ADVISES BRITISH TO CROSS

London Telegraph Advocates that Employers and Workmen Visit United States and Observe.

LONDON, June 2.—The Daily Telegraph, in the course of an editorial on King Edward's reception of the visiting delegation from the New York Chamber of Commerce, Saturday, says:

"It stamped the royal seal upon a national welcome. There could have been no more fortunate suggestion at the outset of this remarkable visit of the true spirit in which American business rivalry is regarded in Great Britain."

The paper advocates, as one of the best means of meeting the friendly rivalry, that British employers and workmen alike should visit the United States and observe American business methods, and it declares "the fact that the two countries are unapproachable to each other makes plans of European coalition against the United States an idle dream so far as any British participation is concerned."

HAS TO LET SUSPECTS GO

Madrid Cannot Prove that Arrested Anarchists Were Planning Assassination.

MADRID, June 2.—The Spanish government, it is asserted, has dismissed the prefect of Coruna, where serious riots occurred last Friday, and the torpedo boat destroyer Audaz arrived there from Paris to maintain order.

Two of the persons injured in collisions with the gunboats have since succumbed. The houses of the workmen in Coruna were yesterday draped in crepe bearing the inscription, "To the Martyrs of Yesterday."

Two anarchists and an Italian arrested here as the result of a despatch from the Marseilles police that they had projects against the Spanish ministers, have been liberated owing to lack of proof that the police suspicions were justified.

J. P. MORGAN'S ENGLISH HOME

On His Wheat Fields Jolly Abbot Used to Hang Men Who Caught Their Fish.

(Copyright, 1901, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, June 2.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Following the example of Andrew Carnegie and other American multi-millionaires, J. Pierpont Morgan of New York has secured a beautiful English country residence, Mr. Morgan's British home is Aldenham Abbey in Hertfordshire, which belongs to Lord Rendlesham, and has recently been occupied by Charles VanRaalte, South African millionaire. Aldenham Abbey is six miles from the famous St. Alban's cathedral. It is situated in one of the garden spots of England. Not far away is the town of Watford, near which are the beautiful parks and homes of the earl of Essex and the earl of Clarendon. Nearby also is the charming estate of Lord Ebury at Rickmansworth.

Abbey of Aldenham was occupied in the thirteenth century by a company of monks. One of their customs was to catch the fish from their ponds and now grows on the grounds where the abbey once stood. It is pointed out with awe by the natives. In the Aldenham church register is a record of the death in 1538 of "Harranquoh, a West Indian of Manhattan in Virginia. The present Aldenham Abbey was built in the year 1800 by the spot where the old mansion, "Wall Hall," belonging to the abbots, had stood for many centuries.

Charming ivy-clad ruins on the grounds were taken about sixty years ago. It is pointed out that there are the remains of the old abbey of the eleventh century. They are not, for the father of a farm laborer still living in the village, who was a mason, helped to make them.

"Ah," says the Aldenham house, "they proper ruins they be, as well put together as you'll find anywhere. My father helped to build them."

"The Chequers," the village public house, is paved with monumental slabs stolen from the churchyard, some turned upside down. A local baker in 1840 paved his oven with tombstones, the inscriptions open. If his customers want a well-baked loaf they order one with "Sacred to the Memory Of" on the bottom of it, that being the inscription on the stone at the end nearest the fire. If they like it lightly baked they insist on the "Requiescat in Pace" of the farther end of the oven.

Aldenham abbey stands in a park of 400 acres and is a really beautiful place. A great being the inscription on the stone at the end nearest the fire. If they like it lightly baked they insist on the "Requiescat in Pace" of the farther end of the oven.

Near all the estates in Hertfordshire have deer parks, but there is none at Aldenham. The earl of Essex at Watford has at least 1,000 deer and Lord Clarendon has a large herd.

There are few pheasants at Aldenham, as neither the owner nor the last lessee, Mr. VanRaalte, cared much for the allies sport of shooting these fowl, which are nearly as tame as barnyard hens.

GAY AMERICANS IN PARIS

Infanta Eulalia Has Something to Eat at the Expense of Royal de Castellane.

(Copyright, 1901, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, June 2.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Robert Golet, who managed the yacht Nahma from Malta to Havre during the illness of the captain, left the vessel at the latter place and came to Paris, where Mrs. Ogden Golet and Mrs. Arthur Paget were waiting for her. The party is now at the Hotel Ritz.

Mrs. Arthur Paget was overcome with heat during Thursday's race at Chantilly and fainted on the stand. She was carried to her hotel, where she remained prostrated for two days, but was able to return to Paris yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderbilt visited the Pasteur institute under the guidance of Dr. Duclaux, the celebrated director. They saw serum injected into several patients and Mr. Vanderbilt, who is a graduate of the school of shooting these fowl, which are nearly as tame as barnyard hens.

Next morning Mr. Vanderbilt sent $5,000 to aid several poor American students who are attending the institute and whose families are in circumstances and courageous work Dr. Duclaux had mentioned.

Mr. Frank Leslie, who, under the gentle chaffing of his friends, finally decided not to use the title of baroness, which she recently inherited from a distant relative, went to London, where she will remain until the end of the season.

Lady Angley has let her beautiful Paris home and is going to her summer residence at Versailles.

Mr. Astor opened a series of musical receptions at his residence on the Avenue des Champs Elysee Thursday.

The Infanta Eulalia has been given another dinner by Count and Countess Boni de Castellane. The next day an American journalist, Mr. George C. Foster, formerly Miss Madden of New York, took the Infanta and a large party by a special train to her magnificent old chateau at Dieudonne, where a great fete had been prepared, which concluded with a ball that lasted till midnight. The party was compelled to pass the night there, the men camping together in the billiard room and conservatory.

ARRESTED FOR OLD OFFENSE

Lieutenant John M. Neill Asked to Answer to Charge of Voucher Forgery.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 2.—A special from Butte, Mont., to the Times says, an ex-officer of the regular army, stationed at the Presidio near San Francisco, was arrested here last night by a deputy United States marshal on instructions from San Francisco charging him with forgery of vouchers in the army three years ago. He was cashiered from the army three years ago on a charge of having been implicated in alleged pecuniations at the Presidio, but the shortage was made good and nothing further was heard of him until the arrest last night. Neill says he is innocent of the charge of forgery. He has a wife and several children residing in Oakland, Cal. His wife is highly connected socially on the coast. For a year and a half he has been in the employ of Anaconda Mining company as an engineer. He will be taken back to San Francisco.

RESIGNATION OF M'LAURIN

Senator from South Carolina Has Method in His Madness.

WANTS TO DEFEAT APPOINTED SUCCESSOR

Would Expect McSwain to Appoint Man of the Bryan-Tillman Type Whom He Could Meet in 1902.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 2.—A special to the Observer from Bennettsville, S. C., the home of Senator McLauren, says there are good reasons for believing that just prior to the meeting of congress, in December, Senator McLauren will resign and request Governor McSwain to appoint his successor.

Should the senator do this, it is understood he would expect the governor to appoint a man representing the same political views as McLauren. The senator would meet this gentleman in 1902 on the hustings with the purpose of regaining his place in the senate. The senator believes he has as much right to define democratic principles as has Mr. Bryan, Mr. Tillman or any other man.

Mr. McLauren claims that Mr. Bryan and Mr. Tillman both opposed true democracy and advocated populism, socialism and communism. The earnestness with which the fight is to be carried on may be judged from the announcement that a daily morning paper will be established at Columbia with a South Carolina now residing in Richmond, Va., as editor.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS CROWDS

Louisville Has Already Contracted to Accommodate Ten Thousand in Addition to Those in Cars.

LOUISVILLE, June 2.—Thirty-seven different states and territories are already represented in the contracts closed by grand and subordinate commanderies of Knights Templars for quarters during the twenty-eighth triennial convocation of the grand encampment of the United States to be held in Louisville August 27-30. This fact is embodied in a statement given out tonight by Colonel J. T. Gairright, chairman of the committee on hotels and accommodations.

Illinois leads all other states in number of commanderies that have arranged to make pilgrimages, twenty-odd having secured locations for the purpose. The size of the parties averaging 100 knights and women. Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Missouri, West Virginia, Michigan, California, the District of Columbia, Massachusetts and Rhode Island follow in about the order named, with contracts calling for accommodations for from 350 to 1,200 each. The total number of contracts made by the committee provides space for over 10,000 persons. This is independent of about half as many to be cared for by the railroads, all of which entering Louisville have agreed to "mark" sleeping cars for use by pilgrims as quarters, and by steamboat companies with packets in the local harbor.

FIFTEEN MINUTES' ROUGH WEATHER

and About Pittsburgh Leaves Its Mark.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 2.—One of the heaviest spring storms known to the government weather bureau here passed over this section today. The storm lasted only fifteen minutes, but in that time 0.3 of an inch of rain fell, heavy hail ruined many trees and the wind blew down several small houses.

The man, Daniel Martin, may die from the effects of the injuries he received. George Marley, aged 15 years; Frank Sturgis, 13, and Daniel Ashton, aged 18—when dug out of the ruins were in painful condition. EARTH IS YAWNING IN BUTTE

There Are Five Cracks in Town Real Estate and the People Wonder Why.

BUTTE, Mont., June 2.—The strange sliding movement of the city of Butte, which has been noticeable at intervals for several years, has again manifested itself by five large cracks in the earth in different sections of the city. The largest crevice occurs on West Galena street, where a crack, two inches wide and of considerable length and depth has appeared. Three of the openings occurred on the west side of town and two on the east side. There is no saving, but a distinct parting of the earth and the granite walls can easily be seen in them. The cracks in certain portions have much trouble on account of the strange movement, which breaks their underground pipes. City Engineer Rickenbacker says the engineering department of the city experiences the same trouble, as elevators and bench marks in certain portions of the city are constantly changing. This is particularly true of the section west of Main street and north of Broadway, where the marks have been known to shift to the extent of a foot in little time. The continuance of the phenomenon is beginning to cause some alarm among the citizens.

RUSSIA SAFER THAN CHICAGO

Jewish League Appeals for Better Protection, Particularly in the City on the Lake.

CHICAGO, June 2.—At a meeting today of the Chicago Protective league, which formerly was the Jewish Protective league, an appeal for justice was made for the entire Jewish race, both rich and poor. It was pointed out by numerous speakers that while the poor and ignorant were assaulted on Chicago streets the wealthy and educated were persecuted in Russia. It was declared that "capitulation persecutions of the Jews in Russia they were safer from assault in that country than they are on the streets of Chicago. And the charge was made that the laws of Russia are better enforced than are the laws of the city of Chicago."

Severe criticism was made toward many individual members of the Chicago police force for their failure to furnish protection to the members of the association.

FIRE CHARGED TO ROBBERS

Men Who Cracked Postoffice Safe Believed Responsible for Whole Town Burning.

BEAUMONT, Tex., June 2.—The little town of Jasper, capital of Jasper county, was entirely wiped out today. The fire and the charge was made that the laws of Russia are better enforced than are the laws of the city of Chicago."

Previous to the fire, the postoffice safe and the safe of the county treasurer, had been blown open and robbed. The conclusion is that burglars blew open these safes and then set fire to the town to cover up their crime and create an excitement, which would afford them an opportunity to escape.

The loss by fire is estimated at $100,000. It could not be learned what the thieves secured from the safes. The robbers escaped.

THINKS WAR THE ONLY WAY

Father Finn Says He Has Quit the Church to Lead Ireland's Crusade.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Coadjutor Etruria, which has been anchored in the fog all night off Sandy Hook, came to its dock early this morning. It brought over 300 passengers, among them being Rev. Thomas F. Finnan, a graduate of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic college at Carlow, Ireland. He said that he had been ordained as priest and had held charges at New Ross and Blackwater. He explained that he had severed his connection with the Catholic church because he could not preach peace, when he believed that only war could save his country from being depopulated.

"Father" Finn has written books on the immorality of 178 and other Irish subjects. He says that while here he will work for the freedom of Ireland.
