Tax Repealed.

At an adjourned meeting of the city council held yesterday the saloon occupation tax of 25 cents was repealed. This means that the city will be the loser by something like $18,000, as for some years past this tax has been assessed for the purpose of tiding over certain funds during the summer months. When by natural operation of law South Omaha passed from a city of the second class to one of the first class the liquor license was raised to $1,000. This was an increase of $500 and the breweries objected to an occupation tax on top of this increase, although no protest was made on the increase in the regular license fee.

Up to yesterday only six dealers in liquors had paid the $1,200 demanded by the treasurer into the city, and these filed a written protest. Now that the ordinance has been repealed it is thought that the license money will be paid in rapidly in order that the council may grant licenses on Monday night. About seventy-five applications are ready to be acted upon, but the license committee do nothing as long as the money is not paid. The occupation tax paid under protest by the six dealers in liquors will doubtless be returned without the formality of a lawsuit. If the council does not see fit to do this suit can be commenced and the money recovered by process of law. General satisfaction was expressed yesterday at the action of the council in repealing this ordinance, even though it will work a hardship upon the city officials for some time to come.

House Work

Seems easy to a man, but there is a great deal of lifting and reaching to do; a great many trips up and down stairs to make in the course of day's house work. It's hard where a woman is well. For a woman suffering with some form of "female trouble" it is daily torment.

There are thousands of such women struggling along day by day, in increasing misery. There are other thousands who have found a complete cure of their disease in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It stops debilitating drains, cures irregularity, heals inflammation and ulceration, nourishes the nerves and gives vitality and vigor. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. It contains no opium, cocaine nor other narcotic.

"For a number of months I suffered with female trouble," writes Miss Agnes McGowan, Washington, D. C. "I tried various remedies, but seemed to do me any permanent good. The doctors said it was the worst case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to you for help. I received a very encouraging reply, and commenced treatment at once. Had not used your 'Favorite Prescription' a week before I began to feel better, and as I continued my course gradually improved. It is improving every day."

GORDON RESUMES THE BENCH

Deposed Police Magistrate Comes Out on Top of Heap.

BYRCE CRAWFORD SURRENDERS THE JOB

Judge Gordon Says if There is Any Attempt to Establish a Rival Throne He Will Camp in the Court Room.

The latest change in the police court kaleidoscope was recorded yesterday, when, at 9 o'clock, Judge S. I. Gordon took the bench. At 11:30, when court adjourned, he seemed still to be the judge.

"So far as I know," said he, "I am now police judge, and I believe it will be safe for me to go home to lunch. I haven't seen any heirs apparent to the bench hanging around waiting to start up a competitive court. If I find upon returning, this afternoon, that some one has jumped my system in the meantime, I will first get out of my court and thereafter inaugurate a policy of bringing my dinner to court in a basket. It is not true that I'm going to bring a cot down and sleep in the court room."

Crawford Yields Gracefully. Bryce Crawford, justice of the peace, who has occupied the bench since the death of Judge Leary, was present at the opening hour, but upon being shown the credentials of his successor yielded the gavel to him without protest.

"It is a wise police court that knows its own judge these days," said Judge Crawford. "If I had the sorry to give up the bench, I believe I gave the people a fair brand of justice while I was 'it' and that I delivered the goods with becoming dignity and at the lowest market price. However, I bow to the will of the people. You might say in your paper that my justice shop down at Fifteenth and Farnam streets is open for business and that I have in stock a fine line of legal processes."

The police court looked much the same yesterday as it did a year ago. The familiar face of "Judge" Cooley was there, and he was the first to congratulate Judge Gordon upon his ascendancy. Cooley didn't have a case in the morning, as he has somewhat lost touch with the petty criminal class, but he hopes to do better in a day or so if Judge Gordon remains in power.

Pete Carroll Comes First.

The first case on the docket was that of larceny against Pete Carroll, the ex-convict, who had stolen the rubber coat worn by Dr. Ralph while treating smallpox patients at the pesthouse. It afforded an excellent opportunity for a judge to air his wit. One could not help regretting that a magistrate of Judge Leary's stamp was not upon the bench. He would no doubt have told Carroll that it was a pity he hadn't caught the smallpox and thereby saved the city the cost of this prosecution, but Judge Gordon failed to see the humor in the situation. He simply gave Carroll twenty days in jail and pronounced sentence without comment.

This was followed by several vagrants and drunks, most of whom were fined small amounts.

To Increase Endowment.

The insurance endowment committee appointed by Bishop Williams will consider a project for the increase of the endowment fund by the passage of a motion directing the city treasurer to collect from the Board of Education the sum of $189. This money has been paid out by the city for the services of clerks and judges at the last school election in April and Miller thinks no more than sufficient for the year should be reimbursed. Further, Mr. Miller says that later on he will request the board to pay for the printing of the sample and regular ballots used in the school election. This is something new, as prior to this year no attempt has been made to compel the school district to pay any of the expenses of elections.

Repairing Sewers.

City Engineer Beal made an inspection yesterday of the sewer on Twenty-third street which is causing so much trouble. He says that the only thing that can be done at this time is to fill in more dirt to take the place of the filling which has settled and washed away. He does not favor a trestle, as the lots abutting on the sewer will sooner or later be filled to grade and there will then be no necessity for a trestle. Mr. Beal estimates that it will pay for all the repairs needed on the sewer at this time.

Street Fair Matters.

The board of control of the Street Fair company meets every afternoon at the South Omaha club, on Twenty-fourth street, where reports from committees are listened to. Plans for booths are being made and now that the ordinance is passed active preparations for the fair are going on. About 100 applications for concessions have been received so far and additions to the list are being made every day. It is conceded now that the fair is a go. Perhaps there will be no display on street, as originally proposed, for the reason that the merchants on that street do not seem to favor the proposition. In the event that no attractions are placed on Q street the entire fair will be held in the central part of the city.

Moving Immense Tank.

A large number of men are now employed in taking apart the large cottonseed oil tank at the Hammond plant. This tank holds over 1,000,000 gallons and the labor entailed will consume some time. The tank will be taken to St. Joseph and set up at the Hammond plant there. Nothing new has developed lately in regard to the leasing of the Hammond plant here, but it is thought that before long some of the packers who are anxious to secure control of the property will succeed in making the necessary arrangements.

Stock Yards Improvements.

Bids for grading are being asked for by the Union Stock Yards company, as it is the intention to erect two additional blocks of cattle pens near the stand signs. Each of the blocks will contain twenty pens, thus making an addition of forty pens to the capacity of the yards. The increase in the business being done here demands these improvements.

Music City Gossip.

Tonight the North Star society will hold its annual May festival at Old Fellows' hall.

The South Omaha Athletic club will give a ball at the city hall building on Saturday evening.

A. W. Dickson of Chicago was here yesterday looking over the work being done by the Northwestern in the northern part of the city.

The concert given at the Presbyterian church last night by the South Omaha Conservatory of Music was a success in every particular.

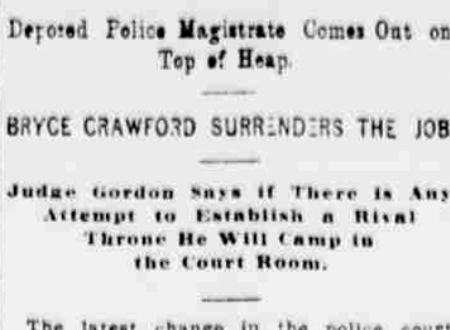

The city has received another bill for the highest purchase for the Brown park fire hall. The company wants the money or at least interest bearing warrants.

Shudders at His Past.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann of Levanua, O., "my three years of suffering from kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man." They are unrivaled to regulate stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Kuhn & Co. Only 50 cents.
