(From a Staff Correspondent) DES MOINES, Aug. 12.-(Special.)-A neeting of the executive committee of the lowa Insurance Educational association was held in Des Moines today. Those present at the meeting were: W. M. Black, Des Moines, president; B. L. West, Cedar Rapids, secretary; E. S. Phelps, Burlington, and A. A. Clark, W. D. Skinner, John Berry and C. W. Fracker of Des Moines. This association is for the purpose of looking after fire insurance matters for the lows insurance companies. One particular object is to maintain a lobby to work against any bill like "the valued policy bill," which was introduced at the last session and only prevented from becoming a law by the veto of Governor Shaw. The association will employ a press agent to look after the newspapers and furnish them with material favorable to the insurance companies and will employ and maintain the strongest kind of a lobby at the legislature next winter. The meeting today was preliminary to engaging in this work in a formal way.

No Old Soldiers' Day.

Inquiries commenced to come in to the office of the assistant adjutant general for lowa concerning tickets for soldiers for the soldiers' day at the State fair, when the fact was disclosed that the board has decided not to have a soldiers' day at the State fair this year. This is the first time in many years that the fair management has not provided for a special day for the soldiers and there is much disappointment among the old soldiers on this account. The officials of the fair state that last year, while there was a day for the old soldiers, they did nothing and never called their meeting to order. Hence they will try it one year without an old soldiers' Bluffs. Forty trays, making twenty matches, day. In fact, it has been found almost impossible to prevent misuse of the old soldiers' tickets.
