Whether or not there was excuse for Gordon is a question much discussed. It is said that he has been off his arm for Detroit landed on the boy with vim. The first inning went off in lovely shape, one, two, three, and one was a strikeout. People thought that Gordon was out to accomplish

With the three on bases Law flew out to Letcher, and it looked as if the thing might be stopped. Jackson, cf. 1 Duan, cf. 0 1 took first on Gordon's error and Brashear Belden's three-base hit which followed dispelled all hopes and doubts as well.

The trio scored and Pa Stewart told Coons and Gordon to change places. Cock- Baltimore man flew out and the distressing inning came to an end. In the fourth they began on Coons just as they had on Gordon, and it looked for a minute as if they would do the Indian likewise. McCreedie's double started it and Rohe's single scored him. Then Fleming dropped Congalton's fly and there were two men on bases when Brashear struck out and ended the inning.

Only a Dream.

The rest of the game was slow in the way of runs, the visitors securing another in the seventh and Omaha scoring one each in the sixth and seventh. The locals strove mightily to get Ferguson on the toboggan and when they made three suc-cessive singles in the seventh it seemed that they had succeeded. But it was all a dream. ing weather as well as could be expected CINCINNATI, July 11.-The handleap at six and a half furlongs was the feature at Newport today. John McElrey was an easy winner over a field of speedy ones. J. T. Thompson, John Sheridan and Henry Reif were ruled off today for fighting in the her-ting ring several days ago. Thompson is a horse owner and the others stable hands. Results Corn is making up for the time it lost during the cool, damp days of June. The potato crop is immense. Several large shipments are being made to towns in the northern part of the state. D. Hinman has a large patch full of potato pickers and D. B. Gurney, who purchased a sixacre field of William Semple for shipment, reports a yield of 240 bushels to the acre. This is an enormous yield for potatoes dug at this time of the year.

TYNDALL, S. D., July 11.-(Special.)-Crops are looking fine. The barley harvest will be ready this week and oats and wheat next week. Corn is far advanced for this time of year and in most fields plowing has stopped. Early corn is tasseling.
