ORDINANCE CONFICTS WITH STATE LAW

Quick Repeal of Its Provisions-Ambulance to he Maintained-Clergyman's Son Arrested for Forgery.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, June 10 .- (special Telegram.) -The Sunday closing ordinance passed by the city council last week was repealed tonight, it having been discovered that its provisions conflicted with the general statutes of the state. The measure sought to allow grocers and butchers to keep their shops open on Sunday.

The council accepted the proposition of the Ladies' Improvement society, agreeing to maintain an ambulance, if purchased by the society.

Arrested for Forgery.

Glen Coulter, a 13-year-old boy, who came here yesterday from Chicago, was arrested tonight for passing bogus checks. It is charged that he signed the name of John Carr to several checks and obtained thereon upward of $50. His father is a minister.

cles and richness to the blood. Promotes Good Health. Prolongs Life. Makes the old young Keeps the young strong. Grapes, Fruits and health giving Herbs are combined in Mull's Grape Tonic, the only remedy of its kind and accepted above everything else in the treatment of Gener-al Debility-Overwork-Profound Depres-sion and Exhaustion and the ills attending a worn out and run down system. Thousands of men, women and children attest to its goodness and laud it for its wonderful curative powers. You are invited to test its merits. Get a large bottle for 50c, almost as large as the $1.60 size of other remedies. One bottle is sufficient for the test. Every dose is worth a dollar to your health. Yours truly. YOUR DRUGGIST. Chion Telephone Sceds Money. ('HiCAGO, June 10.-Central Union Tele-phone stockholders received a shock today in the form of a special circular from John 1. Sabin, the new president of the company, requesting them to consider the best way of securing $2.00000 during the coming year to fluknoe the company. The circular had a deadoning effect upon the stock of the company and at the close of the Chicago exchange it had dropped 9 points a share.
