Chairman of Board of Equalisation Says Notices Will Be Issued.

BIG CORPORATIONS MUST SHOW CAUSE

Householders Who Have Striven Long to Own Their Homes Object to Tax Discrimination in Favor of the Big Concerns.

Chairman Connolly of the Board Equalization said yesterday that all the big corporations whose property had been assessed by the county assessors at less than 10 per cent of its actual value would be notified within a day or two to appear and show cause why their assessments should not be raised. This means that the Omaha Street Railway company, assessed at 2.29 per cent of its actual value; the Omaha Gas company, assessed at 2.41 per cent; the Omaha Water company, assessed at 1.16 per cent; the Nebraska Telephone company, assessed at 3.9 per cent; the New Omaha Thomson-Hous-ton Electric Light company, assessed at 3.6 per cent; the Cudaby Packing company, assessed at 2.00 per cent; the Union Stock Yards company, assessed at 1.5 per cent; Armour & Co., assessed at 2.29 per cent; Swift and Company, assessed at 5.17 per cent; the Omaha Packing company, assessed at 5.87 per cent, and many other big tax shirkers are to be called to account. Many small property owners are complaining that they have been assessed in excess of 16 per cent of the actual value of their property and are demanding a reduction. In order to reduce any of these excessive assessments and to increase the tax revenue to a sufficient amount to meet the demands of the county it will be necessary for the Board of Equalization to raise the assessments against the big corporations

City Clerk W. H. Elbourn has filed with the County Board of Equalization a complaint against the assessment laid against certain lots of his in Maryville addition. He says the lots are not worth more than $1,500 and they are assessed at more than one third of that amount, while similar lots in the same neighborhood are assessed as low as one-fifth of their actual value.

"I protest," says Mr. Elbourn in his complaint, "against being assessed at onethird of the actual cash value of my property when it is a well known fact that there are millions of dollars worth of property in this county which is assessed at less than 5 per cent of its actual cash

Complaint of Small Owner.

J. C. Holtorf, owner of the house and lot on the northwest corner of Farnam and Twentieth streets, complains that his property is assessed at about 25 per cent of its actual cash value, while that of John A. Creighton on the opposite corner is assessed at less than 10 per cent and that of the Cudahy Packing company in South Omaha at less than 5 per cent.

The Board of Equalization will probably notify the officials of the street railway. gas, water, electric light, telephone, smelting and packing companies, all of whom have been assessed at a ridiculously low percentage, to appear some time this week and show cause, if there is any, why their assessments should not be raised.

Shy on Household Goods. According to the returns made by County Assessor A. E. Hubbard all of the household goods in Platte Valley precinct are worth only $420. Personal property is supposed to be assessed at one-sixth of its in Jefferson, $2,035, and in West Omaha, $6,147. The people of Valley precinct are no poorer in household effects than those of the neighboring precincts, but the assessor evidently does not believe in taxing such property.

WILL CALL TAX SHIRKERS STILL DISCUSSING REDELL

Commercial Club Committee Revives Matter Already Officially Settled.

At the regular meeting of the executive committee of the commercial club yesterday report was submitted by the committee appointed at a prior meeting to ascertain NO EVIDENCE TO CONVICT THEM whether or not there are any available means by which ex-Chief Redell could be retained at the head of the fire department. C. F. Weller submitted a report to the effect that the decision of Judge Estelle left the Commercial club without any recourse in the matter.

The report brought out considerable discussion, in which every speaker expressed a willingness to fight if only the weapons were provided. Euclid Martin was especially in favor of making every effort possible to retain Redell, declaring that the charges were trumped up against that official, and that the entire conduct of the anti-Redell force had been fraudulent both in regard to Redell and the club. It would be cowardly in the club not to stand up for Redell, ever though another chief were suggested who would be just as good, as the merchants had brought him here and he had been a good chief. Remarks were also heard favorable to Redell from C. F. Weller, E. E. Bruce and a number of others, after which the committee was continued to still keep up its search for means of restoring Redell to the head of the department.

Secretary Utt was instructed to prepare a letter to the officials of the Rock Island railway urging the construction of a cutnatures of the business men of this city. This is in pursuance of the project discussed in last Monday's issues of The Bee for supplying Omaha with a line of railway that will open up to Omaha trade the territory through which the proposed Emporia line was intended to run.

PAINT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

Evidence of High School Cadets' Hilarity is Visible in Many Places.

Notwithstanding the denial of Principal Waterhouse of the High school that the celebration of cadet Company D's victory in the competitive drill was carried beyond the limits of seemly conduct, ample evidence still remains in various parts of the city of a lavish use of the paint brush. It appears that the victors did not confine heir "decoration" to the vicinity of Capitol hill, but extended it to localities comparatively remote from that seat of learn-

It seems also that Company C turned out o help "paint the town." The results of their handiwork are seen in many places, among others the following: On a new billboard at Eleventh and Douglas streets, on the granatoid pavement at Seventeenth and Dodge streets, on the south side of the county jail, on the sidewalk at Sixteenth and Dodge streets, on the sidewalk at Twentieth and Dodge streets, on the architect's sign next to the new High . hool building and on the staircases inside the

GANG LEAVES TOWN

Bessie Moore and Her Pale Are Given Hours by the Police.

Further Search of Trunk Deepens the Shadow of Tragic Romance Which Clusters About the Evil Woman's Career.

The American trunk is said to be the home of the American mystery, and such it proves to be in the case of Bessie Moore, who, with her four companions, has been in the city jail for a week. She is one of the gang of confidence workers raided near Seventeenth and Chicago streets, and her Saratoga, which is of enormous size, has been furnishing the detectives with some rare entertainment. The contents were subjected to a final overhauling yesterday and as nothing came to light that would warrant holding them longer, the entire party was discharged and given hours to

Letters and newspaper clippings in the trunk have already furnished material for one romance in the life of its owner. They have told of jail deliveries, hinted at suicides and marriages in jail and related in touching terms the facts connected with the elaborate funeral of Frank Kelso, the off from South Bend, Cass county, to Mc- all-round crook. But this last inspection Farland, Kan., which will receive the sig- of the hump-backed chest has yielded another chapter in "the story of her life." Here is an excerpt from one of the let-

Frank is awfully blue because I don't write to him any more than I do and I think now is the right time to get in your work. Send in the little blue steel one in chicker, dressing or something. He'll think you intend to help him get away.

This letter was written to Charlie Moore about Frank Kelso while the latter was in jail at Boston, Tex. Bessie Moore, at that time Kelso's unfaithful wife, was the writer. She wanted to get rid of him. The 'little blue steel one" was sent. It was a pistol. With this weapon Frank Kelso ended his life in the Boston jail and then Bessie Kelso became Bessie Moore. One more triumph for woman's cunning.

PEARSE DISCUSSES CHANGE

Superintendent Looks Upon High School Plan as an Experiment.

"Working High school teachers regularly for six periods of forty minutes each day, instead of five periods, as has been the practice in the past, is something of an experiment. It is impossible to tell exactly what the result will be," Superintendent Pearse remarked in discussing the reduction of the teaching force at the High school and the increase in the amount of work to be done by each teacher. "This change was carefully considered and information was gathered concerning the practice in all the leading high schools in the country. It was found that five classes is the average work given to teachers. In Kansas City the teachers work during six periods and in Chicago and several other cities they work only four periods

"In some branches six classes will probably be too much for one teacher. However, it is not likely that the extra work will be heavy enough to impair the efficiency of the instruction in the High school A year's trial of the new plan will test it

Ira D. Reckard, Duncombe, Ia., writes: "My little boy scalded his leg from the knee to the ankle. I used Banner Salve immediately and in three weeks' time it was almost entirely healed. I want to recommend it to every family and advise them to keep Banner Salve on hand, as it is a sure remedy for scalds or any sores."
