Walking Skirts

WALKING SKIRTS, like the shirt waist, have come to stay—now since the outing season has commenced, we have made preparations for a large business—nearly every day we shall show something new—our assortment for Saturday is very complete—prices from $6.50 to $12.00.

SEPARATE DRESS SKIRTS—Selling as we do only choice, new styles, "fitted by experts," ladies are always sure of being perfectly satisfied with their purchases at Thompson, Belden & Co.

WASH PETTICOATS, in fine gingham, cut extra full and wide, well made—like all our goods—price, 75c.

WRAPPERS—we believe there is more honest value in the wrapper than we sell for $1.00 than the much heralded cheap stuff sold as bargains.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S GREAT HAIL

Chunks of Ice Seven Inches Long Fell Rapid City—Hatch Houses Smashed.

RAPID CITY, S. D., June 21.—(Special Telegram)—A terrific hail storm passed over this city today, doing great damage to buildings. Few houses escaped with whole windows. Hailstones seven inches long fell. Six miles west of the city the storm took the nature of a tornado. The houses on the Little ranch, occupied by F. N. Allen and family, were demolished and the inmates barely escaped death. Trees were torn up by the roots and carried long distances. The Silver City mail carrier and a woman passenger were overtaken and the buggy was demolished, both people being severely bruised.

CYCLONE FRIGHT KILLS WOMAN

Mrs. James Parshall of Budget is Added to the Storm's Death List.

BUTTE, Neb., June 21.—(Special Telegram)—Mrs. James Parshall, wife of the owner of the Budget roller mill, Budget, Holt county, died at 6 o'clock tonight as a result of fright from the cyclone last night.

Lightning Kills Two Horses.

STANTON, Neb., June 21.—(Special Telegram)—Another fatal visit to this section last night, accompanied by a severe electrical storm. Lightning struck and killed two horses belonging to A. G. Maderow, who lives near the high school building. The Elkhorn river continues to rise and there is fear that it will cut into the millrace, which is being constructed south of town. During the last ten days 5.75 inches of rain have fallen.

Fields and Buildings Damaged.

VERMILION, S. D., June 21.—(Special Telegram)—Farmer's fields, sheds and barns were damaged last night to a great extent by wind, rain and hail. Carl Knudson's large farm house was badly twisted. In Vermilion the storm was terrific, but little damage resulted.

GETS NEW JERSEY JUSTICE

Court's Instructions Result in Conviction of Thomas Barker. SENTENCE TO BE PASSED NEXT THURSDAY

Counsel for the Arlington Assailant of Rev. Keller Will Then File Appeal to Supreme Court.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The jury before which Thomas G. Barker of Arlington, N. J., was tried for shooting with intent to kill Rev. John Keller of the same town, took one ballot last afternoon and returned with a verdict of guilty. Under the charge of the court they could do little else. The jurors were told that they must set aside all else and decide only if Barker, with intent, fired at Keller. That was the law and they must obey it.

Notice of appeal was given by Barker's counsel. Barker tonight found himself once more an inmate of the county jail. He must remain there until $10,000 bail is furnished. Before him stands a possible seven years' imprisonment and a fine of as much as $2,000.

Mrs. Barker was not in the courtroom to hear the verdict. She was in another part of the courthouse and when told of the verdict sobbed bitterly. Mr. Keller was also absent and showed no emotion when told of the verdict.

Barker had expected an acquittal. He based his hopes on the strong plea of his counsel, when he dwelt upon the unwritten law that a man has a right to kill where the sanctity of his home is assailed. Whatever the effect of this line of pleading upon the jury, it was swept away by the cold charge of the court that "the story of the alleged outrage, or the outrage itself, if true, was no justification of the defendant's assault."

The court explained that he had admitted evidence that Barker had been told of an alleged assault, not because it had anything to do with the case, but because it was for the jury to determine if the story had anything to do with making the defendant originally irresponsible. If they believed the defendant's statement in the assault at once and, failing that, they would have made a confidant of a woman and not of another man.

The jury's only ballot was unanimous for guilty and a unit for the highest degree charged. Mr. Keller, as soon as the trial was ended, issued a brief statement in which he absolutely denied the truth of the allegations that have been made and published by Mrs. Barker. Barker will probably be sentenced on Thursday next and then his counsel will file the papers in an appeal to the supreme court.

Barker, in an interview tonight, said: "I did not expect such a verdict. I believed that no twelve men would convict me after hearing my wife's story. I believe that the supreme court will give me a new trial and that then my wife's story will be told."

MORRISON EVIDENCE IS IN

Murder Trial at Eldorado Adjourned Till Monday—Consisting Statements Are Made.

KANSAS CITY, June 21.—A special to the Star from Eldorado, Kan., says: Jesse Morrison's defense in her second trial for the murder of Mrs. Olla Castle was closed this morning. Then for a peculiar reason, the case was postponed until Monday morning, when arguments will begin. J. W. Stool, one of the jurors, is a Seventh Day Adventist and after the evidence was announced all in, he asked Judge Algram to excuse him from service tomorrow, in deference to this religious belief. The judge adjourned court two days. Arguments will commence nearly two days.

TAKE IS FOR BILLY MASON

First County Convention Held Since Dawes Declared Himself Stricken by the Present Senator.

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill., June 21.—Today at the Lake county convention, the first convention held since Controller Dawes announced himself a candidate for United States senator, resolutions were adopted, which, after commending the president, the governor and the two Illinois senators, contained the following in regard to United States Senator William E. Mason, who is a candidate to succeed himself:

Resolved, That we are proud of the brilliant junior senator from Illinois, who has won for himself the distinction of being an independent thinker, a fearless and vigorous debater, loyal to his country and to the interests of the people, a representative and a sturdy advocate and champion of republican principles.

Much interest attached to today's convention, as this is what Mr. Dawes claims as his home district. Senator Mason was invited to speak to the delegates and was given a rousing reception.

JUST RASHLY BUNT AHEAD

Captain Slocum Reports British Commanders More Brave Than Cautious or Resourceful.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Captain S. L. M. Slocum, Eighth cavalry, who was military attaché with the British army during the early part of the Boer war, has made his report to the War department. At the time of the British defeat at Colenso, December 15, 1900, Captain Slocum considered the situation of the British the most critical. They had been defeated all along the line, and had the Boers assumed offensive operations the English army, with long and thinly guarded lines, would have been placed in great jeopardy.

"If they were less brave there would have been many less faults and more victories in this war. Caution they have not, but just bunt ahead and take the consequences. Lord Roberts is a shining and glaring exception to this rule. He is a man to be reckoned with by a remarkable man and general."

He says the English artillery had tremendous preponderance over that of the Boers, who rarely ever used their artillery. Captain Slocum says smokeless powder enables an army to conceal itself, although the Boers were not to be taken by surprise. Balloons and powerful telescopes must be used to locate an enemy.

Speaking of the march of the British army from Bloemfontein to Pretoria he dwells on the indifference of the officers to enforce orders for safety and the reluctance of the soldiers to attack themselves. The infantry never push in their attack, but march calmly forward.

Captain Slocum saw mounted men waiting for orders to advance all erect, making a perfect target for the rifle at short range. He says:

"They have not the individuality and resources of our men, but for indomitable courage, uncompromising fortitude and implicit obedience they are beyond criticism."
