

STATE AFTER SPENDTHRIFTS

Nebraska Board of Supplies Digs Into Affairs at Hastings.

RECKLESSNESS OF FUSION MANAGERS

'Reform' Administration Seems to Have Done Things at Insane Hospital that Will Bear a Little Analyzing - News of State.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 15.—(Special.)—The State Board of Purchase and Supplies this afternoon began an investigation of the extravagant and reckless management of the Hospital for Incurable Insane at Hastings by former Superintendent Beebe, under the fusion reform administration. The matter was called up by the filing of a claim several weeks ago for supplies furnished the institution. Pending an investigation this claim was held under consideration by the board.

Senator Dietrich's Return. Senator Dietrich and his daughter, Miss Gertrude, will return to Lincoln next Tuesday for a last visit before they begin their trip to the Philippine islands. They expect to arrive in San Francisco not later than June 23 and to sail on June 25.

Excursion to Ak-Sar-Ben. Governor Savage expects to have an escort of over 100 statemen, dignitaries and citizens when he appears Monday night at Omaha before Ak-Sar-Ben, king of Quivira. All state officers, members of the good representation of state house employees will be included in the guard, in addition, of course, to the governor's military staff. The delegation will leave Lincoln at 6 o'clock Monday evening and arrive in Omaha at 10:30. Those who survive the perilous Chilkoot journey will return when they are sufficiently recovered to make the trip back to the capital city.

Nightengale's Song Goes Higher. The case of Edward Nightengale against the State, being an action instituted against the former in Douglas county for burglary, has been appealed to the supreme court. Nightengale is charged with having entered a store in South Omaha, in company with three other men, and robbing a cash register of $117, after having forced the proprietor into submission at the point of a revolver. The district court he was found guilty and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

Supreme Court and Commission. The supreme court and commission will meet next Tuesday for their last sitting before the summer vacation. The judges will meet Monday afternoon as usual for informal consultation, but hearing of cases will not be commenced until Tuesday.

Omaha Man's Contract. The State Board of Public Lands and Buildings has awarded a contract for building the fireproof wing to the Hospital for Incurable Insane at Hastings to Robert Butke of Omaha.

Lancaster Teachers' Institute. The twenty-sixth annual session of the Lancaster County Teachers' Institute will begin next Monday and close on the following Friday. The formal opening exercises will be in Soldiers' hall on the university campus, but all business sessions will be held in the county superintendent's department at the court house.

Hill's Lectures on Psychology. Dr. A. R. Hill, professor of philosophy, University of Nebraska, will give a course of ten lectures on educational psychology. A printed outline of the course has been prepared by Dr. Hill for distribution among the teachers. Dr. H. J. Davenport, principal of Lincoln High school, will present the subject of grammar. Dean Charles Fordyce of Wesleyan university will present geography and physiology. Mrs. Mary E. Hart of the Lincoln city schools is to have conducted a primary practice school during the session, but illness prevented. Prof. W. L. Sheetz will give music instead. Mr. G. W. Bishop, vice president of the Lincoln Business college, will have one division each day in bookkeeping.

Weping Water. H. J. Weping, local clerk in Young Men's Christian association circles, disappeared yesterday after fleeing several of his friends for amounts ranging from $5 to $70. Investigation shows that the man has been playing a systematic game of graft, not only in Lincoln, but in cities in the east.

Great Grain Elevator. The gigantic Jacques grain elevator at Seventeenth and Holdrege streets, which will be remembered by everyone who has visited the state fair grounds during the last fifteen years, was entirely destroyed by fire this afternoon. The flames started, it is believed, in the elevator at the top of the building by tramps. All of the grain had been taken out of the building. The property was insured for $5,000 and a man associated with the owner said this afternoon that the amount would about cover the loss.

P. E. O. CONVENTION IS ENDED. Chapter closes at Minden with Election of Omaha Woman as Organizer.

MINDEN, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—The P. E. O. convention closed last night with a banquet. The officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mary Johnson; first vice president, Mrs. Kate Barbour; second vice president, Mrs. Lawrence Vance; recording secretary, Mrs. Duffenbacher; York; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edith Youngstedt; Washington; treasurer, Mrs. Candace Black; Bloomington; organizer, Mrs. Jennie Burch; Omaha. Delegates to supreme grand chapter, which will convene in Des Moines in October: Mrs. Hopeman, Minden; Mrs. Kinckel, Minden; Miss Penton, Wynome; Mrs. Scott, Hastings; Mrs. Fisher, Omaha; Mrs. Thomas, Nelson; Mrs. Bretzner, Broken Bow; Mrs. Burch, South Omaha.

Hastings Alumni Banquet. HASTINGS, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—The alumni banquet and reception of Hastings high school was in Knights of Pythias hall last night and was attended by 200. At the business meeting Alex Pump was elected president; Kathleen Bierce, vice president; Harriet Bigelow, secretary; Albert Goebel, treasurer.

FULLERTON COMMENCEMENT. FULLERTON, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—The commencement exercises of the Fullerton high school were in the opera house Friday evening. The graduates are: Edith Ray, Edith Fitzgerald, Nettie Havens, Oscar

COMMENCEMENT AT CHADRON

Academy Graduates Mark Close of Most Successful Year in History of School.

CHADRON, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Last night closed the commencement exercises of Chadron academy for one of the most successful years in the history of the school. The exercises began Sunday, June 9, with a benediction by Rev. J. H. Young, pastor of the Congregational church, followed by an address to the students in the evening by Rev. Lee H. Young, rector of Grace Episcopal church of this place. The exercises occupied the remainder of the week, consisting of a banquet by the alumni Monday evening, concert Tuesday evening, class program Wednesday evening and commencement exercises Thursday evening. Thursday evening then Principal Oberkötter presented diplomas. The present faculty, consisting of Principal W. M. Oberkötter and Assistants George C. Moore and Misses Blanche Finch and Mabel Duren, with Mrs. E. R. Price and daughter of the school of music, has been retained and a vocal department, in charge of Miss Mary Batty, added. Chadron academy is the only institution of higher education in this section of the state.

INMATE COMMITS SUICIDE. Rudolf Gutwold of Poor Farm at Columbus Ends His Life by Hanging.

COLUMBUS, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Rudolf Gutwold, an inmate of the poor farm, committed suicide at an early hour this morning by hanging from a tree in the yard. He had dressed himself in clean underwear and had on a clean shirt. He had been at the poor farm for a couple of years and his mind was gradually growing weaker. He was 38 years old, a native of Germany and had lived in this country twenty-four years. He has a sister in Custer county. Coroner Metz was notified and an inquest will be held.

TEAM RUNS INTO COWS. Runaway Horses at Stanton Play Havoc Among the Towns.

STANTON, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—A team belonging to W. H. Porter, driven Wednesday by one of the Porter boys, became frightened and ran away, but was stopped near the railroad track, when a handcar approached, loaded with men shouting and waving hats, which started the excited team of cattle, which ran toward a pasture where the town cows were being brought home. One cow was injured and a valuable cow belonging to C. H. Chace was killed. The horses were not badly hurt.

ALMQUIST'S DEBTS GROW. Liabilities of Man Who Fled from Wahoo Reach Seven Thousand Dollars.

MEAD, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Over $7,000 in amount of debts are known to be owing by C. H. Almquist, who fled two weeks ago. M. P. Linn is one of the heaviest losers, coming out with $4,000 behind, besides the note of $500 with his name attached as an endorser. The bank of Ithaca is in for $900 and Allen, Dudley & Co. of South Omaha loaned him $1,200 on thirty-three head of cattle, which his representative cannot find. It is reported that he gave mortgages on 200 head of cattle to different parties and only had thirty-three in his feed yard. The note of $500 given the Saunders County National bank bears the names of M. P. Linn, John Erickson and L. Swanson as sureties.

Geneva Real Estate Improvement. GENEVA, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Several firms are getting up in the city. Among them are houses for Mr. Beames of the firm of Beames & Bolton, lumbermen; C. A. Trotter, cashier of the Geneva National bank, and G. R. Green, jeweler. Mr. Reeves, of the firm of Reeves & Son, will build a large double store on the lots where eight years ago the store buildings were destroyed by fire.

County Assessments Higher. WEST POINT, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—The County Board of Supervisors has finished the work of equalization of the county assessments. The assessed valuation for the county of all classes of property is as follows: Land and city lots, $1,688,272; personal property, $125,574; railroads, $149,357; total, $2,443,133. The assessment is higher than last year.

Beatrice Boy Goes to West Point. BEATRICE, Neb., June 15.—(Special Telegram.)—Hugo D. Schultz, who won the cadetship to West Point here in March, has been endorsed by Congressman Stark and has received notice to report for final examination. Mr. Schultz will start for West Point Monday to take examination preparatory to entering upon his military training in September.

Masons Install Officers. CRETE, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Crete lodge No. 37, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, installed these officers last night: M. H. Fleming, W. M.; H. Wilsenburg, S. W.; O. C. Steinhilber, J. W.; J. A. W. Atwater, secretary; Joseph Kopeckey, treasurer; Kinzmann, S. D.; Edgar Rector, J. D.; H. G. Gasser, Tyler; C. Marcelino and L. M. Malone, stewards.

Flag Given to Company D. WEEPING WATER, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Flag day was celebrated by the citizens of Weeping Water. At 3 o'clock Company D, Nebraska National Guard, and the band headed for the park, where music and speeches were interspersed. At the close of the program the Woman's Relief corps presented a handsome flag to Company D.

Hundred Teachers at Ord. ORD, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—The Valley county teachers' institute has never been better attended than on this year. There are over 100 teachers here, under the direction of County Superintendent L. Blessing, assisted by Superintendent Atkinson of York and Stockdale of Arlington. Examinations for certificates will be next week.

Dixon County Institute. PONCA, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Dixon county institute convenes here June 17 and continues a week. The instructors are Superintendent C. A. Palmer of Pawnee City; W. N. Kern, David City; E. P. Wilson, Ponca, and Miss Ellen O'Connor, Sioux City. Chancellor Andrews of the State university will lecture June 20.

Branding Texas Cattle. LONG PINE, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Fifteen thousand head of cattle have been branded at the railroad stock yards at this place in the last few weeks. They are mostly Texas cattle on their way to the Black Hills. Five thousand more have been unloaded and fed.

Officers for Alumni. HASTINGS, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—At the business meeting of the alumni of Hastings college these officers were elected:

KELLEY, STIGER & CO. WE INVITE INSPECTION. WE URGE COMPARISON.

Waists are Mid-Season Requisites. We have very choice and original ideas at inexpensive prices.

New Arrivals—White Lawn Waists $1.25. First-class in every respect.

White Dainty Summer Waists $1.50. A Giesha Waist, worth $2.00. Daintiness in the extreme. Usual elegant embroidery, pretty hemstitching, soft tucked, detached collars.

Mercerized Zephyr Waists $1.50. Negligee collar, skillful stitching, superior in every detail—new shades of heliotrope, cadet, oxford and red.

New Arrivals in Grass Linen Waists $1.50. Stitched and fine tucked Giesha Waist—unbleached grass linen—very fashionable bargain.

Warm Weather Dressy Silk Waists. White or black Japanese—fine, yet light weight—original and pretty models at $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00.

White Underclothing for Ladies. Quotations worthy of your attention.

Silk Etons. Taffeta and Peau de Soie—$10.00—$15.00 and $20.00.

White Petticoats with the proper hang—low prices. Best Muslin Skirts—75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00—lace trimmed or embroidery finished and ruffled.

Corsets for Summer Days—Corsets for Comfort. Ventilated Corsets—25c, 50c, $1.00.

For Boys or Girls—Silks of the Moment. Printed Pongee—24-inch—65c—Persian and Turkish effects.

Crepe de Chine—24-inch—$1.00. 41-inch Grosgrain—$1.00. All styles pure sewing silk.

Crepe de Chine—24-inch—$1.00. 41-inch Grosgrain—$1.00. All styles pure sewing silk.

Crepe de Chine—24-inch—$1.00. 41-inch Grosgrain—$1.00. All styles pure sewing silk.

Crepe de Chine—24-inch—$1.00. 41-inch Grosgrain—$1.00. All styles pure sewing silk.

Crepe de Chine—24-inch—$1.00. 41-inch Grosgrain—$1.00. All styles pure sewing silk.

CORNER FARNAM AND FIFTEENTH STREETS.

MORE GRAFTERS AT HASTINGS. Sixty Michael Hess has Bounced Other Sharpers Come to Town.

ONE MAN WANTS LOAN ON DIAMONDS. Another Party Wants to Sell Lined Oil at Cheap Rate with Assurance of Getting Rich Mighty Quick.

Wheat Gives Good Promise. HARVARD, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Though every day gives indications of no rain, none has fallen since the first of the week, which half an inch revived crops and winter wheat gives good promise.

Attempt at Burglary. MEAD, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—An attempt was made to break into Carlson & Martinson's hardware store last night. The burglars must have been suddenly scared as they left their tools in front of the door.

Full Crop of Strawberries. FULLERTON, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—A large crop of strawberries is being harvested in this vicinity. The cherries, which promise a bountiful supply, will be ripe enough for market next week.

Geneva Crops Look Well. GENEVA, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Crops look well. Corn is a little backward and rain needed. Prospects indicate an abundance of fruit of all kinds.

Flag Day at Harvard. HARVARD, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Flag day was observed by Patchell's post at its hall in this city yesterday, followed by a supper.

Two More Smallpox Cases. COLUMBUS, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Two more cases of smallpox were reported to the Board of Health yesterday.

Ord Gets Over an Inch. ORD, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Last night over an inch of rain fell and every thing indicates more today.

Hymeneal. Three Approaching Weddings. HURON, S. D., June 15.—(Special.)—Interesting approaching society events are the marriage of Miss Nellie M. Cogswell of this city and Frank L. Gillard of Sleepy Eye, Minn. The ceremony will occur on the evening of July 17, at the home of the bride's parents.

Christian Endeavorers Convene. PONCA, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—The Northeast Nebraska Christian Endeavor convention is in session at this place. One hundred delegates are in attendance from Dixon, Dakota, Cedar, Thurston and Wayne counties.

Leigh is to Celebrate. LEIGH, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Leigh is making preparations to celebrate the Fourth of July. One hundred and fifty dollars has been subscribed to defray expenses.

Officers for Alumni. HASTINGS, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—At the business meeting of the alumni of Hastings college these officers were elected:

LOSE LOCKS IN LINCOLN. Barbers Are Besieged at Midnight and They Are Final "Next".

MARAUDERS DENUDE THEIR SCALPS. Wilson and Myers Claim Spite Work on the Part of Men Who Took Offense at Their Non-Union Methods.

ONLY ONE KNOWN TO BE DEAD. Grand Jury to Investigate Accident to Transport Ingalls While in Dry Dock.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. Beats the Record for June—Fears that Warm Weather Will Cause Floods.

DEATH RECORD. Mrs. William Lately, whose death occurred Thursday, June 6, was born at Cardiff, Wales, April 30, 1843. She came to America in 1855, was married at Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1859 and located in Omaha in 1868, where she resided until the time of her demise.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

LOSE LOCKS IN LINCOLN. Barbers Are Besieged at Midnight and They Are Final "Next".

MARAUDERS DENUDE THEIR SCALPS. Wilson and Myers Claim Spite Work on the Part of Men Who Took Offense at Their Non-Union Methods.

ONLY ONE KNOWN TO BE DEAD. Grand Jury to Investigate Accident to Transport Ingalls While in Dry Dock.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. Beats the Record for June—Fears that Warm Weather Will Cause Floods.

DEATH RECORD. Mrs. William Lately, whose death occurred Thursday, June 6, was born at Cardiff, Wales, April 30, 1843. She came to America in 1855, was married at Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1859 and located in Omaha in 1868, where she resided until the time of her demise.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

HEAVY SNOWS IN MOUNTAINS. DENVER, June 15.—Despatches from Leadville, Cripple Creek and other places in the mountains say that fully a foot of snow fell last night. At many points it was the heaviest snowfall ever known in June since a record has been kept. The weather is mild today and dangerous floods may result.

Wash Goods. June is the month of months for warm weather fabrics. You will find us stocked with the latest and it's our binding agreement to furnish best qualities at lowest prices.

Novelties in Laces. Another shipment of popular novelties just received.

Black Chantilly Lace Galleons. Very effective designs—at 12 1/2c, 15c, 18c, 20c, 25c and 25c a yard.

White, Cream and ECRU Novelty Lace Galleons. In Point Paris, Point Alencon, cut out effects, etc.—at 9c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c and 25c a yard.

White, Cream and ECRU All-Over Laces. In Point Paris, Mecklin, cut effects, etc.—at 45c, 50c, 55c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.25 a yard.

Tucked Mouseline de Soie. Special value, $1.75 a yard.

43-inch ALL SILK FRENCH CHIFFON. Special value, 45c a yard.

4-inch black ALL SILK TORSA COSTUME NET. Special $1.35 a yard; worth $2.00.

EMBROIDERED DOT CHIFFON VEILING. All colors, 50c a yard.

PLAIN AND FANCY MESH TUXEDO VEILING. At 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c and 50c a yard.

ECRU LINON BATISTE EMBROIDERIES. Edges, insertions, galleons and all-overs to match.

NAINSOOK AND SWISS EMBROIDERED INSERTIONS. At 8c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c and 25c a yard.

NAINSOOK AND SWISS BEADINGS. At 8c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c and 25c a yard.

LADIES' LEATHER BELTS. In all the latest fashions and buckles. At 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 each.

LADIES' LEATHER CHATELAINES. In seal, morocco, sea lion, alligator, etc.—at 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.45 each.

LADIES' CUT STEEL BEADED CHATELAINES. New assortment—at $3.75, $4.50, $5.50, $6.50 and $7.50 each.

LADIES' FOLDING JAPANESE FANS. Latest novelties—at 10c, 15c, 25c and 35c each.

LADIES' II. S. SHEER IRISH LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS. 4 1/2, 5 1/2 and 6 1/2 inch hems—special 15c each; worth 22 1/2c.

LADIES' NEW DOROTHEA COLLARS. 13c, 20c, 25c and 50c each.

LADIES' NEW ALEXANDER COLLARS. 25c and 50c each.

LADIES' HOT WEATHER NECKWEAR. In every fashionable style—at 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 50c up to $1.50.

NEWBERRY CASE TO BE TRIED. SANDUSKY, O., June 15.—As a result of the failure to reach a settlement out of court by the interested parties it now seems probable that the injunction and alimony suit brought against Prof. Spencer Newberry by his wife recently will come to trial. Mrs. Newberry is the daughter of Andrew D. White, United States ambassador to Germany.

STATE GETS TWO WEATHERS. Western Part to Enjoy Sunshine While Showers Temper Heat in the East.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Forecast for Sunday and Monday: For Nebraska and Kansas—Fair in western, showers and cooler in eastern portion Sunday and Monday; westerly winds. For Illinois—Showers and probably thunderstorms, with lower temperature, Sunday afternoon or night; Monday, showers and cooler; brisk easterly winds and squalls.

Wash Goods. June is the month of months for warm weather fabrics. You will find us stocked with the latest and it's our binding agreement to furnish best qualities at lowest prices.

Novelties in Laces. Another shipment of popular novelties just received.

Black Chantilly Lace Galleons. Very effective designs—at 12 1/2c, 15c, 18c, 20c, 25c and 25c a yard.

White, Cream and ECRU Novelty Lace Galleons. In Point Paris, Point Alencon, cut out effects, etc.—at 9c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c and 25c a yard.

White, Cream and ECRU All-Over Laces. In Point Paris, Mecklin, cut effects, etc.—at 45c, 50c, 55c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.25 a yard.

Tucked Mouseline de Soie. Special value, $1.75 a yard.

43-inch ALL SILK FRENCH CHIFFON. Special value, 45c a yard.

4-inch black ALL SILK TORSA COSTUME NET. Special $1.35 a yard; worth $2.00.

EMBROIDERED DOT CHIFFON VEILING. All colors, 50c a yard.

PLAIN AND FANCY MESH TUXEDO VEILING. At 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c and 50c a yard.

ECRU LINON BATISTE EMBROIDERIES. Edges, insertions, galleons and all-overs to match.

NAINSOOK AND SWISS EMBROIDERED INSERTIONS. At 8c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c and 25c a yard.

NAINSOOK AND SWISS BEADINGS. At 8c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c and 25c a yard.

LADIES' LEATHER BELTS. In all the latest fashions and buckles. At 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 each.

LADIES' LEATHER CHATELAINES. In seal, morocco, sea lion, alligator, etc.—at 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.45 each.

LADIES' CUT STEEL BEADED CHATELAINES. New assortment—at $3.75, $4.50, $5.50, $6.50 and $7.50 each.

LADIES' FOLDING JAPANESE FANS. Latest novelties—at 10c, 15c, 25c and 35c each.

LADIES' II. S. SHEER IRISH LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS. 4 1/2, 5 1/2 and 6 1/2 inch hems—special 15c each; worth 22 1/2c.

LADIES' NEW DOROTHEA COLLARS. 13c, 20c, 25c and 50c each.

LADIES' NEW ALEXANDER COLLARS. 25c and 50c each.

LADIES' HOT WEATHER NECKWEAR. In every fashionable style—at 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 50c up to $1.50.

NEWBERRY CASE TO BE TRIED. SANDUSKY, O., June 15.—As a result of the failure to reach a settlement out of court by the interested parties it now seems probable that the injunction and alimony suit brought against Prof. Spencer Newberry by his wife recently will come to trial. Mrs. Newberry is the daughter of Andrew D. White, United States ambassador to Germany.

STATE GETS TWO WEATHERS. Western Part to Enjoy Sunshine While Showers Temper Heat in the East.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Forecast for Sunday and Monday: For Nebraska and Kansas—Fair in western, showers and cooler in eastern portion Sunday and Monday;