

GORDON'S GREATEST GAME

Omaha Midget's Ginger and Genie Grid Millers to Duat.

REST OF THE TEAM FOLLOWS SUIT

Both Sides Give a Snappy Exhibition and the Grid Score of Two to One Tickers Nebraska Telegraph Wires.

(From Staff Correspondent) MINNEAPOLIS, June 13.—(Special Telegram.)—The fastest game seen here this season and, as regards time, probably the shortest game played in the league this year, took place at Nicolet park this afternoon between the Millers and the Kidnapers, Omaha winning 2 to 1. It was a snappy and exciting contest, the local team being played in one hour and ten minutes. The fielding on both sides was superb, but one misplay being made during the nine innings, and this error came at a time when the bases were clear and did not figure in the run-getting.

The contest was remarkable in other respects also. Only two passes were issued, five men were left on bases, one man sacrificed and another scored a stolen base. The contest was truly a pitchers' battle between Bones Parvin and Midget Gordon, in which Gordon got the better end of the argument. The pitcher, however, who touched him up pretty lively, hammering out a pair of singles and a double, result in one tally. Then the little fellow settled down and, with the exception of the seventh, when Congalton pounded out two consecutive two-base drives, it was one, two, three for the Millers. Parvin pitched a snappy and steady game, blanking the opposition for the first seven innings. But in the eighth Congalton started trouble for the rambunctious twirler with a single and Tomjan duplicated the trick. Gonting was passed and after Gordon had fanned, Genies, who was white with rage with the wallops, slammed out the fourth single of the game, hammering a pair of kidnapers and winning the game. Genies' batting was a feature. Score: OMAHA, AB R H O A E; Gordon, 2; Parvin, 1; Congalton, 2; Tomjan, 1; Gonting, 2; Genies, 2; Totals, 14 24 9.

NAST'S RIB CRACKS IN FALL

Ploky Oscar Gives Peter Lech Plenty of Wrestling to Do.

After forty-five minutes and forty-five seconds of bitterly fought wrestling, Peter Lech last night secured the first and final fall from Oscar Nast in a wrestling bout for a $50 purse and a $100 side bet, at the Omaha School of Athletic Culture. Ted Boreber was referee and the seconds were J. H. Hagen for Nast and Frank Coleman for Lech.

The match was catch-as-catch-can, pin fall only, rolling falls, flying falls and straight holds being barred. It was lasted two out of three, but Nast's rubbers distanced a score of ten in the first fall. A physician was at hand, pronounced the injury a broken rib and refused to let the little German wrestler proceed further. Lech then emerged, looking fresh and fit, and received the plaudits of the crowd.
