This is the last day of The Bee's vaca-Five o'clock this afternoon-not five o'clock and ten minutes or fifteen minutes, but 5 o'clock sharp-is the final limit for the reception of votes.

Votes will not be received after the hour So this is one day when you'll have to hurry. Time is precious, A young man who went to school down at Roaring Fork, Mo.-college, they call it there instead of school-undertook to give a display of his wisdom in Latin. said: "Tempus is fugiting." He meant that time is flying.

And so it is. This will be a warm day in more ways than one. In the first place, the side-walks are hot enough to cook eggs without the aid of fire.

And then, in a figurative sense, it will be warm all day, because the young women who have engaged in this contest are making a warm race for supremney. The word "supremacy" in this instance is a synonym for vacation.

Nov is the time to shake out those votes you have up your sleeve. It will do no good to hold them. Tomorrow they will be as valueless as an out of date street railway transfer or a bird's nest that has fuifilled its mission several years ago, The proper thing to do today is to hustle and do not forget to vote often/and early.

The earlier the better And, above all, remember that you have had fair warning to get your votes in not Tomorrow night (Tuesday) the four young women in the Omaha list who win

Kansas City Doctor Talks of Conditions in Joulty - Galena

"Speculation in lead and zinc mining properties is a thing of the past," said Dr. Porter Jones of Kansas City Sunday. "I was down at Galena, Kan., jast week," he continued, "and found everything practically suspended. In the boom days of the camp I was there, along in 1898. At that time it was impossible to secure an office and, as I intended to engage in the practice of my profession, I was forced to lease a vacant lot and erect a small house. This was what called me back to the town last week. When I left there I had no trouble in renting the room for $10 a month and had more applications than could be accommodated. Recently the rent has not been paid and I went down to see about it. The same tenant was in the place and when I asked him for rent he laughed at me and said that he thought I owed him something for taking care of the property, as he had been offered space in other buildings rent free if he would preserve the house.

and mines which brought thousands of people and millions of dollars into the Joplin-Galena district a few years ago, but the speculators, with few exceptions, lost most of the money they put into the properties. In the first place there was no reason for the high price of mineral which prevailed at that time, and with that high price many mines were being operated which would not pay at a lower price. The eastern men did not seem to realize this and any mine that prices was accepted as a good investment. When the price of zinc went off $5 a ton nearly half of the mines in operation were forced to close down. Hundreds of men miners were thrown out of employment. of the proposed school building. marke, at any price and many of the people who held leases only were closed out. The system of leasing land at a percentage from the owner of the fee is one of the peculiarities of that district, and when the mine ceases to produce ore and is closed for more than thirty days the lesece's right lapses So there are now many mines fairly well developed which are to be again leased by line to reach the eastern portion of the the land owner. The residents of the district who have a little money are operating some of these mines on a small scale and making good wages, but the money necessary to develop them came from the foolish eastern investor."

James G. Amhertof, Della, O., writes: had an obstinate sore on my face which everything else failed to heal. After one application of Banner Salve it began to heal and after three applications it was entirely healed, leaving no scar.

Important Meeting of City Council is on the Slate.

MUCH BUSINESS IN

Taxpayers Anxiously Await Outcome of Board of Education Meeting-Probable Injunction Against

High School Building

THE BUDGET

Notwithstanding that the mayor and city attorney are out of the city, the council is slated for a full business meeting tonight and unless the hot weather or some other reason keeps the councilmen from appearing at the session a great deal of business will be dispatched. In the first place the ordinance creating permanent sidewalk districts will come up for its first reading and may be rushed through under a suspension of the rules. There is little controversy on this matter and the council seems to be in favor of permanent sidewalks, under the recommendation of City Attorney Lumbert in his report aiready filed.

Another important matter is to come up and will undoubtedly be pushed through with all possible haste. Under the laws as they now stand the South Omaha Street Fair association has the control of Twenty-fourth and N streets, under the ordinance giving it that right some weeks ZINC BOOM ON THE WANE and the council will have full control of the ago. This ordinance will now be repealed streets and alleys and the licensing of it for amusement purposes.

It is not known whether the pontoon bridge people will file another ordinance or not. In all probability this matter will be deferred until the return of Mr. Lambert, even if it is filed, owing to his rabid criticism, which he filed on the formation of the old ordinance, which was drafted without his advice by the local attorney of with it, inasmuch as the question of granting franchise rights seems to be involved in the matter.

W. P. Adkins, as acting mayor, will preside. All members of the council are in town and as the council is away behind in its work in all probability it will be an interesting meeting from start to finish.

Watching the School Board.

Whatever action will be taken tonight by the Board of Education if it meets will govern the action of some ten or twelve taxpayers of the city who have employed "That was a great boom in mineral lands ings ready to file in the district court for an injunction against the board erecting tention a High school building.

Whether or not the board will really meet tonight is a matter of doubt. It is a regular meeting night, but owing to the agitation which has been started over the so-called Hoctor school it is said that a quorum cannot be obtained, but that an adjournment will be taken until a later

Many mines were placed on the for injunction proceedings. Owing to the lack of funds in the school treasury it is said that under the law the board is not empowered to go on with this work and this technical point is the club which is being swung by the taxpayers' organization.

The proposed extension of the street car town and to take in Missouri avenue and that portion of the city does not seen to be in a materializing condition. When the matte- was first taken up it was thought that the street car company would surely do as the city requested along this line However, property owners in that part of the city do not seem to be in any great rush to have the street paved or grade and before this is done it is said that the street car company will do nothing As the grading and paving work may not be consummated this fall it may be that the eastern portion of the town will have to go another six months without car service.

Revising Ordinance Delayed.

In all probability the city council will not take any action to have the ordinances to October 20. Chicago to New York, at of the city revised, at least not until Mayor Kelly returns from his western trip. The council seems to be in favor of having address W. H. Brill, D. P. A., I. C. R. This will enable you that it will wait until the return of the to visit Atlantic City or other seaside re- mayor and city attorney before it takes any action. What its plan of revision is has not been given out.

Heat Proves Fatal.

Dave Monroe, age about 38, was found fead in his room in the Pivonka block, Twenty-sixth and N streets, yesterday morning. The last seen of him alive was about 10 o'clock Saturday night. He had been driving a soda-water wagon and complained to some friends that he felt sick from the heat and could not get any re Yesterday morning when the janitor gave the alarm and the door was forced in He had apparently gone to bed, but had died M. Monroe has lived in South Omaha for a long time and is well known here. He has a family, which is now out of the city spending the summer in Iowa, but has been notified of his death.

Clarence Gibson Dies.

Clarence B. Gibson, 826 North Twelfth street, died early yesterday morning of appendicitis. He had been sick but a short time, but the extreme heat seemed to agentirely unexpected and was a great surprise when announced. Deceased is brother of L. C. Gibson and has lived in South Omaha for years. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The work which has been done during the past week on the relic of the South Omaha street fair bull fight arena has had the effect of reducing the structure considerably and it is thought that by the end of this week nothing will be left to mark the spot where bulls escaped wholesale slaughter and toreadors worked for the applause of those who gathered to witness a bull fight exhibition. Death of Michael Flack.

The lecture was worthy of a larger audience, but it could have hardly secured a more enthusiastic one, for it was of a character to bring to the minds of every man who has Irish blood in his veins an overflow of pride in the fact. The illustrations were effective in ochig up-todate and well executed and in having as their expositor a man familiar with every

The evening was "A Tour Through Ireland," in which the lecturer took his audience not only along the well traveled roads, but dropped aside at times to bring before them scenes of typical Irish life which are not aiways along the routes laid out in the books. The exposition was reguide plete with statements of historial fact and the recounting of traditions and dramatic scenes and incidents dear to the heart of every man and woman who wears the

SUBURBAN LINE FRANCHISE

Attorney J. H. Van Dusen has gone to he mountains for a two weeks' fishing ex-ceptable Ferm. THEN IT IS TO BE HELD READY

Privileges for Building and Operating May Be Secured by Any Corporation that Will Comply with County's Terms.

While the county commissioners are unwilling to grant any of the franchises so far proposed for suburban and interurban electric railways they are not disposed to stand in the way of such an enterprise if a contract properly protecting the interests of the county is acceptable to any trated lecture by Rev. Eugene Sheehy of of the railway promoters. Accordingly they have instructed their special counsel to prepare a form of franchise which will care for the public interests and this franchise will this week be offered to any company which desires it and is able to carry out its provisions.

"The franchise which we shall offer." said Commissioner Ostrom, "will not be of the blanket kind. I am opposed to giving any company the exclusive right to build railways over the county roads wherever and whenever it deems. The new franchise will allow six months for surveys and the filing of plats and after the expiration of this time the company will be given just one year in which to build, equip and operate ten miles of road. An additional year will be allowed for the completion of the system as surveyed and platted. The company will forfeit its rights if it fails to complete any of its lines within the time allowed by the contract. "The new franchise will also provide that the county shall have the option to purchase the railway at the expiration of twenty-five years or at any time thereafter, the value of the plant to be fixed by board of arbitration and the franchise t be put in at a valuation of $1. The con tracts we have had before us have been for fifty years and the county's right to purchase at the expiration of that time was not clearly stated in them. Under such a contract the company might de mand a heavy amount for its franchise if the time for public ownership should ever come. I would never vote to give away franchise which we might be asked to buy back at a big price at some time in the future.
