IDENTIFIES HER ASSAILANT

Mary Marks Declares Police Have the Right Man Arrested.

HE GIVES NAME OF EDWARD MORGAN

Prisoner is from Council Bluffs and Says He Has a Wife and Two Children — Identification Seems to Be Positive.

Little Mary Marks of Dundee, recently the victim of a criminal assault, is positive that she has discovered her assailant.

Edward Morgan is under arrest for the assault on the Marks girl.

He was arrested at 8 yesterday morning while driving on Center street, near Ruser's park.

Morgan says he is married, has two children and lives near the Driving park in Council Bluffs. He denies that he committed the assault on Mary Marks, but the story he relates to the police as to his whereabouts during the last few weeks is inconsistent and improbable.

He admits that he drove through Dundee on the day the crime was committed and says that he went there to look for a friend whom he had not seen for two years. When asked to give this friend's name he said it was Clark, but could give no information as to where Clark might be found.

Morgan was arrested by Officers Briggs and Kroeger of the South Omaha force and was taken, with his delapidated rig, direct to the South Omaha jail, after which the sheriff's office was notified by telephone. Sheriff Power was not at his office when the news of the arrest came, having started in the morning with Deputy Flynn, out through the country to search for the man who was seen by Mary Marks and her mother Wednesday.

Identification Seems Positive.

Deputy Sheriff Jones, as soon as word was received that a suspect was under arrest, went after the Marks girl and took her to South Omaha. When the little girl was shown Morgan's horse and buggy she declared they were the same as were used by her assailant. The buggy is an old one and has many peculiar marks to distinguish it from other vehicles, and in it was a dinner bucket, which the little girl positively identified as being the bucket which was in the buggy in which she was carried away. The horse is a small bay and the Marks girl was also positive in identifying it.

After making sure that the horse and buggy were the same as were used by her assailant, the girl was taken into Morgan's presence. She immediately declared that he was the man who had assaulted her. A jackknife which had been taken from the prisoner was then shown to the girl and she said it was the same kind of a knife as her assailant flourished.

The little girl was asked if there was any chance for her to be mistaken in her identification of the man and the horse and buggy and she declared there was none. She was absolutely sure that the officers had the right man under arrest.

Morgan is about 30 years of age, has dark hair and a small red mustache. He wears jean pants, heavy shoes and a slouch hat.

Prisoner Goes to Lincoln.

As soon as Sheriff Power heard of the arrest he went to South Omaha and took charge of the prisoner. As there was considerable danger of a mob attempting to take Morgan the sheriff decided that it would be best not to bring him to Omaha, but to take him to the penitentiary at Lincoln. The sheriff and his prisoner, accompanied by Deputy Flynn, left South Omaha for Lincoln at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

In South Omaha the party boarded the Burlington train at Thirty-fifth and L streets, and despite an undercurrent of talk there was no demonstration.

The man who says his name is Ed Morgan is believed to be Edward Morgel, who lives northwest of the Driving park on what is known as Big Lake island, a piece of land belonging to the city of Council Bluffs and lying between Big lake and the river.

Morgel was arrested in 1891, charged with a similar crime to that of which he is now accused. He was convicted, but appealed to the supreme court, which finally, in 1895, confirmed the verdict of the lower court and Morgel was taken to the penitentiary, where he served a sentence of fifteen months.

ARMY OFFICERS ON TRIAL

One Accused of Murdering a Native and Another of Striking a Private.

MANILA, July 11.—The trial of Lieutenant Brown of the Second infantry, charged with murdering, near Binangonan, Infanta province, a native who was suspected of responsibility in the death of a soldier, began today. The soldier referred to was drowned while a detachment of the Second infantry was swimming a river under fire. The lieutenant, at the time of the occurrence, questioned the native and the latter bolted, whereupon Brown shot him dead.

Captain Francis H. Fremont, also of the Second infantry, is being tried for striking a soldier. The court has requested that a witness now in Washington be ordered here to testify.

As an outgrowth of the ill-feeling existing in some quarters it developed recently that H. Phelps Whitmarsh, the governor of Benguet (who has been ordered here to have certain charges against him investigated), had a physical encounter with Secretary Otto Scherer of that province, who disapproved of the governor's administration. The United States commissioners believe Scherer is true to the interests of the natives.

LEAVES TO RESCUE PEARY

Herbert Bridgman Starts on Long Journey to the Frozen North.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Herbert L. Bridgman, secretary of the Peary Arctic club and head of the expedition to the north by which it is hoped to discover the fate of Explorer R. E. Peary, his wife and little daughter, left at noon today for Sidney, B. C., which will be his sailing point.

Mr. John Tippis, Colton, O., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my little girl of a severe cough and inflamed tonsils."
