HENNINGS BREAKS RECORDS

Remarkably Complete Showing in the Collection of City Taxes.

WORK OF LAST YEAR IS ECLIPSED

Financial Status of City More Carefully Guarded Than Ever—Hennings Impresses Fact that Personal Taxes Should Be Paid.

More than 65 per cent of the city taxes on Omaha ready for 1901 have already been paid and 75 per cent of the personal taxes levied for the year is in the hands of City Treasurer A. H. Hennings.

This distances all records for tax collections in Omaha. It is even better than the record Mr. Hennings made in 1900, when 60.7 per cent of the taxes on realty and 73.5 per cent of the personal taxes were collected before July 1, the date upon which city taxes became delinquent.

The amount of taxes collected this year before July 1 was $745,258.17. Of this sum $580,206.21 was on realty and $165,051.96 were personal taxes. The total receipts of the city treasurer's office for June amounted to $772,435.15 and the disbursements for the month were $237,909.41.

Previous to July 1, 1900, Mr. Hennings collected $469,026.26 in taxes on realty for that year and $134,334.48 in personal taxes, a total of $603,360.74.

A comparison of Mr. Hennings' collections with those of 1900, the year before the present treasurer came into office, shows the great change that has been brought about in the financial affairs of the city.

Three Times as Much. In 1899 23 1/2 per cent of the taxes on realty had been paid into the treasury by July 1 and 21 per cent of the personal taxes was in the treasurer's hands. Mr. Hennings has succeeded in collecting nearly three times as much taxes on realty and more than three times as much personal taxes as was collected two years ago.

The 1899 tax collections previous to July 1 of that year amounted to $169,905, as against $745,258.17 for the present year. The realty taxes paid in 1899 previous to July 1 amounted to $149,122.75 and the amount of personal taxes paid was $20,782.74.

Mr. Hennings' unique method of collecting personal taxes have had a good effect on the city treasury. The greatest improvement has been in the collection of personal taxes. The personal tax collections for the present year here $166,092.89, as against $52,742.74 for 1899.

"Before this man Hennings came into office many Omahans didn't know that there was such a thing as personal taxes," a well known attorney remarked. "I know lots of men who paid no personal tax simply because they knew no steps would be taken to force collection. But things are different now. And it is better for everyone in the city. People won't object to paying personal taxes after they get used to it. It came a little hard at first, but Hennings' work is so strong that people see there is no use in protesting."

POISONED BY BELLADONNA

Eight New Haven Boys Mistake It for Alcohol and One is Dead.

NEW HAVEN, Vt., July 5.—Steven Kay, aged 14, is dead and seven other boys are dangerously ill as a result of drinking wine containing belladonna yesterday. The boys poured the poison into some wine they had, thinking it was alcohol.

Seasonable Fashions

3870 Cascook Gown.

Woman's Cascook Night Gown, No. 3870.—The night gown that is modeled on the priest's robe, or, more properly, the choir boy's cotta, is the latest whim of fashion and is much liked by those women who have tested its merits. It is simple, amply full, essentially comfortable, free at the throat and withal involves the minimum of labor. There is no opening; therefore there are no buttons to be made. The gown is simply gathered at the upper portion and joined to a narrow yoke of cambray. The sleeves are full and allow perfect freedom. As shown, the gown is made of nainsook, but cambric, long cloth and mull are all used.

To cut this gown for a woman of medium size 6 1/2 yards of material 36 inches wide will be required, with 1 1/2 yards of insertion to trim as illustrated. The pattern 3870 is cut in three sizes—large, medium and small.

For the accommodation of The Bee's readers these patterns, which usually retail at from 25 to 50 cents, will be furnished at a nominal price, 10 cents, which covers all expense. In order to see any pattern enclose 10 cents, give number and name of pattern wanted and best measure. Allow about ten days from date of your letter before beginning to look for the pattern. Address, Pattern Department, Omaha Bee.

LAW TOLERATES IDLENESS

Defendant in Diverse Suit Cannot Be Compelled to Work.

UNIQUE POINT IN CASE OF McDONALD

Judge Estelle Rules that No Man Can Be Enjoined from Supporting Another—McDonald Need Not Work.

Judge Estelle has decided that a man whose wife has an uncollectible claim for temporary alimony cannot be enjoined from living in idleness as the guest of the father of the girl whom he expects to marry as soon as he is divorced.

This unique question of law was raised in the case of Rosemond McDonald against Clarence P. McDonald, wherein the plaintiff had secured an order of the court requiring the defendant to pay her 60 per cent of his salary to support her and her three small children while the suit is pending. Soon after the order of the court was made McDonald quit work and of course he was left without any salary.

Then Mrs. McDonald complained to the court that her husband had entered into an illegal agreement to marry Irene Carruthers as soon as he was free to do so, and he was being harbored and supported by the father of Miss Carruthers so that he would not have to work and pay alimony to his wife. Mrs. McDonald declared that Carruthers and his daughter and McDonald had entered into a conspiracy to starve her into submitting to divorce without alimony. She asked the court to enjoin Carruthers from supporting her husband, so that he would have to go to work and earn a salary for the support of his family. The court holds that no man can be enjoined from supporting another, which in effect means that McDonald cannot be compelled by the law to go to work.

Widow Sues Railroad.

Josephine C. Johnson, a widow with four children, has filed suit in the federal court against the Minneapolis & Omaha road, she seeks to collect $25,000 for the death of her husband, upon whom she and the children, all the latter under eight years of age, were dependent for support.

Charles A. Johnson is said to have been a faithful employe of the road during the twenty-two years prior to the disaster last Oct. On that date he was going over the road beyond Emerson, Neb., on a handcar, such being his duty as section foreman. The widow alleges that Johnson was run down by a train traveling at the rate of forty miles an hour and that the engineer did not whistle or give other notice of his approach. Mrs. Johnson urges that the Omaha road be held to answer for the alleged lack of warning.

AVENGERS BLOW UP HIS HOUSE

Children of Accused Murderer Attempt Life of Man Who Knows Their Father's Deeds.

MENA, Ark., July 5.—An apparent attempt to kill G. W. Lance, a farmer living twenty miles southeast of here, by blowing up his house with dynamite was made last night, but proved unsuccessful. Samuel Jones was arrested and is said to have confessed to having been connected with the crime. He implicates Larry, Archie and Maud Wiley, and it is said all three will be arrested. Mr. Lance is said to have known something concerning the guilt of William Wiley, father of the three children named, and who was taken to Texas two weeks ago on a charge of murder. The dynamite used was stolen from a prospecting camp near the Lance house.

FATALITIES AT CELEBRATION

List of Dead and Injured Shorter Than Last Year—Toy Pistol Still Active.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Tribune presents reports from all over the country showing the number of persons killed and injured as a result of celebrating the Fourth of July. The number actually killed is less than last year, being nineteen, against thirty then, but the number of injured is considerably larger, the figures showing 1,611, against 1,225. The real list of fatalities will, however, not be known until the number of deaths resulting from lockjaw caused by toy pistol wounds come in.

Last year in Chicago there were no deaths reported on July 5 from toy pistols, but before the month was out twenty-five had died from the resulting lockjaw and the remainder of the country sent in equally fatal records.

Chicago last year had one death and forty-two injured. This time no death is reported, but there is a list of 103 injured. The number of wounds from toy pistols, however, is limited to five, which would indicate that the prohibition put on that dangerous toy was at least partially effective.

Of other cities Philadelphia makes the largest showing. It reports 175 casualties of every kind and description and Cincinnati comes next with 150. New York was singularly lucky, being behind Chicago in the list of injured, but it had three deaths resulting from an explosion of cannon in the Bronx, and New London had a premature explosion of a cannon, by which two more were killed.

Next to the fireworks comes the toy pistol in the casualty list. Two hundred and forty-nine children were injured by these "toys" in various cities of the country and the question now is, what will the fatality list from this source finally amount to? The other causes of injuries divided the honors fairly well between them, except that the most serious harm was done by the premature explosion of cannon in the hands of people who were not accustomed to their use. In several cases unfortunate lost hands and arms by this means. A lamentable case occurred in a small town in South Dakota, where a boy was instantly killed by the explosion of an avial which was being used in lieu of a cannon. The loss by fire resulting in the careless use of fireworks or their premature explosion was less than in previous years, the loss as a rule being small ones and the damage slight. In the entire country, from reports received last night, it amounted to but a little over $60,000.

Veteran Fire Chief Ill.

CLEVELAND, O., July 5.—Ex-Chief W. F. Dickinson of the Cleveland fire department, one of the oldest and best known fire fighters in the country, fell critically ill at his home in this city as a result of a stroke of apoplexy suffered yesterday. Chief Dickinson was retired about a year ago, owing to poor health.

ITALIAN MINERS SUFFOCATE

Overcome by Fire Damp While Drinking Beer in Abandoned Coal Shaft.

PITTSBURGH, July 5.—Four Italian miners while on a spree went to an abandoned coal mine at Catsburg about a mile from Monongahela about 4 o'clock this morning. They were overcome by fire damp and were found dead later in the day. They are: STEVE COEKEY, ANDREW GETZLINSKI, MIKE MANOWNSKI, FRANK L. WILSON.

All were employed by the Schoenberg Coal company. The men attended an Italian dance at Monongahela last night and after the dance it is understood they took a keg of beer and went to one of the rooms of the mine. The wet weather caused an accumulation of fire damp in the room.

WANTS MONEY FROM THE ELKS

Allen G. Myers, Once a Prominent Member, Sues for Damages for Ejection.

COLUMBUS, O., July 5.—Allen G. Myers today brought suit in the United States district court here for $50,000 damages against the grand lodge of Elks. He claims that he was wrongfully and illegally expelled from the order; that his newspaper, the Elk, was destroyed and his history of the Elks rendered valueless and the ritual of the order, of which he was the author and proprietor, was appropriated and is now in use, for all of which he seeks damages in the amount stated. Myers was expelled five years ago and would have been barred from bringing suit by the statute of limitations in a few days. He was expelled for creating a disturbance in the order. He was prominent in the order previous to his expulsion.
