Carnival Management Receiving Many Ap-

FERARI WANTS TO BRING WILD ANIMALS Gaston Ahkoun Seeks Concession for

The best evidence that the forthcoming fall carnival of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will be an occasion of importance is found in the great volume of correspondence from would-be concessionaires. They are willing to invest their time and capital in booth privileges, to cater to the great crowds that will be present, and as a general thing they are people who do not make nondividend paying investments. They have 'passed up' street fairs and autumn festivals galore in order to get concessions here in Omaha. The management says that never before in the history of the organization has there been so many offers from show people as there are this season. Among the letters received from this class during the last week is one from Joseph G. She says that admission to the camp will be free, but that all visitors will be expected to "cross the palm" of the Sibyl with silver in consideration of her lifting the veil of futurity. "Frederick the Great" writes a long, interesting letter, but from certain hints dropped it seems that he is a juggler and not a statesman. One man wante a monopoly on the drink privileges, but he will be refused. By this time he has received a letter saying that the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will not permit the sale of intoxicating drinks on the grounds.

Food Cure

NATURE'S WAY

HEALTH REGAINED VIA FOOD.

A man may try all sorts of drugs to help him to get well, but after all the "food cure' is the method intended by nature. Anyone can prove the efficacy of the food cure by making use of the following breakfast each morning for fifteen or twenty days: A dish containing not more than four heaping tenspoonsful of Grape-Nuts, enough good, rich cream to go with them, some raw or cooked fruit, not more than two slices of entire wheat bread and not more than one cup of Postum Food Coffee, to be sipped, not drank hurriedly. Let this auffice for the breakfast.

Let one meal in the day consist of an abundance of good meat, potato and one
