Three and One-Half Inches.

ASHLAND, Neb., July 28.-(Special.)-A soaking rain began failing here at 7:30 Saturday night, continuing until early this morning. The government gauge on Quality hill reports three and one-half inches of rainfall. At the B. & M. depot 3.08 inches fell. A few miles northwest the rain was heavier, over four and one-half inches falling at H. L. Hovey's and W. B. Lucas' places in Clear Creek precinct. A heavy wind accompanied the shower, but little damage was done. This is the first rain that has visited this vicinity since July 4. Crops along the Platte river bottom will be the most benefited by this downpour, there being prospects there for a fair average corn crop. The corn crop co the upland is badly damaged in many places, although this rain will be of great benefit to the pastures and fall plowing, besides insuring a good crop of fodder for cattle to winter on.

LYONS, Neb., July 28 .- (Special.)-A soaking rain fell here this afternoon, the first since the dry spell began, twentythree days ago. About one and one-fourth inches fell, which will insure a good crop of corn. The dry weather has enabled the farmers to get the small grain in good shape, and it is threshing out well.

WAHOO, Neb., July 28.-(Special.)-The drouth in this county has been broken. A copious rain fell here last evening at $ o'clock and from reports it was general throughout the county. The measurement was one inch. Saunders county, though damaged by the long period of no rain and high temperature, will have plenty of corn to feed and some for market, if conditions continue favorable.
